Acts: On a Time Line (Approx. A.D. 33-67)

Christ (40days), 7 days later/Pentecost; a day or so later; P & J in temple; 1st & 2nd trials of 12; just a few days
Acts 1 Acts 2 Acts 3 Acts 4 Acts 5

Days/weeks pass; Grecians murmur; Stephen's speech; scattering; Trips to Samaria & desert; a few months at the most.
Acts 6 Acts 7 Acts 8

Saul's salvation; 3 years in Arabia; several weeks for Jerusalem trip and Peter to Joppa; then to Cornelius
<<<<< Acts 9 >>>>> Acts 10

Peter to Jerusalem explaining; Saul to Antioch, then to Jerusalem; Angel of the Lord delivers Peter; he goes away
<<<< Acts 11 >>>> (more than a year) <<<< Acts 12 >>>>

Saul & Barnabas separated; go to Antioch in Pisidia(Gentiles); other cities in Galatia; finishes this ministry
<<<<<<< Acts 13 >>>>> <<< Acts 14 >>> no more than 14 years

Paul,Barnabas,Titus to Jerusalem; council there listens to Peter, then Paul, James writes to Paul's churches
<<<<<< Acts 15 No later than A.D. 50 >>>>>>

Between Acts 16 and Acts 20, the years we can actually count are about 4-5. Judging time and distance it appears to be a total of between 8-10 years to get to Acts 21

From Acts 22 to Acts 28, from on incarceration to another to another to another: a possibility of 3-5 years

Acts starts at resurrection (AD 33), ends with 2 years at Rome in approx. AD 65-67

Jerry Lockhart, 888 Landa St., New Braunfels, TX 78130 830-620-4704 www.graceforall.net