

THE 4TH LATINX PHILOSOPHY AND SMAP CONFERENCE
Marquette University – Milwaukee, WI
May 2-4, 2019

Thursday, May 2: Haggerty Museum of Art

- 4:00 – 4:10 Welcoming Remarks
- 4:10 – 5:50 pm Marquette Forum Panel: “Democracy in Troubled Times: Immigration and Social Justice”
Jorge M. Valadez (Our Lady of the Lake University), “Immigration and International Justice”
Alan Chavoya (Marquette University), “A Negative Path Towards Anti-Racist Immigration Policy”
Alberto G. Urquidez (Gustavus Adolphus College), “Racial Dehumanization and its Relation to Racism”
Allison Wolf (Simpson College), “Dying in Detention as an Example of Oppression”
- 6:00 – 7:00 pm Latin American Philosophy Undergraduate Student Panel
Chair: Stephanie Rivera Berruz, Marquette University
- 7:00– 8:00 pm Reception

Friday, May 3: Alumni Memorial Union, 254

- 9:15 – 10:00 am Breakfast
- 10:00 – 10:45am Jorge Montiel (Marquette University), “Aztec Metaphysics: Two Interpretations of an Evanescent World”
- 11:00am – 11:45 am Francisco Gallegos (Wake Forest University), “Portilla’s Hope: Phenomenological Flourishing and Affective Liberation”
- 12:00 – 1:55pm Lunch & Poster Display: Marquette Latin American Philosophy Undergraduate Students
- 2:00 – 3:15 pm Keynote Address: Jacqueline Martinez (Arizona State University)
“Commitments to Embodied Realities at the Border: Latinx and Mexican American Philosophy”
- 3:30 – 4:15 pm José-Antonio Orosco (Oregon State University), “Ralph Waldo Emerson and Lorenzo de Zavala and the Continental Quest for Democracy and Racial Justice in the United States of North America”
- 4:30 – 5:15 pm Carmen Maria Marcous (Florida State University) and Damián Bravo Zamora (Universidad Anáhuac México), “Teaching Transgression: Border Crossing in Philosophy”
- 6:30 pm Dinner

Saturday, May 4: Alumni Memorial Union, 254

- 9:15 – 10:00 am Breakfast
- 10:00 – 10:45am Pedro Monque (CUNY Graduate Center), “Why Reparations for Indigenous Peoples Require Epistemic Justice”

THE 4TH LATINX PHILOSOPHY AND SMAP CONFERENCE
Marquette University – Milwaukee, WI
May 2-4, 2019

- 11:00am – 11:45 am Poster Talk Through: Francisco Javier Hernandez (UTEP) & Aimée Santillán (UTEP)
Sponsored by APA Fund of Beyond Borders: Bringing Latinx Undergraduates into Philosophy
- 12:00 – 1:55pm Lunch & Marquette Latin American Philosophy Undergraduate Students
- 2:00 – 3:15 pm Keynote Address: José Medina (Northwestern University)
“Imagining Otherwise: Resisting and Queering Latinx Gender Violence”
- 3:30 – 4:45pm Panel: “Disparities in Access to Scarce Medical Resources”
Teresa Lopez and Javiera Perez-Gomez (University of Maryland, College Park)
- 5:00 – 5:45 pm Eric Bayruns Garcia (CUNY Graduate Center), “Coverage Reliance Ignorance”
- 7:00 pm Dinner

Sponsored by: Marquette University Center for Research and Innovation, Department of Philosophy, Department of Languages, Literatures and Cultures, The Center for Transnational Justice, Office of Diversity and Inclusion, the Center for Humanities, the Marquette Forum, UW Milwaukee Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies: A Title VI National Resource Center funded by the U.S. Department of Education, Rutgers University, and Seton Hall University.

Questions or Inquiries

Contact Your Local Hosts: Stephanie Rivera Berruz: stephanie.riveraberruz@marquette.edu
Grant Silva: grant.silva@marquette.edu

Latinx Philosophy Email: latinxphilosophy@gmail.com