

Name: Key

Period _____

Date ____/____/____

Anti-Federalist #81

Directions: Place the letter corresponding to your word choice to fill the blank in the quotes and paraphrased excerpts from the reading.

Word Box

- | | | | |
|--------------|----------------|-------------|------------|
| A. liberal | B. nothing | C. spirit | D. resort |
| E. criminal | F. legislature | G. preamble | H. justice |
| I. authority | J. threat | | |

- D 1. The power to be the court of last _____ is granted by the constitution and cannot be taken away by the legislature or the executive.
- J 2. Brutus admits he does not understand how a question of legislation could be brought before the court and that a _____ only exists if a matter is brought before the court.
- F 3. The principles on which the court forms its decisions will dictate how the _____ proceeds with its own powers.
- A 4. Based on the powers it has, the court will probably rely on very _____ principles to justify their decisions.
- G 5. The principle goals of the constitution, leading to the discovery of the spirit of the constitution, are found in the _____.
- I 6. The generality of “to form a more perfect union” threatens the _____ of the states.
- H 7. To comply with the constitutional principle of establishing _____, the courts will in their decisions extend the power of the government to all cases they possibly can.
- C 8. The _____ of this new system is to abolish all the powers of the state governments.
- B 9. The powers of the legislature will make the power of the state governments’ _____.
- E 10. In regards to _____ matters, it is a new and unusual thing to allow appeals following a fair and impartial trial by jury.

Study Guide: A Conversation About the Constitution

Thursday, November 12, 2013 | Johnson County Community College | Yardley Hall

Name: _____

Period _____

Date ____/____/____

Anti-Federalist #81

Directions: Place the letter corresponding to your word choice to fill the blank in the quotes and paraphrased excerpts from the reading.

Word Box

- | | | | |
|--------------|----------------|-------------|------------|
| A. liberal | B. nothing | C. spirit | D. resort |
| E. criminal | F. legislature | G. preamble | H. justice |
| I. authority | J. threat | | |

- _____ 1. The power to be the court of last _____ is granted by the constitution and cannot be taken away by the legislature or the executive.
- _____ 2. Brutus admits he does not understand how a question of legislation could be brought before the court and that a _____ only exists if a matter is brought before the court.
- _____ 3. The principles on which the court forms its decisions will dictate how the _____ proceeds with its own powers.
- _____ 4. Based on the powers it has, the court will probably rely on very _____ principles to justify their decisions.
- _____ 5. The principle goals of the constitution, leading to the discovery of the spirit of the constitution, are found in the _____.
- _____ 6. The generality of “to form a more perfect union” threatens the _____ of the states.
- _____ 7. To comply with the constitutional principle of establishing _____, the courts will in their decisions extend the power of the government to all cases they possibly can.
- _____ 8. The _____ of this new system is to abolish all the powers of the state governments.
- _____ 9. The powers of the legislature will make the power of the state governments’ _____.
- _____ 10. In regards to _____ matters, it is a new and unusual thing to allow appeals following a fair and impartial trial by jury.

Study Guide: A Conversation About the Constitution

Thursday, November 12, 2013 | Johnson County Community College | Yardley Hall