Men of Worth Entertain and Impress

Local musician, Scott Milner, joined Men of Worth musicians, Donnie Macdonald and James Keigher, for a couple of songs during their concert at Swan Valley School.

Men of Worth, presented by 2 Valleys Stage, played to a full house at the Swan Valley School this past weekend. They treated the audience to a blend of Scottish and Irish folk music using a variety of instruments. They even invited local musicians to join them on stage for a few songs.

Concertgoers also enjoyed Art in the Lobby courtesy of Swan Valley and Condon artists and guests. The newest members of Alpine Artisans, Boaz Mendenhall and Sarah Hough, featured their Fairytale Creations. Art from the students of Swan Valley School was also on display.

Men of Worth spent Monday and Tuesday in the Swan Valley School, Seeley Lake Elementary, and Seeley Swan High School, giving informances and leading workshops for the students.

Above: James Keigher performing on a mandolin and singing. Keigher also played a guitar and bodhran, an Irish frame drum.

Below: Donnie Macdonald playing guitar and singing. Macdonald also performed tenor banjo, concertina, octave mandolin, and bodhran.
