

The In the Footsteps of Norman Maclean Festival presents

WRITING THE WEST:

THE WAY FORWARD

Festival Sponsorship Opportunities

September 13-15, 2019

Seeley Lake and Missoula Montana • macleanfootsteps.com

A production of Alpine Artisans, Inc. • alpineartisans.org

The In the Footsteps of Norman Maclean Festival presents

WRITING THE WEST: A WAY FORWARD

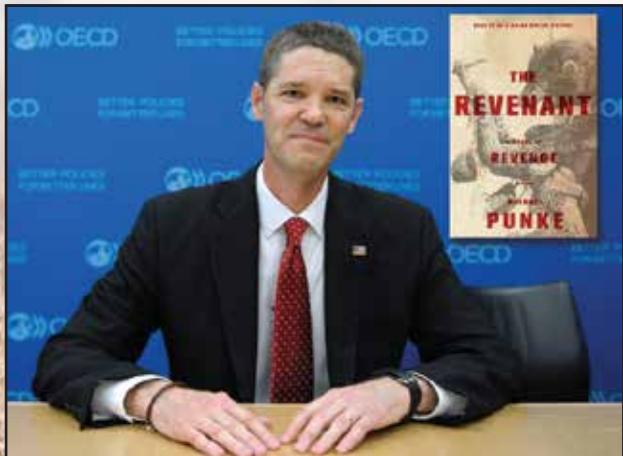

Sponsorship Opportunities

In 2019, the third In the Footsteps of Norman Maclean Festival expands its focus to explore the work of authors who have written about the west with a critical eye. The festival theme, Writing the West: A Way Forward, is reflected in the entire body of work of our keynote speaker, Michael Punke, best known for his novel, The Revenant: A Novel of Revenge. Michael Punke's work will set up the themes to be presented by many notable writers who have followed in Maclean's footsteps.

Friday, September 13

- Tour of Maclean's Seeley Lake "Neighborhood"
- Tour of Norman's Favorite Fishing Holes
- John N. Maclean and Peter Koch will present Elers Koch's book 40 Years a Forester: 1903-1943, at the Museum of Forest Service History, Missoula

Saturday, September 14

Writing the West: A Way Forward, Michael Punke

Confirmed writers include:

- Rick Bass
- Debra Magpie Earling
- Richard Manning
- Dan O'Brien
- Judy Blunt
- Frank John Arlee
- Annick Smith
- Peter Stark

Sunday, September 15

From the Book to the Big Screen:

The Revenant

Mark Smith, Screenwriter
The Revenant

Michael Punke, author of
The Revenant: A Novel of Revenge

Screening of the film The Revenant