

General Education Objectives

How many times these objectives were addressed by a course objective:
Communicate effectively using appropriate rhetorical skills that are reflective of God's redemptive purpose.	GE #1	435
Acquire and critically analyze and evaluate written, oral and visual communication.	GE #2	623
Critique diverse cultures in light of a biblical worldview.	GE #3	243
Formulate and apply logical research, including scientific and quantitative reasoning, to support life-long learning.	GE #4	309
Appraise various cultural contributions of art, music, literature and other humanities to the shaping of human thought.	GE #5	238
Apply stewardship principles that glorify God through managing one's well-being and resources.	GE #6	319
Incorporate a technological awareness to facilitate learning and communication.	GE #7	321

How many courses addressed this objective:

Communicate effectively using appropriate rhetorical skills that are reflective of God's redemptive purpose.	GE #1	191
Acquire and critically analyze and evaluate written, oral and visual communication.	GE #2	216
Critique diverse cultures in light of a biblical worldview.	GE #3	136
Formulate and apply logical research, including scientific and quantitative reasoning, to support life-long learning.	GE #4	154
Appraise various cultural contributions of art, music, literature and other humanities to the shaping of human thought.	GE #5	104
Apply stewardship principles that glorify God through managing one's well-being and resources.	GE #6	109
Incorporate a technological awareness to facilitate learning and communication.	GE #7	136
Number of Courses Mapped:	Courses Mapped	304

General Education Objectives

