

PROGRAM

Morning session 1: Drawing on indigenous and local community information systems to monitor the CBD Aichi targets and REDD+: the experience of three countries
9:30am- 10:45am	Panel discussion, chaired by Andrew Mitchell, Founder and Executive Director of the Global Canopy Programme Presentations: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Indonesia's current plans for using community collected data for REDD+ and how this data can also inform Indonesia's NBSAP, H.H. Mr. Heru Prasetyo, Head of the National REDD+ Agency, Republic of Indonesia - Community-led monitoring system on forest Carbon and biodiversity, Florence Daguitan, Indigenous Peoples and Biodiversity Program, Indigenous Peoples' International Centre for Policy Research and Education (Tebtebba) - Drawing on traditional knowledge – the case of a community-led monitoring system in Guyana covering social issues and environmental resources, Lucy Goodman, Senior Project Manager, Global Canopy Programme 	Concert Hall
Morning Session 2: Leveraging Public Programmes with socio-economic and development objectives to support conservation and restoration
11:15am- 12:30pm	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Overview and rationale for the study and presentation of the global study, Sakhile Koketso (Secretariat of the Convention on Biological Diversity) - Korean country study: lessons learned from the Republic of Korea's National Reforestation Program, Pyunghwa Yoon (Korea Forest Service) - South African country study: lessons learned from South Africa's environment programmes, Sakhile Koketso with Christo Marais - Brazil's Price-Support Policy for Socio-Biodiversity Derived Products and the Green Grant Programme, Leah Mohammed with João Paulo Viana - Discussion 	Concert Hall
Lunchtime Session: Implementing Aichi Targets 5, 7, 14 and 15 – Research from projects in Brazil and Germany
1:15pm-2:30pm	- Panel Discussion moderated by: Dr. Axel Paulsch, Institute for Biodiversity Network Panelists: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Dr. Cornelia Paulsch (introducing the sustainable land management programme) Dr. Arne Cierjacks (for INNOVATE) Dr. Martin Maier (for COMTESS) 	Concert Hall
Afternoon Session 1: Reducing Coastal Risk- Lessons learned from Restoration activities
3:00pm-4:15pm	This event will showcase examples of projects which combine sustainable coastal land management, coastal restoration and biodiversity-based ecotourism to provide lessons learnt, tools and benefits gained (including poverty alleviation) in an effort to increase restoration activities amongst CBD Parties. This event will call for a movement to launch of a "Caring for Coast Initiative", an initiative to restore coastal wetlands globally. With the participation of: EAAFP, Ramsar Convention Secretariat, CBD Secretariat, BirdLife International	Concert Hall
Afternoon Session 2: High Level Session: Forest Ecosystem Restoration: Moving into Action
4:45pm-6:00-pm	Opening Session: Welcoming and opening remarks by KFS, UNCCD, and CBD Presentations by: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Dr Christopher Briggs, Secretary General , Ramsar Convention - Dr. Pablo Eyzaguirre, Bioersivity International - Dr. T.P. Singh, Deputy IUCN Regional Director in Asia, IUCN - Ms. Naomi Kingston, Head of Protected Areas Programme, UNEP-WCMC - Mr. Mark Zimsky, Coordinator of the Biodiversity Program, GEF Secretariat - Prof. Phil Dobie, Senior Fellow, ICRAF - Eduardo Mansur, Director, Forest Assessment, Management and Conservation Division, FAO High-Level Dialogue: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Dr. Pak Heru Prasetyo , Minister, REDD+ Agency , Indonesia - Ms. Rita Schwarzelühr-Sutter, Parliamentarian State Secretary, Germany - Under Secretary, Guatemala (tbc) Remarks from the floor <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - Participants are invited to engage in open discussion following the high-level dialogue. 	Concert Hall
Evening Session: Korea Forest Service Cocktail Reception: Forest Ecosystem Restoration Initiative		