*Praise God with drum and dance,
praise God with organ and flute. ~Psalm 150*

Dear CBINT Community:

As part of my continued effort to have Jewish music play an increasing role in our congregation, I am excited to announce CBINT's Ninth Annual Concert, on Sunday evening, October 21 at 7:30pm.

This year's concert is titled Lenny at 100: Celebrating Bernstein's Jewish Voice and will explore how Bernstein infused his music with Jewish elements throughout his beloved Broadway classics, his symphonic masterpieces, his rarely performed synagogue works, and much more. This eclectic program of one of America's most treasured composers will be sure to entertain and inspire attendees of all ages.

Performing in this year's concert are some of Milwaukee's top musical theater performers, many of whom are returning from the past two years' successful programs Fiddler: The Untold Tradition and King David: Music From The Broadway Show including the Broadway veteran husband and wife team of Andrew and Susan Varela. We are thrilled to have such talent returning to perform for us and can't wait to hear them sing again at CBINT!

The concert will also feature homegrown CBINT talent including Enid Bootzin Berkovits conducting an all-star local choir, a youth chorus, and yours truly singing selections from Candide and Bernstein's Hashkiveinu from the Shabbat evening service.

To raise funds for this exciting event, I am again offering individuals a unique sponsorship opportunity to underwrite one of the selections we will perform. Songs may be sponsored in memory of a loved one, in honor of an achievement, or in celebration of any other special occasion. We thank those who have already contributed, and look forward to others stepping up to sponsor all the wonderful components of what promises to be an unforgettable evening.

I invite you to help support this event by calling me and offering to be one of the sponsors. I greatly value your interest and support of this and other musical programs at CBINT.

Thank you very much for your support. I look forward to what will be a great event for both the synagogue and the greater community.
