Charter Petition Submission by the Lead Petitioner

On behalf of the UCEN Board of Directors, and Oasis Charter Public School students, families, teachers, and staff, I respectfully submit this charter petition to the Alisal Union School District Board of Trustees for approval of the five-year renewal term July 1, 2016 to June 30, 2021.

This charter petition includes the Rationale for Renewal, Affirmations and Assurances, a reasonably comprehensive description of the 16 required elements per Education Code Section 47605(b)(5)(A-P), and numerous appendices that provide supplemental information regarding the educational program, parent satisfaction, and community support.

Rationale for Renewal

Oasis is fulfilling its mission of bringing together a diverse community and creating a constructivist, culturally relevant, and multicultural learning environment for children in grades kindergarten through six. Renewal of the Oasis charter will allow the school to elevate its trajectory of success over the next five years.

This Rationale for Renewal is organized into the following sections:

- Background
- Curriculum and Instruction
- Smarter Balanced Assessment 2015 Baseline Results
- Legal Requirement for Renewal

Background

Since its founding and authorization by the Alisal Union School District in 2001, Oasis has enjoyed a positive and collaborative relationship with the District. For the past 15 years, Oasis has served the greater Salinas community, providing a high-quality educational option that complements those of the District.

The Oasis student body of approximately 250 learners is a diverse one that includes a range of ethnicities and socioeconomic status. The majority of students live within five Salinas City zip codes. The following table illustrates how the Oasis student body generally mirrors that of the community.

Table 1: Comparison of Oasis Student Body and Salinas City Demographics

	Poverty Indicator	Home Language	Hispanic or Latino	White	African American
Oasis students	55% qualify for Free or Reduced Price Meals	35% are English Language Learners	80%	9%	.02%
Salinas City (zip codes 93901, 93905, 93906, 93907, 93908)	29.6% of related children under 18 years of age live below the poverty line	68.5% of individuals aged 5 years and older speak a language other than English	76.1%	14%	1.3%

Curriculum and Instruction

In preparation for submission of this renewal petition, and as part of the stakeholder-driven needs assessment process to develop the current Local Control Accountability Plan (LCAP), the UCEN Board of Directors and Oasis administrative team analyzed student achievement data, curricula and instructional resources, professional development needs, and the staffing plan to identify key priorities ensuring rigorous classroom instruction, high academic achievement, and a safe and equitable educational environment. As stated in the School’s 2015-18 LCAP, the three focus goals are:

1. Provide high quality and rigorous classroom instruction and curriculum that promote equity for all students with program and services in place to eliminate barriers to student academic achievement.
2. Ensure high academic achievement by fully implementing programs and systems that are culturally and linguistically responsive to the needs and backgrounds of our students.
3. Ensure a safe, welcoming, inclusive and equitable educational environment for all students and their families.

Meeting these goals is predicated upon the utilization of standards-based materials, implementation of the programs, and effectiveness of instructional staff as described in summary below.

- Standards-Aligned Curriculum and Instructional Materials

All students have access to grade level curriculum. Textbooks and other instructional materials are aligned to the California Common Core State Standards, Next Generation Science Standards, and the 2012 California English Language Development Standards.

Core Subject	Textbook/Curriculum Adoption
English Language Arts	Reach for Reading (National Geographic) K-6
English Language Development	Reach for Reading Designated ELD (National Geographic), K-6
Mathematics	Everyday Mathematics (McGraw Hill), K-6
Social Science	Social Studies Alive! (TCI), K-4 History Alive! Ancient World and Medieval World & Beyond (TCI), Gr 5-6
Science	Full Option Science System FOSS (Delta Education), K-6 Concepts and Challenges- Life Science (Pearson), Gr 5-6

- Single-Grade Classrooms

Since its inception in 2001, Oasis has operated multi-grade classrooms. Although idealized multi-grade classrooms can offer several benefits, including helping to develop students’ social, emotional, and verbal skills, and enabling students to learn at their own pace¹, the Oasis leadership team has determined that offering single-grade classrooms is better suited to providing effective instruction aligned to the Common Core State Standards. Therefore, beginning with the 2016-17 school year, all Oasis students will receive instruction in single-grade classrooms.

- Differentiated Instruction

Teachers differentiate instruction for students performing below grade level, gifted students, English learners, and students with disabilities (per student’s Individual Educational Program). Oasis provides academic interventions before and after school as well as during the instructional day.

- Assessment System

Oasis utilizes a comprehensive, standards-based, authentic assessment system to monitor student achievement. The assessment system includes the Smarter Balanced Assessment Interim Assessments, writing rubrics and publisher-developed assessments.

Smarter Balanced Interim Assessments

Oasis teachers administer the SBA Interim Assessments using the Assessment Blocks for English Language Arts and Mathematics. The Blocks “focus on smaller sets of related concepts and provide more detailed information for instructional purposes.”²

Writing Rubrics

Teachers support the development of strong student writing skills and content literacy through the use of rubrics.

Kindergarten student writing skills are assessed on a five-point scale for Sound-Letter Correspondence, Spacing, Handwriting, Content and Fluency, Sentence Structure, and Periods as End Marks.

Grades 1 – 2 student writing in four text types—Informative, Explanatory, Opinion, and Narrative—is assessed three times a year using a five-point rubric for each of the following components: Ideas and Content; Organization; Word Choice; Sentence Fluency; Conventions; Spelling; and Presentation.

Grades 3 – 6 student writing is assessed using the Smarter Balanced Assessment Consortium (SBAC) rubrics for Informational, Narrative, and Opinion performance writing tasks. The five-point rubric provides a platform to rate student ability to write with Organization and Purpose, Evidence/Elaboration, and Conventions.

Publisher-Developed Assessments

In addition to the writing rubrics used across the curriculum, each trimester Oasis teachers administer publisher-developed benchmark assessments in core content areas:

- ✓ English Language Arts/Development: Reach for Reading (National Geographic)
- ✓ Mathematics: Everyday Mathematics (McGraw Hill)
- ✓ Science: FOSS (Delta Education); Concepts and Challenges- Life Science (Pearson)
- ✓ Social Studies: History Alive! and Social Studies Alive! (Teachers Curriculum Institute)

- English Language Development Program (ELD)

Oasis provides an integrated and designated English Language Development program. The current ELD Teacher/Coordinator has 27 years of district school experience as bilingual resource teacher and ELD classroom teacher. She provides direct instruction to English learners during pull-out sessions as well as during push-in sessions during core instructional time. Additionally, the ELD Teacher/Coordinator trains and supervises an Instructional Aide who provides pull-out ELD support.

In integrated ELD, classroom teachers support the linguistic and academic achievement of English learner students by providing effective instruction grounded in the appropriate standards for English language development, English language arts, and the specific content area.

During designated ELD, English learners are grouped at similar English language proficiency levels so that teachers can strategically target their language learning needs. During the rest of the day, English learner students participate in heterogeneous groups with proficient English speakers. Designated ELD instruction time is used as a protected time where English learners receive instruction that accelerates their English language and literacy development through (1) Intellectual Quality; (2) Academic English Focus; (3) Extended Language Interaction; (4) Focus on Meaning; (5) Focus on Forms; (6) Planned and Sequenced Events; (7) Scaffolding; (8) Clear Lesson Objectives; (9) Corrective Feedback; and (10) Formative Assessment Practices.

- Professional Development (PD)

Relevant and continuous professional development is an integral part of supporting effective teaching and learning. At Oasis, professional development is led by the Executive Director, Instructional Coordinator, Educational Specialist, Academic Coach, and or outside consultants and trainers. The Oasis instructional calendar includes approximately seven PD days prior to beginning of the school year, several pupil-free days throughout the year, and one day at the end of the year for critical reflection. Bi-weekly professional development meetings are held on an on-going basis. Teachers and staff receive professional development based on an annual sequence of topics and the needs of teachers and students. These topics include:

- California Assessment of Student Performance and Progress (CAASP)
- Common Core State Standards (CCSS)
- 2012 English Language Development Standards
- Next Generation Science Standards
- Specially Designed Academic Instruction in English (SDAIE) strategies
- Depth of Knowledge
- Reading comprehension strategies
- Text complexity
- Phonemic awareness and phonics
- Logical/mathematical reasoning
- Character education (Love and Logic)

- Key Instructional Staff

In addition to the leadership provided by the Executive Director, classroom teachers are supported by a cadre of instructional leaders and specialists.

The administrative team includes an Instructional Coordinator and Academic Coach. The Instructional Coordinator and Academic Coach conduct weekly classroom observations and provide teachers with timely feedback to recognize and encourage effective teaching practices.

Other instructional specialists are the English Language Development Teacher/Coordinator and the Education Specialist/Case Manager. The Education Specialist/Case Manager provides direct services to students with an Individualized Education Plan (IEP) and with students receiving specialized instruction such as in the Response to Intervention (RtI) Program and GATE Program. The Education Specialist/Case Manager is responsible for supervising and managing the Special Education program, and providing professional development to teachers and instructional staff to ensure understanding and mastery of knowledge and skills of students with exceptional needs.

Smarter Balanced Assessment (SBA) 2015 Baseline Results

In spring 2015, Oasis Charter Public School administered the Smarter Balanced Assessment (SBA). The resulting data serve as baseline achievement indicators for proficiency in English Language Arts and Mathematics. On the pages that follow, a summary of Oasis student performance is presented along with the SBA results of six Comparison Schools.³ These Comparison Schools were selected based on their status as resident schools (schools that Oasis students would otherwise attend based on their district of residence) for the 93 Oasis test-takers in the 2014-15 year.

Oasis Compared to Alisal Union School District

The analysis that follows compares the scores (grades 3-6 combined) of Smarter Balanced Assessment test takers at Oasis in 2015 (N=93) to all Alisal Union School District (N=4,858) students.

English Language Arts

Summary: Oasis students performed roughly equal to AUSD students the 2015 (baseline) Smarter Balanced Assessment in English/Language Arts. Scores among two of the three key subgroups (English Learners and Economically Disadvantaged) showed slightly better performance in aggregate compared to AUSD schools. Hispanic students (the majority of students) tended to score slightly lower than school-wide averages and lower in relation to Hispanic students at AUSD schools.

All Students: On average, Oasis and AUSD students scored similarly. One-in-five (20%) of AUSD students scored “Met” or “Exceeded Standard,” compared to 19% of the Oasis students in 2015. Oasis students were less likely to score “Below Standard” in three of four ELA claims (Reading, Writing, Listening) but more likely to be “Below Standard” in Research/Inquiry.

Hispanic/Latino Students: On average, 2% fewer Hispanic Oasis students Met or Exceeded Standard compared to the aggregate of all AUSD schools. Oasis Hispanic students were less likely to score “Below Standard” in Listening, and scored equally to AUSD in both Reading and Writing. Oasis students were more likely to be “Below Standard” in Research/Inquiry compared to Hispanic AUSD students overall.

English Learner (EL) Students: On average, 4% more Oasis EL students Met or Exceeded Standard compared to the aggregate of AUSD schools. Oasis EL students were much less likely to score “Below Standard” in Reading (12% fewer), Listening, and Writing, but more likely to score “Below Standard” in Research/Inquiry (15% more).

Economically Disadvantaged (ED) Students: On average, 3% more ED Oasis students Met or Exceeded Standard compared to the aggregate of AUSD schools. Importantly, Oasis had 7% fewer ED students scoring “Not Met Standard.” Oasis ED students were less likely to score “Below Standard” in all four ELA claims.

Mathematics

Summary: Oasis students performed slightly better compared to AUSD students on the 2015 (baseline) Smarter Balanced Assessment in Mathematics. All three subgroups (Hispanic, English Learners and Economically Disadvantaged) showed slightly better performance in aggregate compared to AUSD schools.

All Students: On average, 5% more Oasis students Met or Exceeded Standard compared to the aggregate of AUSD schools. Moreover, 7% fewer Oasis students scored in the lowest proficiency level (Not Met Standard). Oasis students were less likely to score “Below Standard” in Concepts & Procedures (9% fewer) and essentially equal in Modeling/Problem Solving/Data Analysis and in Communicating Math Reasoning.

Hispanic Students: On average, 2% more Hispanic Oasis students Met or Exceeded Standard compared to the aggregate of AUSD schools. Oasis Hispanic students were less likely to score “Below Standard” in Concepts & Procedures (8% fewer) and essentially equal in Modeling/Problem Solving/Data Analysis. Oasis Hispanic students were, however, more likely to score “Below Standard” in Communicating Math Reasoning.

English Learner (EL) Students: On average, 6% more EL Oasis students Met or Exceeded Standard compared to the aggregate of AUSD schools. In addition, 10% fewer Oasis EL students scored at the lowest proficiency level (Not Met Standard) compared to AUSD. Oasis EL students were less likely to score “Below Standard” in terms of Concepts & Procedures (15% fewer) and Communicating Math Reasoning (5% fewer), but more likely in Modeling/Problem Solving/Data Analysis.

Economically Disadvantaged (ED) Students: On average, 1% more Oasis ED students Met or Exceeded Standard compared to the aggregate of AUSD schools. However, Oasis ED students were 7% less likely to score in the lowest proficiency level (Not Met Standard). Oasis ED students were less likely to score “Below Standard” in Concepts & Procedures (12% fewer) and Modeling/Problem Solving/Data Analysis (4% fewer), but essentially equal in Communicating Math Reasoning.

Oasis Compared to a Sample of Comparison Schools

The analysis that follows compares the scores (grades 3-6 combined) of Smarter Balanced Assessment test takers at Oasis in 2015 (N=93) to students at six schools.

Three non-AUSD schools (Kammann, Santa Rita, and Natividad) were selected because they were the most represented “school of residence” for Oasis test-takers in 2015.⁵ We also included the three most represented Alisal Union School District “schools of residence” (Creekside, Fremont, and Steinbeck).⁶

English Language Arts

Summary: Oasis students performed slightly lower than students from the six comparison schools on the 2015 (baseline) Smarter Balanced Assessment in English/Language Arts. However, scores among two of the three key subgroups (English Learners and Economically Disadvantaged) showed slightly better performance in aggregate compared to comparison schools. Hispanic students (the majority of students) tended to score slightly lower than school-wide averages and lower in relation to Hispanic students at comparison schools

All Students: On average, 3% fewer Oasis students scored “Met” or “Exceeded Standard,” compared to comparison school students in 2015. Oasis students were less likely to score “Below Standard” in one of four ELA claims (Listening) but slightly more likely to be “Below Standard” in Reading, Writing, and Research/Inquiry.

Hispanic Students: On average, 4% fewer Hispanic Oasis students Met or Exceeded Standard compared to the aggregate of the six comparison schools. Oasis Hispanic students were less likely to score “Below Standard” in one of four ELA claims (Listening) but more likely to be “Below Standard” in Reading, Writing, and Research/Inquiry.

English Learner (EL) Students: On average, 5% more Oasis EL students Met or Exceeded Standard compared to the aggregate of six comparison schools. Oasis EL students were less likely to score “Below Standard” in Reading, scored equally in Listening, but more likely to score “Below Standard” in Writing and Research/Inquiry.

Economically Disadvantaged (ED) Students: On average, 1% more ED Oasis students Met or Exceeded Standard compared to the aggregate of six comparison schools. Importantly, Oasis had 4% fewer ED students scoring “Not Met Standard.” Oasis ED students were less likely to score “Below Standard” in three of four ELA claims (Reading, Writing, and Listening), and equally in Research/Inquiry.

⁵ Of the 93 Oasis test-takers in 2015, 18 would have attended Kammann (Salinas City ESD), 11 from Santa Rita (Santa Rita USD), and 7 from Natividad (Salinas City ESD).

⁶ Of the 93 Oasis test-takers in 2015, three students would have attended each of these three AUSD schools (total of nine test-takers).

Mathematics

Summary: Oasis students performed very similarly to students at the six comparison schools on the 2015 (baseline) Smarter Balanced Assessment in Mathematics. Oasis students overall and students in the subgroup of English Learners slightly outperformed their peers at the comparison “schools of residence.” However, Oasis Hispanic and Economically Disadvantaged students slightly underperformed relative to students at the comparison schools.

All Students: On average, 2% more Oasis students Met or Exceeded Standard compared to the aggregate of six comparison schools. Oasis students were less likely to score “Below Standard” in Concepts & Procedures (5% fewer), essentially equal in Modeling/Problem Solving/Data Analysis, but more likely in Communicating Math Reasoning.

Hispanic Students: On average, 2% fewer Hispanic Oasis students Met or Exceeded Standard compared to the aggregate of six comparison schools. Oasis Hispanic students were less likely to score “Below Standard” in Concepts & Procedures (5% fewer) and essentially equal in Modeling/Problem Solving/Data Analysis. Oasis Hispanic students were, however, more likely to score “Below Standard” in Communicating Math Reasoning.

English Learner (EL) Students: On average, 4% more EL Oasis students Met or Exceeded Standard compared to the aggregate of six comparison schools. In addition, 8% fewer Oasis EL students scored at the lowest proficiency level (Not Met Standard). Oasis EL students were less likely to score “Below Standard” in terms of Concepts & Procedures (13% fewer) and Communicating Math Reasoning (4% fewer), but more likely in Modeling/Problem Solving/Data Analysis.

Economically Disadvantaged (ED) Students: On average, 2% fewer Oasis ED students Met or Exceeded Standard compared to the aggregate of six comparison schools. Oasis ED students were less likely to score “Below Standard” in Concepts & Procedures (8% fewer) and Modeling/Problem Solving/Data Analysis (2% fewer), but more likely in Communicating Math Reasoning.

Legal Requirement for Renewal

Oasis Charter Public School meets the legal requirement for renewal under Education Code Section 52052(e)(4), which provides:

Schools that do not have an API calculated shall use one of the following: (1) the most recent API calculation; (2) an average of the 3 most recent annual API calculations; or (3) alternative means that show increases in pupil achievement schoolwide and among significant subgroups.

Education Code section 52052(e)(4) was specifically added to apply to charter schools like Oasis that are up for renewal, to create a path for schools to achieve the API goals they are required to meet, in API “gap years.”

For the most recent API calculation (2013), Oasis met the federal API growth target as well as the state API targets schoolwide and for all numerically significant subgroups:

Schoolwide 2013 Growth API increased to 739 from the 2012 Base API of 700

- Federal Growth Target = 1; Growth = 39
Federal API Growth Target Met: YES
- State Growth Target = 5; Growth = 39
Schoolwide Growth Target Met: YES

Subgroup Hispanic/Latino 2013 Growth API increased to 723 from the 2012 Base API of 685

- State Growth Target = 6; Growth = 38
- Hispanic or Latino Target Met: YES

Subgroup Socioeconomically Disadvantaged 2013 Growth API increased to 722 over the 2012 Base API of 698

- State Growth Target = 5; Growth = 24
- Socioeconomically Disadvantaged Target Met: YES

Oasis Charter Public School asserts that it meets the statutory requirement for renewal under Education Code Section 52052(e)(4) based on its most recent API score of 739.

This 2013 Growth score represents a schoolwide increase of 39 points over the 2012 Base score. Additionally, Oasis far exceeded federal and state growth targets schoolwide and for both of its numerically significant subgroups—Hispanic/Latino students and Socioeconomically Disadvantaged students.

As further evidence that Oasis Charter Public School meets statutory requirement for renewal, Oasis cites Education Code Section 47607(b), which requires that a charter school must meet at least one of four criteria prior to receiving a charter renewal. Criterion #4 states:

The entity that granted the charter determines that the academic performance of the Charter School is at least equal to the academic performance of the public schools that the Charter School pupils would otherwise have been required to attend, as well as the academic performance of the schools in the school district in which the Charter School is located, taking into account the composition of the pupil population that is served at the Charter School.

As described on pages 7-12, analysis of the Oasis Charter Public School 2015 Smarter Balanced Assessment (SBA) baseline results indicate that Oasis students are performing on par, and in some instances better than students at Comparison Schools in English Language Arts and Mathematics.

These six Comparison Schools (Creekside ES, Fremont ES, Steinbeck ES, Kammann ES, Natividad ES, Santa Rita ES) were identified based on their status as resident schools (schools that Oasis students would otherwise attend based on their district of residence). The following tables provide a snapshot of how Oasis students performed on the 2015 SBA baseline compared to their peers at the six selected Comparison Schools.

The comparative analysis of the Oasis 2015 Smarter Balanced Assessment data with that of the Comparison Schools demonstrates that the academic performance of Oasis Charter Public School is “at least equal to the academic performance of the public schools that the Charter School pupils would otherwise have been required to attend” per the requirement for renewal under Education Code Section 47607(b).

Furthermore, it is worthwhile to note that Education Code Section 47607(a)(3) states:

The authority that granted the charter shall consider increases in pupil academic achievement for all groups of pupils served by the charter school (defined as “a numerically significant pupil subgroup, as defined by paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 52052.” EC §47607(a)(3)(B)) as the most important factor in determining whether to grant a charter renewal.

In this regard, Oasis Charter Public School made noteworthy gains in pupil academic achievement as evidenced by API gains between 2011 and 2013:

Table 5: Oasis API Growth Scores 2011-2013

	2010-11	2011-12	2012-13	Net Increase Over three Years

Hispanic/Latino	677	685	723	46
Socioeconomically Disadvantaged	700	698	722	22

Oasis Charter Public School has served the greater Salinas community for 15 years, and has demonstrated its renewed commitment to raising academic achievement of all students by:

- Implementing a standards-based curriculum monitored through regular, authentic assessments.
- Providing teachers with relevant professional development, and mentoring by the administrative team, which includes a full-time Academic Coach.
- Supporting students who have increased need—including English learners, students with disabilities, and gifted students—by providing access to grade-level curriculum, academic intervention, and designated support from the English Language Development Teacher and Educational Specialist.

As a community-based school, Oasis enjoys strong support from parents and families, many of whom have several children enrolled in the school and or are parents of alumni. Mission and Vision

Our mission is to bring together a diverse community and to create a constructivist, culturally relevant, and multicultural learning environment for children in grades kindergarten through six. Through integrated project-based activities as well as direct instruction, group decision-making and family-based opportunities, Oasis Charter Public School fosters the development of responsible citizenship skills, literacy, logical thinking, creative problem-solving, and the ability to represent one's ideas in a variety of ways. Our students are able to raise questions, identify and evaluate options, and access the information necessary to find answers. This program equips our students with the skills necessary to fulfill their personal aspirations and advocate for the common good.

Our vision is for Oasis Charter Public School to be a place where children reap the benefits of a small-school environment based on constructivist learning theory. The school is a place where children come together from all areas of the Salinas Valley, resulting in a deeper understanding of themselves and of the value of diversity. Children at Oasis will learn in the context of a multicultural student body and rich community experiences. Through children's strengths, interests and curiosity, teachers create an integrated, project-based curriculum. Through this approach, all children will learn and develop a love of learning.

The school is a cooperative effort of like-minded teachers and families. This partnership is built on a shared understanding of how children learn and develop and what it means to be an educated person. The partnership between teachers and families provides children with the support and solid foundation necessary to reach their maximum potential.

At Oasis Charter Public School, we believe that skill development and academic achievement can be best realized when learners are actively engaged in solving problems generated by their own needs and interests. Therefore, the work of the adult community is to create an environment and curriculum that weaves academic skills and content into children's genuine interests and life experiences.

All aspects of the program are based on a belief that logical/mathematical knowledge and the knowledge of building cognitive relationships, is individually constructed by the learner and is directly influenced by the experiences children both bring to and have in school. The program at Oasis is based on respect for students, their innate curiosity, their capacity to learn, and the interests, knowledge, language and cultural values they bring to school. By involving children in multicultural groups, our students develop respect for learners of backgrounds and cultural realities. We continue to believe that mastering a second language is of great value and equips students with the knowledge necessary to participate in a pluralistic society. Opportunities for shared decision making in this setting provide students with the practice they need in order to learn to evaluate options and make informed choices.

Educational Philosophy

What it means to be an educated person in the 21st Century

An educated person is a self-motivated, competent life-long learner. Oasis Charter Public School provides an educational environment that enables children to identify their own questions and equips them with the skills necessary to find answers to those questions. A well-educated individual is one who is highly skilled, bilingual and able to identify problems, raise questions, and work with others to find possible solutions. Well-educated citizens can evaluate options, and make important choices. These skills include traditional academic skills as well as social and moral skills in preparation for responsible participation in a democracy. Such an individual will know how to, fulfill her/his aspirations and advocate for the common good.

How learning best occurs

The mission of the Oasis Charter Public School is to educate responsible citizens for a democracy. Oasis brings together a diverse community to create a constructivist, culturally relevant, and multicultural learning environment for children in the elementary grades of the Salinas Valley. This setting provides integrated, in-depth multi-disciplinary learning projects. Through integrated-project-based activities as well as direct instruction, group decision making, and family based learning opportunities, OCPS fosters the development of responsible citizenship skills, literacy, logical thinking, creative problem solving, and the ability to represent one's ideas in a variety of ways. Our students are able to raise questions, identify and evaluate options, and access the information necessary to find answers. Oasis students are independent thinkers, capable of representing their own ideas as well as open to the ideas of others.

Collaboration and Relationship-building

Oasis Charter Public School has a school schedule that allows significant time for teacher collaboration, professional development, family participation, and effective use of community resources. We support the belief that high-quality personalized teaching requires that teachers have time for reflection, professional discussion with colleagues, and building relationships with families through home visits and involvement in the community.

At Oasis, all curricular, social and moral expectations are based on an understanding of human development theories and guided by the Common Core State Standards.

All children bring unique life experiences to school. It is these experiences which influence their understanding of the world. The role of the adults who interact with children is to provide personally and culturally meaningful experiences so that children can build on their life experiences to reach a deeper level of understanding. Children at Oasis learn the skills necessary, (reading, math, science, creative and, performing arts, social sciences and social skills), to investigate, explore, create, and consequently construct new knowledge. Children construct their own understandings based on both the experiences they bring to school and the experiences they have in school.

Constructivism

Constructivism is the primary theory of learning that drives the vision of Oasis. This theory of Constructivism is not a method of teaching, but rather a theory which explains the process by which all humans learn. The theory explains learning as a process of taking new information gained through experience and adapting existing ideas in order to construct new knowledge. The theory proposes that individuals are constantly learning through the processes of assimilation and accommodation. What humans learn is directly influenced by their stage of development as well as by the people, materials, and experiences they encounter.

At the core of constructivism are the notions of intellectual and moral autonomy. Intellectual autonomy is the ability to think and make decisions for one's self, while taking into consideration the viewpoints of others. Moral autonomy is the ability to make decisions for one's self while considering the impact those decisions may have on the larger community. We see the development of both intellectual and moral autonomy as essential to the goals of Oasis. At Oasis, we have created accepting diverse community environment which provides children with the real world experiences they need to become critical thinkers, problem solvers and advocates for the common good. We see these as skills needed by responsible citizens in a democratic society.

S.T.E.A.M. Curriculum

Oasis Charter Public School fosters student engagement and achievement through the implementation of a S.T.E.A.M. curriculum that interconnects science, technology, engineering, and arts, and mathematics across all disciplines, including, language arts and social studies. Through these five interdisciplinary lenses, Oasis provides an inquiry-based instructional model with real-world context. The teaching and learning emphasis is on design and problem-solving that leads to applications.

As a school community, we are creating partnerships with colleges, universities, aerospace and engineering outreach programs, and arts-institutions to provide real-world learning experiences, creating the foundation for future pursuit of STEAM education which will prepare and inspire generations of learners to meet the challenges of the global society through innovation, collaboration, and creative problem solving.

Instructional Technology

Instructional technology is utilized throughout the curriculum and offered through integrated and designated programs as part of the School's master schedule. Each classroom has a set of laptops and iPads to facilitate small group instruction. Additionally, the campus includes a computer lab with 33 laptops. Technology hardware includes wireless access points, document cameras, LCD projectors, and printers.

Oasis Charter Public School follows a technology scope and sequence adapted from the Fresno County Office of Education Recommended Digital Literacy and Technology Skills to Support the California Common Core State Standards. This scope and sequence fosters the following abilities and skills:

Table 8: Digital Literacy and Technology Skills

Digital Literacy Categories	Technology Skills
1. Demonstrate proficiency in the use of computers and applications, as well as an understanding of the concepts underlying hardware, software, and connectivity.	a. Basic Operations b. Word Processing and Desktop Publishing c. Database Spreadsheets d. Internet, Networking, and Online Communication e. Multimedia and Presentation Tools Web Authoring
2. Demonstrate the responsible use of technology and an understanding of ethics and safety issues in using electronic media at home, in school, and in society.	a. Ethics b. Classroom and Society c. Health and Safety
3. Demonstrate the ability to use technology for research, critical thinking, problem solving, decision making, communication, collaboration, creativity, and innovation	a. Research b. Problem Solving c. Communication and Collaboration

The entire technology scope and sequence is included as an appendix to this petition.

Integrating Theory and Practice

Our commitment to equity and a belief that all children must be valued for who they are and the deep cultural identity they bring to the school assists us in the creating a program that truly honors diversity. We have created a culturally sensitive, inclusive curriculum. Our curriculum is academically rigorous and prepares children to become active participants in a democratic society. Decisions at Oasis are guided by the following principles and practices which reflect the tenets of human development theories consistent with constructivism.

1. Children learn through play with the opportunity to expand their knowledge while pretending, exploring, practicing and inventing. (Jones, Nourot, and others)

In play, children learn to negotiate, cooperate and resolve problems. Through play, children learn to read the world. Children's understanding of concepts is reflected in their play. More complex concepts generate more sophisticated play. In different kinds of play situations, (games with rules, socio-dramatic play, and creative play) children engage in: debating, sharing, discussing, explaining, labeling, and representing their thinking in various ways. Using these skills children learn to express themselves appropriately as well as to consider other people's points of view. At Oasis teachers use their observations of play to assess children's interests, understanding and thinking.

2. Humans have an innate need to understand their surroundings and learn by grappling with what really matters to them. (Dewey)

Capitalizing on children's natural curiosity about the world, teachers weave children's interests and Common Core standards together in order to create a curriculum meaningful to children. For instance, a group of students may decide they are curious about firefighting. The study of this interest could include visiting a fire station, inviting a fire fighter to school, reading, writing and calculating about such topics as combustion, safety, history, the costs of firefighting, the careers related to firefighting as well as the community system of related emergency services.

In the early primary classes each day will include one or more uninterrupted blocks of time for child initiated activities. Teachers will provide a wide array of materials and activities from which children can choose. Through offering a choice of a variety of materials and activities, such as sand, water, puzzles, games, arts, and projects, children will be introduced to new experiences.

3. Learning requires interaction between children and the physical and social environments. (Vygotsky and Piaget)

At Oasis, opportunities for peer exchanges are an integral part of everyday. Activities are planned to provide whole class and small group learning opportunities as well as time for individual work and reflection. The school's organization is flexible so that the teachers can work together to support a wide variety of activities. Class meetings are the norm and are regularly scheduled so that they serve as forums for group decision making and problem solving. The adult's role is to create and continually recreate a social and physical environment that challenges the development of intellectual and social skills.

4. Children need to have safe and caring relationships with adults and the other children. (Sylwester, Jensen, and others)

The staff at Oasis Charter Public School is aware of the neurological relationship between emotions and learning. Each child's emotional state and well-being is taken into consideration during interactions with adults. Adults strive to model the importance of sensitivity and empathy. Learning to resolve both intellectual and interpersonal conflicts in an emotionally safe environment provides children the necessary support to state their point of view, take risks and make mistakes.

5. Children become independent thinkers and problem solvers when they are given responsibility and held accountable for their decisions. (Piaget, Erikson, Kamii and others)

As life in a democratic society is dependent on citizens being able to make informed choices, it is crucial that children have practice making age appropriate and authentic choices. At Oasis Charter Public School, children have opportunities to make these choices. These include topics of interest to be studied and enrichment activities to be pursued at Oasis, children receive support for their choices, learn how to be responsible, and to follow through with individual and group decisions.

6. Children bring their personal knowledge, beliefs, life experiences, language and culture to any learning experience. (Erikson, Piaget, Vygotsky, Nieto, Valdes, Sleeter, and others)

All decisions made at Oasis are based on respect for the interests, viewpoints, and needs of children. The Oasis program seeks to build a connection of home, school and community. Parents, grandparents, and other family members are invited and encouraged to participate in special events as well as in the daily routine of the school. Each Oasis family is visited in their home annually by their child's teacher. The home visits provide teachers a broader understanding the child in the context of their family, culture and community.

Opportunities are provided for members of the adult community to share information about their work, interests, culture and customs. There are regularly scheduled field trips into the community. Communication between the school and the home is vital to the success of the children and to the success of the school. This communication will include home visits, family conferences, adult education opportunities, class newsletters, weekly updates from the office and informal discussions.

7. First language support is essential for academic and cognitive development as well as for first and second language development. (Freeman, Krashen and others)

It is our belief that being successful reader requires a strong vocabulary. We will teach to children's strengths so that they can learn the skills of reading in a language they best understand. These skills can then be used in order to become literate in their second language as appropriate.

8. Emphasis is on learning for understanding. There are many ways to solve any problem and inventing alternative solutions leads to deeper understanding. (Kamii, Piaget and others)

Children will learn that there are a variety of ways to solve any given problem. We believe that children working together to solve problems learn from each other. Adults at Oasis listen to and follow children's thinking as the children learn to explain their reasoning and points of view.

Teacher Support and Accountability

Continuous Training

Teacher professional development begins during the summer in-service and continues throughout the year during bi-weekly meetings. During these meetings, new topics are addressed and refresher training is provided to ensure that teachers are provided with continuous support.

Supervision of Instruction

The Executive Director, Instructional Coordinator, Academic Coach, and Educational Specialist meet with teachers during planning time to ensure consistent alignment of instructional content and strategies to standards. The Executive Director, Instructional Coordinator, and Academic Coach engage in weekly classroom observations and provide teachers with timely feedback comprised of both commendations and recommendations for instructional practice. Additionally, the Executive Director and Instructional Coordinator perform formal evaluations and weekly review of lesson plans.

Serving Special Populations

Oasis Charter Public Schools provides support for all students, including those with special needs—English Learners, Students with Disabilities, and Gifted Students. Through differentiated teaching, these populations receive additional attention and support to challenge their strengths and address areas of development. Additionally, Oasis utilizes the following strategies and programs to support all students:

1. Smaller class sizes and a small-school environment facilitate strong teacher-student-parent relationships.
2. Differentiated instruction allows focused instruction at the appropriate skill level.

3. AVID (Advancement Via Individual Determination): The AVID curriculum teaches skills and behaviors for academic success; provides intensive support with tutorials and strong student/teacher relationships; creates a positive peer group for students; and develops a sense of hope for personal achievement gained through hard work and determination¹⁰
4. Love and Logic is a classroom management approach that promotes healthy parent/teacher and teacher/student relationships and positive school wide discipline.¹¹ Love and Logic develops students' problem-solving skills and provides teachers with a positive framework for student discipline and communication.
5. Project G.L.A.D (Guided Language Acquisition Design) is an instructional model with clear, practical strategies promoting effective interactions among students and between teachers and students that develop metacognitive use of high-level language and literacy. The strategies and model promote English language acquisition, academic achievement, and cross-cultural skills within the context of Common Core State Standards, Next Generation Science Standards, and California Social Studies Standards.¹²
6. Enrichment classes are a major component of the Oasis curriculum. At least three times a year, students are grouped across multiple grade levels to explore a different subject matter in visual or performing arts. Students may choose from singing, dancing, theater arts, instruments, arts and crafts projects, among other forms of artistic expression.
7. Interventions are designed to support individualized student learning. Each trimester, teachers will review assessment data in detail to plan and evaluate differentiated instructional techniques and identify students in need of interventions and additional supports, including potential referral for evaluation of a suspected disability. Modifications such as differentiated instruction, scaffolding, and alternative assignments will be used to address the needs of individual students.

Students who are not meeting grade-level standards are referred for intervention instruction by their teacher or a family member. Intervention instruction in phonics, writing, comprehension, fluency, and mathematics is provided for one hour before and after school in addition to during the instructional day. Students who demonstrate weakness in a core content area attend intervention instruction for eight weeks, until they demonstrate on an interim assessment that they are successfully mastering the class material. At the end of the session, students are re-tested, and if necessary, continue for another session.

English Language Learners

Oasis ensures that all English language learners have full access to all of the School's educational opportunities. We provide a high quality ELD instructional program that enables our English learners to attain English proficiency, achievement in all academic subject areas, and to have full access to the range of educational opportunities that Oasis offers to all students.

Teacher Qualifications

As needed, Oasis will retain on staff CLAD certified, experienced teachers to work with the classroom teachers and ELs in ensuring that our ELs are meeting or making progress toward achieving the state English Language Development (ELD) standards.

Identification

Oasis identifies EL students upon enrollment, through the state required home language survey and previous school records. Identified students are tested for English proficiency on the California English Language Development Test (CELDT) within 30 days. Oasis annually assesses all ELL students on the CELDT in order to determine their ongoing progress toward achieving English proficiency.

State Assessments

Oasis Charter Public School will administer the California English Language Development Test (CELDT) or English Language Proficiency Assessments for California (ELPAC) annually in accordance with federal and state requirements.

Reclassification of English Learners

Oasis reclassifies English Learners in accordance with federal and state requirements. Reclassification to Fluent English Proficient (FEP) will be considered according to the following five criteria:

- 1. CELDT/ELPAC: Overall performance level of early advance or advanced and skill area scores of 400 or higher in listening-speaking, reading, and writing.
- 2. Standards-Based Report Card: Meets or exceeds expectations in all ELA (Reading, Writing, and Listening/Speaking) strands, as evidenced by a score 70% or higher.
- 3. Teacher Recommendation: Classroom teacher and ELD teacher determine that the student will be successful in a mainstream English program. This determination may be based on teacher observation, review of student work samples, analysis of past reports cards and progress reports.

4. Smarter Balanced Assessment or CMA: Basic, Proficient, or Advanced performance on the ELA section of the test.
5. Parent Opinion and Consultation: Notice is provided to parents/guardians of their rights, and they are encouraged to participate in the reclassification process.

The following reclassification procedures will be used:

- a. Annually, the ELD teacher will create a list of all students who meet the CELDT/ELPAC and Smarter Balanced Assessment criteria for reclassification, as well as an updated potential reclassification list to teachers.¹³ Each classroom teacher is responsible for completing the report card grade and teacher judgment columns of the reclassification list for their students.
- b. Based on the information provided by teachers, the EL Coordinator identifies students ready to be reclassified and submits these names to the Office Manager, who then sends a notification of reclassification letter to these students' parents. The School provides an opportunity for a face-to-face meeting with the parents/guardians to discuss the student's progress toward English language proficiency.
- c. Reclassified students are monitored for two years post reclassification through the collection of SBAC ELA results. Students who appear not to maintain proficiency will be retested and may be reclassified as ELs once again if indicated by the School's criteria

Instructional Model: Integrated and Designated ELD

At Oasis Charter Public School, teachers support the language learning needs of English learner students by developing content knowledge, English language proficiency, and mastery of the California English Language Development standards through integrated and designated English Language Development programs.

“ELs at all English proficiency levels and at all ages require both integrated ELD and specialized attention to their particular language learning needs, or designated ELD.”

CDE (2014), English Language Arts/English Language Development Framework for California Public Schools: Transitional Kindergarten through Grade Twelve

In both integrated and designated English Language Development, English learner students (1) learn to use English; (2) learn content through English; and (3) learn about how English works

¹³ Typically in January or February

Integrated English Language Development

The Integrated English Language Development Program at Oasis Charter Public School provides effective instructional experiences for ELs throughout the day and across the disciplines that are:

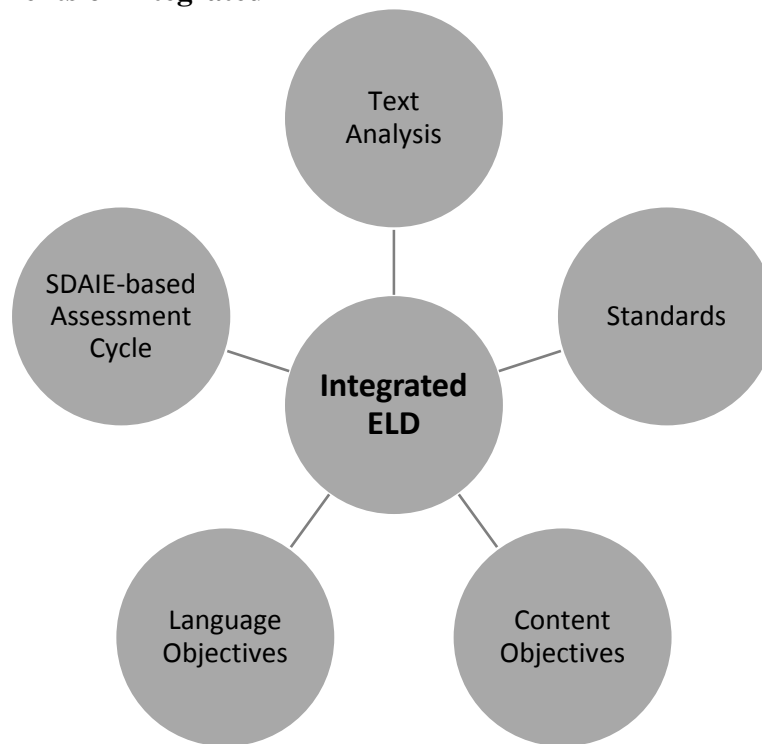

- Interactive and engaging, meaningful and relevant, and intellectually rich and challenging
- Appropriately scaffolded in order to provide strategic support that moves learners toward independence¹⁵

Furthermore, the School's integrated ELD program builds both content knowledge and academic English and values and builds on primary language and culture and other forms of prior knowledge. Classroom teachers support the linguistic and academic achievement of English learner students by providing effective instruction grounded in the appropriate standards for English language development, English language arts, and the specific content area. The following graphic illustrates the components of the School's Integrated ELD program:

Teachers deliver effective integrated ELD instruction that is characterized by:

- Text Analysis focuses on comprehension of words, clauses, phrases, and sentences.
- Standards addressed encompass content-area standards, CCSS for English Language Arts/Literacy, and English Language Development standards.
- Content Objectives are based on grade-level content standards.
- Language Objectives are linked to the Content Objectives, and are based on text demands using ELD Standards.

Additionally, teachers follow a SDAIE-based assessment cycle that includes scaffolding and modeling, collaborative and independent practice, checking for understanding, and re-teaching, as illustrated in the following graphic:

To foster students' ability to learn English, learn content through English, and learn about English, teachers at Oasis Charter Public School:

1. Routinely examine the texts and tasks used for instruction in order to identify language that could be challenging for English learners
2. Determine where there are opportunities to highlight and discuss particular language resources (e.g., powerful or precise vocabulary, different ways of combining ideas in sentences, ways of starting paragraphs to emphasize key ideas)
3. Observe students to determine how they use the language teachers are focusing on, and
4. Adjust whole group instruction or work with small groups or individuals in order to provide adequate and appropriate support.

Designated English Language Development

Designated ELD is a protected time during the regular school day when Oasis Charter Public School teachers use the CA ELD Standards as the focal standards in ways that build into and from content instruction in order to develop critical English language skills, knowledge, and abilities needed for content learning in English.¹⁶

During designated ELD English learners are grouped at similar English language proficiency levels so that teachers can strategically target their language learning needs. During the rest of the day, English learner students participate in heterogeneous groups with proficient English speakers. Designated ELD instruction time is used as a protected time where English learners receive instruction that accelerates their English language and literacy development through:

- 1. Intellectual Quality: Students are provided with intellectually motivating, challenging, and purposeful tasks, along with the support to meet these tasks.
- 2. Academic English Focus: Students' proficiency with academic English and literacy in the content areas, as described in the CA ELD Standards, the CA CCSS for ELA/Literacy, and other content standards, should be the main focus of instruction.
- 3. Extended Language Interaction: Extended language interaction between students with ample opportunities for students to communicate in meaningful ways using English is central. Opportunities for listening/viewing and speaking/signing must be thoughtfully planned and not left to chance. As students progress along the ELD continuum, these activities must also increase in sophistication.
- 4. Focus on Meaning: Instruction predominantly focuses on meaning, makes connections to language demands of ELA and other content areas, and identifies the language of texts and tasks critical for understanding meaning.
- 5. Focus on Forms: In alignment with the meaning focus, instruction explicitly focuses on learning about how English works, based on purpose, audience, topic, and text type. This includes attention to the discourse practices, text organization, grammatical structures, and vocabulary that enable us to make meaning as members of discourse communities.
- 6. Planned and Sequenced Events: Lessons and units are carefully planned and sequenced in order to strategically build language proficiency along with content knowledge.
- 7. Scaffolding: Teachers contextualize language instruction, build on background knowledge, and provide the appropriate level of scaffolding based on individual differences and needs. Scaffolding is both planned in advance and provided "just-in-time."
- 8. Clear Lesson Objectives: Lessons are designed using the CA ELD Standards as the primary standards and are grounded in the appropriate content standards.

¹⁶ California Department of Education (2014) Chapter 2, English Language Arts/English Language Development Framework for California Public Schools: Transitional Kindergarten through Grade Twelve

- 9. Corrective Feedback: Teachers provide students with judiciously selected corrective feedback on language usage in ways that are transparent and meaningful to students. Overcorrection or arbitrary corrective feedback is avoided.
- 10. Formative Assessment Practices: Teachers frequently monitor student progress through informal observations and on-going formative assessment practices, and they analyze student writing, work samples, and oral language production in order to prioritize student instructional needs.

English Learner Parent/Family Rights

Notification to EL Parents/Families

If a student is identified as an English learner, Oasis Charter Public School will notify parents/families in writing within 30 days of the school year starting with information about the student's English language proficiency level, programs and services available to meet the student's educational needs, and parental/family rights to opt the student out of a program or particular services for English learners per Education Code Section 310.

However, it should be noted that at this time Oasis Charter Public School only offers an inclusion model for English Language Development.

Title III Parent Notifications

At such time Oasis Charter Public School receives Title III funding for Limited English Proficient (LEP) students, the School will provide the required parent notifications, including:

- How parents can be active participants in assisting their children to learn English
- Their student's identification for or participation in a Title III program

For LEP students who have been enrolled in the School since the previous school year, parental notifications will be provided no later than 30 calendar days after the beginning of the school year.

For new enrollees, the School will provide the parental notifications within two weeks of a child being placed in a program. This timeline does not conflict with the state requirement of testing students for English proficiency within 30 calendar days of enrollment and placement in an appropriate program.¹⁷ The Title III notification is triggered after all the assessments have occurred and a student is officially placed in a program.

¹⁷ (Education Code sections 306(a), 313, 60810-60811, 62002; formerly Education Code Section 52164.1 (b)(c); California Code of Regulations, Title 5, Education sections 4304, 11511; Code of Federal Regulations, Title 34, Education, parts 300, 300.532(a)(c)).

Language Assistance to EL Parents/Families

Oasis Charter Public School provides effective language assistance to limited English proficient parents, such as providing translated materials or a language interpreter. Language assistance is free and provided by appropriate and competent staff, or through appropriate and competent outside resources.

<h3>Special Education Students and Student with Disabilities</h3>

Oasis Charter Public School shall be deemed a local educational agency (“LEA”) in accordance with Education Code section 47641(a) for purposes of compliance with the IDEIA. As such, the Charter School shall at all times be solely responsible for compliance with the IDEIA in all aspects and for providing students with exceptional needs who attend the Charter School a free and appropriate public education in compliance with the IDEIA. The Charter School shall defend and indemnify the District and its respective directors, officers, employees, agents, and volunteers, from and against any and all actions, suits, claims, demands, and losses, and shall pay all costs, including the District’s attorneys’ fees, associated with any due process hearing or legal action arising out of the Charter School’s provision of special education and/or related services to former students of the Charter School, students attending the Charter School, or students seeking to enroll in the Charter School.

Oasis will comply with all applicable state and federal laws in serving students with disabilities including but not limited to Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1974, Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, and the Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act of 2004.

Oasis Charter Public School provides high-quality specialized education, where exceptional students receive specialized services based on their individual needs. We have both on-site full-time and contracted part-time fully credentialed personnel to meet the diverse needs of our students. Oasis follows the discrepancy model to special education.

SELPA Membership

Oasis Charter Public School has been a member of the Sonoma County Charter Special Education Local Plan Area (SELPA) since 2012. The Executive Director and Education Specialist attend meetings and trainings at the SELPA office in Santa Rosa, other school sites, and online through webinars and live on-line meetings. Oasis works closely with the assigned SELPA Program Manager to meet all compliance standards.

Special Education Staffing

The Education Specialist oversees the special education program and is a liaison between classroom teachers, administration and the part-time, contracted staff. The Education Specialist serves students with exceptional needs with push-in and/or pull out services. He/she provides direct instruction in the RSP room, teaches small groups and is a member of the Student Study Team (SST) as needed.

Oasis contracts a speech therapist and a school psychologist to provide students with their particular services. The School contracts with an Occupational Therapist (OT), School Nurse, and a Counselor. Oasis will continue to have these specialists provide service to students as prescribed in their Individual Education Program (IEP). Oasis also has local county providers available for low -incident disabilities.

Oasis has two on-site administrators, the Executive Director and the Instructional Coordinator. The Executive Director is the administrative contact person for all Special Education related issues. He/she attends SELPA CEO and finance-related meetings to remain current and informed of the latest legislation and changes in Special Education.

Child Find Activities, General Education Modifications, Assessments, and Developing IEPs

The Oasis special education program implements appropriate child find activities, provides general education program modifications, refers students for assessment, conducts assessments and develops IEPs for identified students.

Child Find activities include but are not limited to (1) teacher referral; (2) legal guardian referral; (3) referral by public health professional; (4) Education Specialist referral; public agency referral (e.g. San Andreas Regional Center, Head Start, State Pre-school, County Office of Education Pre-school Programs); and (5) court-appointed child advocates; privately-contracted child advocates.

General Education Program Modifications

Classroom Teachers use a variety of strategies to meet the diverse needs of their learners. Some of these strategies include: repeated/clarified directions, teacher proximity and circulation, providing visual prompts, giving immediate feedback, frequent review of concepts, graphic organizers, modulated voice, re-teaching, small group instruction, one-on-one intervention instruction, peer partners, and individualized instruction and assignments.

Setting Modifications include preferential seating, grouping, changing schedule, test setting and modifying the school day.

Instructional Materials Modifications include reducing amount of work, using more appropriate materials based on the child's academic development level (i.e. phonics, whole language, math manipulatives), changing skills and tasks, using graphic organizers, using manipulatives such as calculators, white boards, unifix cubes, base ten blocks and varied fraction sets.

Referral Process (Student Success Team)

Before a referral to a Student Success Team (SST), classroom interventions must be attempted and documented. When interventions have been attempted, the referring party completes an SST form, which includes the following information:

- Student's name, age, and grade level
 - Date of the referral
 - Teacher's name
 - Persons requested to attend the meeting
 - Family contact information (parent/guardian names, phone numbers, language spoken at home)
 - Method of family notification (e.g. letter, phone or conference) and notes on follow up
- Additionally, the SST form will cite student strengths, parent or teacher concerns, assessment and evaluation results, and other information pertinent to service needs and provisions, including work samples.

SST meetings will be guided by the following steps.

Team members introduce themselves and their roles, the lead is designated

1. Purpose and process of the meeting are stated
2. Timekeeper is appointed
3. Student's strengths are identified
4. Concerns are discussed, clarified and listed
5. Pertinent information and modifications are listed
6. Concerns are synthesized with one or two chosen for focus
7. Strategies to deal with are chosen; concerns are brainstormed
8. Team chooses best strategies to carry into actions
9. Individuals make commitments to actions
10. Person responsible and timelines for actions are recorded
11. Follow-up date is set

Formal and Informal Assessment

Assessments administered by credentialed special instruction teacher include:

1. Woodcock Johnson IV
2. Wechler Individual Achievement Test (WIAT)
3. Brigance Early Childhood Developmental Inventory

Assessments administered by licensed school psychologist include:

1. Cognitive Assessment, WISC (Westler Intelligence Scale for Children) IV edition
2. Auditory Processing, TAPS III edition
3. Visual Processing, TVPS III edition
4. VMI (Visual Motor Integration)
5. Draw A Person to assess social and emotional development

Other evaluation tools are used as indicated by the Assessment Plan, signed by the parents or guardians. Some of these include: Behavior Evaluation Scale 2nd edition, Behavior Assessment System for Children 2nd edition, and the Gilliam Asperger's Disorder Scale.

Speech & Language Assessment Tools used by speech pathologist:

1. Clinical Evaluation of Language Fundamentals- Fourth Edition: This is for receptive and expressive language skills
2. Receptive One Word Picture Vocabulary Text: This test evaluates receptive vocabulary skills
3. Expressive One Word Picture Vocabulary Test: Tests expressive vocabulary skills
4. Preschool Language Scale- Fourth Edition: Evaluates receptive and expressive language skills in younger children
5. Test of Pragmatic Language: Evaluates social language skills
6. Stuttering Severity Instrument: Evaluates fluency skills
7. Goldman Fristoe Test of Articulation: Evaluates articulation skills

The occupational therapist, behavior therapist and adaptive physical education instructor use other assessment tools as needed.

Development of an Appropriate IEP with SEIS

Special Education Information Systems (SEIS) provides centralized online management of IEPs and Special Education records. Teachers and Service Providers can edit IEP forms at any time, from any device with Internet access. The IEP forms are pre-populated with information from the SEIS Student Record, eliminating repetitive data entry. SEIS has a built-in CASEMIS error check utility which can be used at any time. This error check also runs automatically during the IEP Affirm/Attest process so that CASEMIS errors are found and corrected as part of the IEP process.

All CASEMIS, IEP, and Table C Disciplinary information is collected and stored in SEIS from the time the student is first entered into the system. The student's records, and all of their historical information and IEPs, moves with the student when they transfer to any of the nearly 1,000 districts using SEIS, even when transferring to a different SELPA.

Initial, Annual, and Triennial Evaluation Meetings

The specialized instruction teacher, school psychologist, speech therapist, legal guardian, classroom teacher, school administrator and any other related specialist is present at the initial, annual or triennial evaluation meetings. The specialized instruction teacher tracks all deadlines and time lines and shares required specialized instructional needs and services for each student with their classroom teacher.

Annual IEP meetings assess goal progress using informal assessments, student work and teacher observations. Initial and triennial evaluation meetings include reports of testing from both the school psychologist and the Education Specialist, input from parent or legal guardian, classroom teacher and administrator. Based on eligibility criteria being met, IEPs are created based on FAPE offers of service and goals set. The IEP is a team-generated contract that requires parental input and signed authorization.

All members of the IEP meeting team sign the Parent Consent form as witnesses to the meeting. One copy of the IEP is given to the parent or guardian, one copy is put in the student's cumulative file, and one copy goes to the student's SPED file. Oasis, as its own local educational agency, retains the district SPED file.

Parental Request for Evaluation

Parent requests for an evaluation require a written response within fifteen (15) days. If assessments are warranted, an assessment plan will be generated. The team has sixty (60) days from the receipt of a signed Assessment Plan to complete evaluations and hold an IEP meeting. This includes a Notice of Meeting that is generated ten (10) days before the proposed meeting.

Gifted Students

The mission of Oasis Charter Public School's Gifted and Talented Education Program (GATE) is to provide gifted and talented students differentiated instruction and opportunities for greater challenge.

The GATE program at Oasis occurs daily in the regular classroom as well as in afterschool courses designed to meet the needs of participating students. GATE students are taught in an atmosphere that provides more academically rigorous curriculum, fosters creativity and individuality and addresses the needs of the whole child.

The purpose of the Oasis Charter Public School GATE program is to provide challenging learning opportunities for students in the area of intellectual, creative, and high achievement areas, providing experiences that facilitate their development into autonomous lifelong learners. The GATE program is designed to:

- Offer students a challenge beyond their grade level curriculum.
- Provide opportunities to explore topics of interest at a deeper level.
- Introduce students to differentiated activities that require higher level and creative thinking.

The curriculum for the Oasis Charter Public School gifted program is based on the California academic state standards and curriculum frameworks in English language arts, mathematics, history, science and visual and performing arts in grades 3-6.

In the general education classroom, teachers use these standards to guide instructional content. GATE teachers expand these areas and offer a wider and/or deeper exploration to meet gifted student interest. Curriculum may be compacted for students who have already shown mastery in these areas. Oasis provides a differentiated learning experience to meet the interests, needs, and aptitudes of gifted students. Examples include instrumental music, engineering, art appreciation and application, and Steinbeck Young Authors program.

Curriculum is differentiated through advanced content and authentic products. Abstract thinking, big ideas and inquiry model are some of the instructional strategies used in the GATE program. The GATE Coordinator and GATE program teachers focus on depth, complexity, metacognition, debate, research and other strategies for students when designing courses.

GATE students at Oasis Charter Public School receive differentiated curriculum planned for groups in the after school courses as well as for individual students in the anchor activities. Within the general education classroom, teachers use a variety of flexible grouping strategies to best meet the needs of their gifted students.

Teachers use their training in Bloom's Taxonomy, multiple intelligences, fixed versus open mindset and other pedagogy to encourage metacognition and stimulate student creativity. Oasis Charter Public School is founded on the Constructivist theory and employs the project-based model routinely. Each classroom has a minimum of four wireless laptops for student use. The after school courses have unlimited use of the computer lab.

On-site specialists are teaching after school courses and can also serve as a resource to the program as a whole. For example, the music teacher has taught instrument exploration and our resident author has taught the advanced writing course. The entire school community (staff and families) has been surveyed to create a pool of specialists in a variety of areas.

Assessment & Identification Process

Oasis Charter Public School makes every effort to identify and meet the needs of any student with exceptional cognitive and creative strengths. Multiple sources are used to determine eligibility and a data file is created for each prospective student. The identification tools were selected by the Executive Director and consist of standardized scores, student interview, teacher and family input, and a variety of interest and ability assessments. Beginning in August 2015, Oasis will add the Torrance Test of Creative Thinking (TTCT) to establish eligibility.

Local Control Funding Formula (LCFF) and Local Control and Accountability Plan (LCAP)

Oasis Charter Public School acknowledges and agrees that it must comply with all applicable laws and regulations related to AB 97 (Local Control Funding Formula), as they may be amended from time to time, which include the requirement that Charter School shall annually submit a Local Control and Accountability Plan (LCAP) or LCAP update, as appropriate, to the Alisal Union School District on or before July 1. In accordance with Ed. Code sections 47604.33 and 47606.5, Oasis will annually update its goals and annual actions to achieve those goals identified in the charter pursuant to Ed. Code section 47605(b)(5)(A)(ii), using the Local Control and Accountability Plan template adopted by the State Board of Education, as it may be changed from time to time.

Additionally, Oasis will comply with all requirements of Ed. Code section 47606.5, including but not limited to the requirement that the School “shall consult with teachers, principals, administrators, other school personnel, parents, and pupils in developing the annual update.” Ed. Code § 47606.5(e).

Element B: Measurable Pupil Outcomes

“The measurable pupil outcomes identified for use by the charter school. “Pupil outcomes,” for purposes of this part, means the extent to which all pupils of the school demonstrate that they have attained the skills, knowledge, and attitudes specified as goals in the school’s educational program. Pupil outcomes shall include outcomes that address increases in pupil academic achievement both schoolwide and for all groups of pupils served by the charter school, as that term is defined in subparagraph (B) of paragraph (3) of subdivision (a) of Section 47607. The pupil outcomes shall align with the state priorities, as described in subdivision (d) of Section 52060, that apply for the grade levels served, or the nature of the program operated, by the charter school.” Ed. Code § 47605(b)(5)(B).

Measurable Goals of the Educational Program

Oasis Charter Public School shall meet all statewide content and performance standards and targets. Ed. Code § 47605(c)(1), 60605.

Oasis Charter Public School will comply with all applicable laws and regulations related to AB 97 (Local Control Funding Formula) and AB 484, as they may be amended from time to time, including all requirements pertaining to pupil outcomes.

In order to best serve our students and the community Oasis will continue to examine and refine its list of student outcomes over time to reflect the school’s mission and any changes to Common Core State Standards that support the mission.

Element C: Methods to Assess Pupil Progress Toward Meeting Outcomes

“The method by which pupil progress in meeting those pupil outcomes is to be measured. To the extent practicable, the method for measuring pupil outcomes for state priorities shall be consistent with the way information is reported on a school accountability report card.” Ed. Code § 47605(b)(5)(C).

Assessment is the means by which student success is measured and ultimately the success of the program. The type of assessments used must therefore be directly aligned with the academic and social outcomes toward which all of our students are striving. Critical analysis of multiple measures of progress will guide (1) instructional planning and communication with families, (2) identification of children with special needs and (3) program evaluation and accountability.

Each child at Oasis Charter Public School is regarded as an exceptional individual who brings with them a set of experiences that determine their developmental level in all areas of the curriculum. Our expectation at Oasis is that children will demonstrate progress from their point of entry over the course of each school year.

Oasis Charter Public School strives to make assessment relevant by weaving it into the instructional process. The goal of the home visit, which takes place during the first six to eight weeks of the school year, is to establish a relationship between the student, the family and the teacher. At the home visit, the teacher discovers the families’ hopes and dreams for their student. Those hopes and dreams become the basis of future conversations with the student and their family. Home visits also allow teachers to become familiar with children’s home learning environment. These provide opportunities for teachers to better relate to individual students. Progress toward these goals is a measure of success at Oasis.

Student-centered conferences are held each fall and spring. Each student is expected to demonstrate and present his/her progress towards meeting both academic and non-academic goals during the conferences. These conferences are attended by the student, teacher(s) and parents/guardians. Student self-assessment is an integral part of goal setting and the reporting of progress. During the fall conference, students, with the support of their teachers, present their academic and social goals for the year. During the spring conference, each student presents his/her progress toward meeting these goals. Parents/guardians will be asked to share their families’ feedback in response to their child’s overall progress and success. This family feedback is a vital element of the goal setting/assessment process.

At least once per school year, the teacher prepares a written narrative evaluation of each child, which provides families with a description of the students’ progress at meeting the agreed upon goals. The narrative report includes descriptions of student progress in:

- Personal Development (Social and Emotional)
- Language Arts/Reading
- Language Arts/Writing
- Mathematics
- Social Studies
- Science
- Other Subjects (P.E. Art, Spanish, Technology, Drama)

Use of Multiple Assessment Measures

Standardized Testing

Oasis Charter Public School agrees to comply with and adhere to state requirements for participation and administration of all state-mandated tests.

Oasis Charter Public School will pursue the following school wide and subgroup outcome goals, as measured by multiple and varied benchmark assessments that are aligned to the Common Core State Standards (CCSS) and applicable federal standards, and reflect proficiency measures required by the California Measurement of Academic Performance and Progress (CalMAPP)/Smarter Balanced Assessment Consortium (SBAC) assessment system, as well as state priorities detailed in California Education Code §52060(d).54

For purposes of measuring achievement of these goals, a numerically significant pupil subgroup will be defined as one that meets both of the following criteria:

- (i) The subgroup consists of at least 50 pupils each of whom has a valid test score.
- (ii) The subgroup constitutes at least 15 percent of the total population of pupils at a school who have valid test scores.¹⁹

In addition to administering the mandatory state tests, Oasis uses publisher- and school-developed assessments for English language arts, mathematics, science and social studies, plus a variety of reading assessments. These assessments include, but are not limited to, the following:

Pre- and Post-Tests

Staff administers benchmarks in the areas of reading, math, science and spelling, and other subjects that measures student progress. These are administered in the fall, are winter and spring. In this way, we are able to determine the skills with which new students enter our program and returning students begin the school year. These are also used to monitor their growth throughout year. Benchmark data enables us to assess and track the progress that each student is making in those content areas.

Portfolios

Oasis uses portfolios as an assessment method to demonstrate individual student growth over time. Staff collects and evaluates selected work samples in language arts, mathematics, and other subjects. The portfolio pieces also demonstrate critical thinking skills, such as the ability to represent one's thinking in a variety of ways. Portfolio pieces include evidence of the student's individual projects and will be chosen by the students within selected guidelines. Portfolios are assessed by teachers, and, peers, as well as through student self-assessment.

Ongoing Teacher Assessments

Oasis teachers use developmental, classroom-based assessments such as classroom-based tests, quizzes and homework assignments, staff-created checklists, continua and rubrics to show progress toward mastery in the identified academic content skill areas. These assessments are

Oasis Charter Public School Petition July 1, 2016 – June 30, 2021

Kindergarten student writing skills are assessed on a five-point scale for Sound-Letter Correspondence, Spacing, Handwriting, Content and Fluency, Sentence Structure, and Periods as End Marks.

Grades 1 – 2 student writing in four text types—Informative, Explanatory, Opinion, and Narrative—is assessed three times a year using a five-point rubric for each of the following components: Ideas and Content; Organization; Word Choice; Sentence Fluency; Conventions; Spelling; and Presentation.

Grades 3 – 6 student writing is assessed using the Smarter Balanced Assessment Consortium (SBAC) rubrics for Informational, Narrative, and Opinion performance writing tasks. The five-point rubric provides a platform to rate student ability to write with Organization and Purpose, Evidence/Elaboration, and Conventions.

Publisher-Developed Assessments

In addition to the writing rubrics used across the curriculum, each trimester Oasis teachers administer publisher-developed benchmark assessments in core content areas:

- ✓ English Language Arts/Development: Reach for Reading (National Geographic)
- ✓ Mathematics: Everyday Mathematics (McGraw Hill)
- ✓ Science: FOSS (Delta Education); Concepts and Challenges- Life Science (Pearson)
- ✓ Social Studies: History Alive! and Social Studies Alive! (Teachers Curriculum Institute)

Teachers also document student learning in the form of anecdotal notes. These various assessments will delineate student progress toward meeting the goals and standards established by the Common Core State Standards as well as the various academic and non-academic goals identified by the team of the student, the teacher and the student's family members. Teachers may use electronic audio, video, or photographic recordings of children's work and play as evidence of progress toward meeting particular exit outcomes. These ongoing teacher assessment instruments are used to track individual student progress and to inform student/parent/teacher conferences.

1. An enrollment timeline that is scheduled to allow for a broad-based recruiting and application process. We will hold community meetings open to the general public, to provide families with important information needed to make a decision about enrolling their children at Oasis. At each meeting, an Oasis representative will collect interested family information including name, address, telephone number and email address for future communications about student matriculation and other activities. Meetings will generally be held during January, February, and March. If the number of applicants exceeds seats available, Oasis will hold a Public Random Drawing during the last week of March, subject to the School’s Spring Break schedule.

- Submit a form with basic contact information

If needed a Public Random Drawing will be held in order to fill available seats (see below)

Before the first day of school parents/guardians need to submit:

Public Random Drawing

In order to ensure a diverse student body we do extensive outreach. We target families throughout the greater Salinas community. Interest Applications are accepted during the open enrollment/orientation period from January through March. Upon receipt of an application, it will be numbered and stamped with the date and time. At the end of the open enrollment period, all interest applications will be counted by the Executive Director or his/her designee to determine if there are sufficient applications to fill vacant seats per grade. If the Executive Director or his/her designee discovers that there are more applications than there are seats, a public random drawing will be held in stages according to the following preference groups:

1. Siblings of students currently attending the Charter School and OCPS employees
2. Pupils who reside in the Alisal Union School District
3. All other students

Currently enrolled students are exempt from the public random drawing.

After the determination to hold a public random drawing, a date will be selected after March 15 (the end of the open enrollment period). The public random drawing will typically be held during the last week of March, unless it conflicts with the School's Spring Break, in which case the public random drawing will be held after Spring Break.

Oasis will send a letter to all applicants in the grade level or class that has been determined to require a public random drawing no later than seven days before the drawing date. The letter will state the date, time and location of the public random drawing as well as other arrangements made by the school such as childcare or parking, and contact information. This information will also be published on the school's website. All public random drawings will take place on the school grounds.

In the event that an emergency arises or a dispute occurs, a backup or follow-up drawing date will be scheduled.

Waiting List

When student seats for each grade are filled, names will continue to be drawn to create an orderly waiting list of students to be called upon when a vacancy occurs.

Interested applicants not enrolled, are placed on an ordered waiting list separated by preference group and age to fill vacancies which may occur during the school year. Applications received after the enrollment period will be held during the school year. In the event a vacancy occurs that cannot be filled by a wait-listed student, mid- year orientations will be held and another enrollment period will be opened. All applications collected will be added to the applications already held by the School. Subsequently, enrollment will take place up to capacity, after which a public random drawing will be held in accordance with the above steps.

Suspension Procedure

Suspensions shall be initiated according to the following procedures:

1. Conference

Suspension shall be preceded, if possible, by a conference conducted by the Executive Director or designee with the student and his or her parent and, whenever practical, the teacher, supervisor or Charter School employee who referred the student.

The conference may be omitted if the Executive Director or designee determines that an emergency situation exists. An "emergency situation" involves a clear and present danger to the lives, safety or health of students or Charter School personnel. If a student is suspended without this conference, both the parent/guardian and student shall be notified of the student's right to return to school for the purpose of a conference.

At the conference, the pupil shall be informed of the reason for the disciplinary action and the evidence against him or her and shall be given the opportunity to present his or her version and evidence in his or her defense. This conference shall be held within two school days, unless the pupil waives this right or is physically unable to attend for any reason including, but not limited to, incarceration or hospitalization. No penalties may be imposed on a pupil for failure of the pupil's parent or guardian to attend a conference with Charter School officials. Reinstatement of the suspended pupil shall not be contingent upon attendance by the pupil's parent or guardian at the conference.

2. Notice to Parents/Guardians

At the time of the suspension, an administrator or designee shall make a reasonable effort to contact the parent/guardian by telephone or in person. Whenever a student is suspended, the parent/guardian shall be notified in writing of the suspension and the date of return following suspension. This notice shall state the specific offense committed by the student. In addition, the notice may also state the date and time when the student may return to school. If Charter School officials wish to ask the parent/guardian to confer regarding matters pertinent to the suspension, the notice may request that the parent/guardian respond to such requests without delay.

3. Access to Education During Suspensions

All reasonable arrangements will be made to provide the student with classroom material and current assignments to be completed at home during the length of the suspension.

In-School Suspension

Students serving in-school suspension will be required to complete all classroom assignments, quizzes, tests and homework given during the duration of the in-school suspension with the same due dates as all other students in the same classes. Classwork will be obtained by Executive Director or designee from teachers the morning of the in-school suspension and given to the student who will complete the work in an alternative setting.

Out-of-School Suspension

Students serving out of school suspension will be required to complete all classroom assignments, quizzes, tests and homework given for all classes missed during the duration of the suspension with the due date being no later than 24 hours after return from out of school suspension. Classwork will be obtained by Executive Director or designee from teachers the afternoon of the out-of-school suspension and placed in the front office to be available for pick up by a parent or guardian.

4. Suspension Time Limits/Recommendation for Expulsion

Suspensions, when not including a recommendation for expulsion, shall not exceed five (5) consecutive school days per suspension. Upon a recommendation of Expulsion by the Executive Director or designee, the pupil and the pupil's guardian or representative will be invited to a conference to determine if the suspension for the pupil should be extended pending an expulsion hearing. This determination will be made by the Executive Director or designee upon either of the following: 1) the pupil's presence will be disruptive to the education process; or 2) the pupil poses a threat or danger to others. Upon either determination, the pupil's suspension will be extended pending the results of an expulsion hearing.

Authority to Expel

A student may be expelled either by the Charter School Board following a hearing before it or by the Charter School Board upon the recommendation of an Administrative Panel to be assigned by the Board as needed. The Administrative Panel should consist of at least three members who are certificated and neither a teacher of the pupil or a UCEN Board member. The Administrative Panel may recommend expulsion of any student found to have committed an expellable offense.

Expulsion Procedure

Students recommended for expulsion are entitled to a hearing to determine whether the student should be expelled. Unless postponed for good cause, the hearing shall be held within thirty (30) school days after the Executive Director or designee determines that the Pupil has committed an expellable offense.

In the event an Administrative Panel hears the case, it will make a recommendation to the Board for a final decision whether to expel. The hearing shall be held in closed session (complying with all pupil confidentiality rules under FERPA).

Written notice of the hearing shall be forwarded to the student and the student's parent/guardian at least ten (10) calendar days before the date of the hearing. Upon mailing the notice, it shall be deemed served upon the pupil. The notice shall include:

1. The date and place of the expulsion hearing;
2. A statement of the specific facts, charges and offenses upon which the proposed expulsion is based;
3. A copy of the Charter School's disciplinary rules which relate to the alleged violation;
4. Notification of the student's or parent/guardian's obligation to provide information about the student's status at the Charter School to any other school district or school to which the student seeks enrollment;

5. The opportunity for the student or the student's parent/guardian to appear in person or to employ and be represented by counsel or a non-attorney advisor;
6. The right to inspect and obtain copies of all documents to be used at the hearing;
7. The opportunity to confront and question all witnesses who testify at the hearing;
8. The opportunity to question all evidence presented and to present oral and documentary evidence on the student's behalf including witnesses.

Special Procedures for Expulsion Hearings Involving Sexual Assault or Battery Offenses

The Charter School may, upon a finding of good cause, determine that the disclosure of either the identity of the witness or the testimony of that witness at the hearing, or both, would subject the witness to an unreasonable risk of psychological or physical harm. Upon this determination, the testimony of the witness may be presented at the hearing in the form of sworn declarations that shall be examined only by the Charter School or the hearing officer. Copies of these sworn declarations, edited to delete the name and identity of the witness, shall be made available to the pupil.

1. The complaining witness in any sexual assault or battery case must be provided with a copy of the applicable disciplinary rules and advised of his/her right to (a) receive five (5) days-notice of his/her scheduled testimony, (b) have up to two (2) adult support persons of his/her choosing present in the hearing at the time he/she testifies, which may include a parent, guardian, or legal counsel, and (c) elect to have the hearing closed while testifying.
2. The Charter School must also provide the victim a room separate from the hearing room for the complaining witness' use prior to and during breaks in testimony.
3. At the discretion of the person or panel conducting the hearing, the complaining witness shall be allowed periods of relief from examination and cross-examination during which he or she may leave the hearing room.
4. The person conducting the expulsion hearing may also arrange the seating within the hearing room to facilitate a less intimidating environment for the complaining witness.
5. The person conducting the expulsion hearing may also limit time for taking the testimony of the complaining witness to the hours he/she is normally in school, if there is no good cause to take the testimony during other hours.
6. Prior to a complaining witness testifying, the support persons must be admonished that the hearing is confidential. Nothing in the law precludes the person presiding over the hearing from removing a support person whom the presiding person finds is disrupting the hearing. The person conducting the hearing may permit any one of the support persons for the complaining witness to accompany him or her to the witness stand.

7. If one or both of the support persons is also a witness, the Charter School must present evidence that the witness' presence is both desired by the witness and will be helpful to the Charter School. The person presiding over the hearing shall permit the witness to stay unless it is established that there is a substantial risk that the testimony of the complaining witness would be influenced by the support person, in which case the presiding official shall admonish the support person or persons not to prompt, sway, or influence the witness in any way. Nothing shall preclude the presiding officer from exercising his or her discretion to remove a person from the hearing whom he or she believes is prompting, swaying, or influencing the witness.
8. The testimony of the support person shall be presented before the testimony of the complaining witness and the complaining witness shall be excluded from the courtroom during that testimony.
9. If charges involve sexual assault or battery, the complaining witness shall have the right to have his/her testimony heard in a closed session with the panel if testifying at hearing will result in serious psychological harm to the complaining witness and there are no alternative procedures to avoid the threatened harm.
10. Evidence of specific instances of a complaining witness' prior sexual conduct is presumed inadmissible and shall not be heard absent a determination by the person conducting the hearing that extraordinary circumstances exist requiring the evidence be heard. Before such a determination regarding extraordinary circumstance can be made, the witness shall be provided notice and an opportunity to present opposition to the introduction of the evidence. In the hearing on the admissibility of the evidence, the complaining witness shall be entitled to be represented by a parent, legal counsel, or other support person. Reputation or opinion evidence regarding the sexual behavior of the complaining witness is not admissible for any purpose.

Record of Hearing

A record of the hearing shall be made and may be maintained by any means, including electronic recording, as long as a reasonably accurate and complete written transcription of the proceedings can be made.

Presentation of Evidence

While technical rules of evidence do not apply to expulsion hearings, evidence may be admitted and used as proof only if it is the kind of evidence on which reasonable persons can rely in the conduct of serious affairs. A recommendation by the Administrative Panel to expel must be supported by substantial evidence that the student committed an expellable offense. Findings of fact shall be based solely on the evidence at the hearing. While hearsay evidence is admissible, no decision to expel shall be based solely on hearsay. Sworn declarations may be admitted as testimony from witnesses of whom the Board, Panel or designee determines that disclosure of their identity or testimony at the hearing may subject them to an unreasonable risk of physical or psychological harm.

If the charge involves committing or attempting to commit a sexual assault or committing a sexual battery as defined in Education Code Section 48900, a complaining witness shall have the right to have his or her testimony heard by the Panel.

The decision of the Administrative Panel shall be in the form of written findings of fact and a written recommendation to the UCEN Board who will make a final determination regarding the expulsion. The final decision by the Board shall be made within ten (10) school days following the conclusion of the hearing. The Decision of the UCEN Board is final.

If the Administrative Panel decides not to recommend expulsion, the pupil shall immediately be returned to his/her educational program.

Written Notice to Expel

The Executive Director or designee following a decision of the Board to expel shall send written notice of the decision to expel, including the Board's adopted findings of fact, to the student or parent/guardian. This notice shall also include the following: Notice of the specific offense committed by the student; and Notice of the student's or parent/guardian's obligation to inform any new district in which the student seeks to enroll of the student's status with the Charter School.

The Executive Director or designee shall send a copy of the written notice of the decision to expel to the authorizer. This notice shall include the following: a) The student's name b) The specific expellable offense committed by the student

Disciplinary Records

The Charter School shall maintain records of all student suspensions and expulsions at the Charter School. Such records shall be made available to the authorizer upon request.

No Right to Appeal

The pupil shall have no right of appeal from expulsion from the Charter School as the Charter School Board's decision to expel shall be final.

Expelled Pupils/Alternative Education

Pupils who are expelled shall be responsible for seeking alternative education programs including, but not limited to, programs within the County or their school district of residence. The Charter School shall work cooperatively with parents/guardians as requested by parents/guardians or by the school district of residence to assist with locating alternative placements during expulsion.

Rehabilitation Plans

Students who are expelled from the Charter School shall be given a rehabilitation plan upon expulsion as developed by the UCEN Board of Directors at the time of the expulsion order, which may include, but is not limited to, periodic review as well as assessment at the time of review for readmission. The rehabilitation plan should include a date not later than one year from the date of expulsion when the pupil may reapply to the Charter School for readmission.

Readmission

The decision to readmit a pupil or to admit a previously expelled pupil from another school district or charter school shall be in the sole discretion of the Board of Directors following a meeting with the Executive Director or designee and the pupil and guardian or representative to determine whether the pupil has successfully completed the rehabilitation plan and to determine whether the pupil poses a threat to others or will be disruptive to the school environment. The Executive Director or designee shall make a recommendation to the Board of Directors following the meeting regarding his or her determination. The pupil's readmission is also contingent upon the Charter School's capacity at the time the student seeks readmission.

Special Procedures for the Consideration of Suspension and Expulsion of Students with Disabilities

1. Notification of SELPA

Oasis Charter Public School shall immediately notify the SELPA and coordinate the procedures in this policy with the SELPA of the discipline of any student with a disability or student who the Charter School or SELPA would be deemed to have knowledge that the student had a disability

2. Services during Suspension

Students suspended for more than ten (10) school days in a school year shall continue to receive services so as to enable the student to continue to participate in the general education curriculum, although in another setting, and to progress toward meeting the goals set out in the child's IEP; and receive, as appropriate, a functional behavioral assessment or functional analysis, and behavioral intervention services and modifications, that are designed to address the behavior violation so that it does not recur. These services may be provided in an interim alternative educational setting.

3. Procedural Safeguards/Manifestation Determination

Within ten (10) school days of a recommendation for expulsion or any decision to change the placement of a child with a disability because of a violation of a code of student conduct (any cumulative suspensions within one year adding up to 10 days), the Charter School, the parent, and relevant members of the IEP Team shall review all relevant information in the student's file, including the child's IEP, any teacher observations, and any relevant information provided by the parents to determine:

- a. If the conduct in question was caused by, or had a direct and substantial relationship to, the child's disability; or
- b. If the conduct in question was the direct result of the local educational agency's failure to implement the IEP.

If the Charter School, the parent, and relevant members of the IEP Team determine that either of the above is applicable for the child, the conduct shall be determined to be a manifestation of the child's disability.

If the Charter School, the parent, and relevant members of the IEP Team make the determination that the conduct was a manifestation of the child's disability, the IEP Team shall:

- Conduct a functional behavioral assessment or a functional analysis assessment, and implement a behavioral intervention plan for such child, provided that the Charter School had not conducted such assessment prior to such determination before the behavior that resulted in a change in placement.
- If the Charter School, the parent, and relevant members of the IEP team determine that the behavior was not a manifestation of the student's disability and that the conduct in question was not a result of the failure to implement the IEP, then the Charter School may apply the relevant disciplinary procedures to children with disabilities in the same manner and for the same duration as the procedures would be applied to students without disabilities.
- The school's policies will provide all students with an opportunity for due process and will be developed to conform to applicable federal law regarding students with exceptional needs. A student identified as an individual with disabilities or for whom Oasis has a basis of knowledge of a suspected disability pursuant to the American with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, Individuals with Disabilities in Education Act (IDEA), or who is qualified for services under section 504 or the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 is subject to the same grounds of suspension and expulsion and is accorded the same due process procedures applicable to regular education students except to the extent where federal and state law mandates additional or different procedures.
