

Minutes, Palouse Patchers September 3, 2018 General Meeting

Meeting was held in the 1912 Great Room, as the event center at the Fairgrounds was preparing for the Fair.

Meeting opened at 7PM b Leslie Sprouse

Newcomers introduced themselves and were welcomed

Note: the September Newsletter said that the Sept and October Meetings would be held in the 1912 Bldg. It will actually be the September and NOVEMBER meetings. October will meet in the Event Center at the Fairgrounds as usual.

Leslie passed out a sign up sheet for meeting set up.

Leslie read Thanks you notes from 4H and Heifer International for monetary donations from the PP.

Quilt show related:

Mindy Hicks requested someone take charge of the raffle tickets. Karen Adams volunteered.

Molly Welsh will do admissions

Sanity Seekers will do the Saturday night security

Need volunteers to move raffle quilt to different venues AND someone to do housekeeping chores during the quilt show

The Quilt Show banner (inside the show) is looking a little dated, and a volunteer is needed to replace it.

Fair Related:

Karen Hagen asked everyone to sign up for the fair shifts- about 2 hours each. Sign up genius info in the newsletter.

The printed fair book has all the information on classes etc.

Quilt Camp related:

Quilt camp is Oct 10-14 $50 deposit ASAP, or pay $206, the entire amount. Must be paid in full by the October meeting end.

Thursday-Saturday massage will be available 65 for an hour, 35 for a half hour

Will be held at same place as last year, north of Harrison

Information and registration forms on the PP website, or call Ann Frey for details.

CASA related:

2016 95 quilts donated

2017 102 quilts donated

2018 Jan-August 49 quilts donated

Iris has photo albums of all quilts.

Donna Bailey and Sue Scott are taking over CASA now.

Fall Festival related:

Dinner September 27 at Holiday Inn Express Pullman

Stitches and Petals will have chicken drawing block on Sept 5

Ann Shaw, nationally recognized teacher will present Flowers of the Gorge on Friday and Chicken or Frog block on Saturday

55 dollars each day, bring your own fabric.

Mary Jean Craig reported on the fleece trying project for 4H in June.

8-9 Patchers helped 35 kids complete 30 blankets. 11 went to CASA, rest to Good Sam, Care Net Aspen Park etc.

Molly Welsh announced the Salvation Army will need bell ringers at 3 places in Moscow and 2 in Pullman

Debbie Goetz announced that the family of Kathleen Butts is having an epic fabric sale of her stash, tons of fabric. Must call for an appointment.

Ann Swenson has a Sweet 16 for sale 208 669 2291 or angelwoodquilts@yahoo.com

Julie Trail is selling a Koala sewing cabinet

QOV Sew day will be at the Viola Community Center on October 7 and 8 9 AM on

Budget and Bylaws will be voted on in the October Meeting

Tool Time

Show and Tell

Celia Boland did a program on more exciting borders and bindings.

Submitted by Margaret Donelick

Secretary