

Minutes, Palouse Patchers November 6, 2018 General Meeting

November 6, 2018

Palouse Patchers General Meeting

The November general meeting was held at the 1912 Center to accommodate voting at the Fairgrounds.

Leslie opened the meeting at 7 PM and welcomed guests.

Debbie Goetz mentioned a fundraiser for Elisabeth Davis (maker of the wonderful dolls) whose son was injured in an accident and has had several medical setbacks. Palouse Community Center Wed. Nov 7 6:30 PM-9 PM.

The Kathleen Butts fabric sale will continue on weekends in November. No Appointments needed, but you may want to call and verify that they are open if the weather is poor.

Ann Frey announced that Jan Peterson has a Bernina 200 series Artista sewing machine that has been upgraded to a 730 for sale for $2700. Also, fabric, embroidery stuff, spools craft supplies sewing table. 3-5 PM Sunday at 1180 Butte Road

10-inch blocks for Jolene, the camp cook featuring bright colors, bling and perhaps cats can be submitted to Ann Frey by February.

Next Quilt Camp will be April 3-7, 2019

Karen Adams has raffle tickets. She can deliver!

CASA has thank-you's from kids who have received quilts. The sew days will be January 18-19 at the Fairgrounds, 9-4 both days. Bring your machine.

QOV

Lana gave a short history of the QOV program. QOV sew day will be at the 1912 Center in February. Only one quilt is awarded to each person, and we have a qualifying veteran: Donna Bailly. Donna was awarded a lovely quilt and received a standing ovation.

Leslie read the donation committee suggestions for this year, as Sally was still at the polls:

Heifer Intl.: 50

Rendezvous for Kids: 100

Renaissance Fair: 50

4H Latah County: 50

Quilts of Valor: 75

Moscow Middle School: 75

There was a request for teachers for a Moscow Middle School lunch program to teach crafts (sewing knitting etc.). Neill Library has a sewing machine for use. Talk to Ann or Leslie if interested in helping.

Quilt Show:

NEED a volunteer for moving the raffle quilt around and for sitting and selling tickets for it at Winter Market. See Leslie!!!

The December meeting will feature chocolate. Don't forget to bring a food item for the Food Bank wrapped in an exchangeable fat quarter.

Tool Time Margaret did not win... again. Just saying....

Show and Tell

Program:

Jenny Kostroff, PP Member and the manager of the 1912 gave an interesting talk on the history of the building and its renovation into a community center. Tours were given of completed and planned renovations. See Jenny regarding the Tiny Frames concept for Art Walk.

Submitted by Margaret Donelick, Secretary

November 6, 2018 - Palouse Patchers Executive Board Meeting

Present:

Leslie Sprouse, Jessica Swan, Joan Tozer, Margaret Donelick, Mindy Hicks and Celia Boland

Costs for the December 2018 Meeting:

$100 for chocolate

$100 for the speaker, Lauren Finns

October general meeting minutes amended to show the proper spelling of Freitag, and to show that there were 15, not 50 attendees at the Flower Workshop for Fall Festival

Leslie:

No one has offered to help with moving the raffle quilt around. Leslie will place it at Zion's and Banner Banks and take it to Winter Market.

December Meeting will feature the potluck dinner, chocolate lecture and tasting, the pink and brown chocolate raffle blocks, and cans of food for the Food Bank wrapped in exchangeable fat quarters.

Submitted by Margaret Donelick, Secretary