Palouse Patchers General Meeting

The December meeting was held at 6PM with a potluck dinner at the fairgrounds. The actual meeting was short, with mentions of the following items:

There is a collection box for the Magnuson's, who lost their home and stash to a fire.

Food for the food bank goes in a separate box.

The QOV sew Day is Feb 2, 2019.

CASA Sew Days are Jan 18-19 at the Fairgrounds.

We need a nominating committee chair!

Karen Adams has raffle tickets to sell for the raffle quilt "Moonlight Serenade".

Leslie needs winter Market sitters to sell tickets at the winter market

Someone in Troy (did not catch the name) wants to learn how to machine quilt, and is looking for a teacher.

10-inch blocks for Jolene, the camp cook featuring bright colors, bling and perhaps cats can be submitted to Ann Frey by February.

Next Quilt Camp will be April 3-7, 2019

Show and Tell

Program:

Lauren Fins presented a lecture on chocolate, with many samples to taste. Very interesting, and tasty!
