

2016 CHIEF STANDING BEAR SCHOLARSHIP

"My hand is not the color of yours, but if I pierce it, I shall feel pain. If you pierce your hand, you also feel pain. The blood that will flow from mine will be of the same color as yours. I am a man. The same God made us both."

- Chief Standing Bear -

Chief Standing Bear's contributions towards Civil Rights have left a lasting impression on Nebraskans and have had an impact on all Americans as well.

In Commemoration of his efforts, the Chief Standing Bear Scholarship Committee is offering two $2,500 scholarships to American Indian students who are enrolled in a tribe and who will be attending a higher-education institution (e.g. four-year college/university, community college, tribal college, technical school, etc.) in the upcoming fall term.

The scholarship will be distributed directly to the student in two equal payments of $1,250 (August and January). The August payment will be provided upon receipt of enrollment in the higher-education institution. The January payment will be provided upon receipt of the student's first semester grades and registration of classes for the next semester/quarter. Grade Point Average must be above a 2.5 during the first semester.

Eligibility Requirements

- 1.) The applicant must be an enrolled tribal member and able to provide proof of tribal affiliation.
- 2.) The applicant must be a Nebraska resident.
- 3.) The applicant must submit the scholarship application, scholarship essay, and letter of reference by 5:00 p.m. April 1, 2016.

Scholarship Recipient Requirements

- 1.) The recipient must be accepted into an accredited program of higher education. Proof of enrollment must be provided before receiving the first payment.
- 2.) The recipient will be contacted and asked to provide their first semester grades and proof of class registration for the next semester/quarter.
- 3.) Applicant must show a Grade Point Average of at least a 2.5 for the first semester in your institution of higher learning in order to receive the second payment.

Please Note: All Applicants will receive a response from the Scholarship Committee by May 1, 2016. Scholarship winners should plan on attending an awards ceremony in mid-May 2016. Specific date is yet to be determined.
