Rejoice in Celebration Claude T. Smith
Written for the Missouri Music Educators Association in honor of 50 years of service to Missouri Music Education

The Missouri Music Educators Association and its cooperating sponsoring organizations, The Missouri String Teachers Association (MoASTA); The Missouri Choral Director's Association, (MoACDA); and The Missouri Bandmasters Association (MBA) are non-profit educational organizations whose chief goal is to promote the highest standards in music education.

Through sponsorship of clinics, conventions and these all-state honor groups, the standards of musical performance throughout Missouri has been enhanced, and the music education that is offered in the schools, colleges and universities of our state is of a high quality and integrity.
