Jim Sansone (Sansone's Farm Market) is authorized to provide snow and/or ice removal services as verbally specified. I, _____, voluntarily and with full understanding agree that Sansone's is not responsible for any property damage that may occur as a result of these snow/ice removal services. This may include, but is not limited to, scratching, cracking, chipping or "gouging" of pavement, gravel, concrete, grass or vegetation surfaces, damage to house structure, garage, retaining walls, fences, mailboxes, ground water drains, etc. The property owner accepts any and all responsibility and will hold the snow removal operator and his/her agents harmless for any future liabilities for ice formations, placed or stored snow or melted runoff that may cause physical injury related to contracted services of snow removal.
