

The Secret of the Lonely Isles

Content ⇒ Process ↓	People	Places	Events	Themes	Connections within the novel and with the readers experience.	Structure and Methods (Use of a range of reading strategies)
Knowledge In The Book: Right There	What language do Aunt Ella and Jem’s mother speak together?		Why did Aunt Ella decide to take the children on a sailing trip?
Comprehension In the Book: Think and Search	What differences and similarities exist between Jem and his sister Maddy?			Jem is said to ‘have the sight’. Describe what you think is meant by this?		Write a list of things that you think would be essential to take with you before setting sail on the Freya.
Analysis & Application In My Head: Author and Me	Make a family tree to show the relationships within this book.		Draw a collection of pictures or photographs to describe the important events of this story.	Robert Perceval is the last man alive on the Island. How do you think he would spend his last days or weeks? Do you think he still expected a ship to pass through? Write 3 diary entries from Robert towards the end of his time on the Island. Describe his activities and the things he may have been thinking.
Synthesis In My Head:				How would you have handled the

On My Own				situation at home before Jem and the other kids were taken away on the boat?
Evaluation In My Head: On My Own		Make a booklet about the rules that you see as important when travelling at sea.				