Knowledge In The Book: Right There	What did Oliver name the dog after?
Comprehension In the Book: Think and Search	Describe Nancy physically and describe her nature. What good and bad points does she have and how do you think her character helped her to overcome the difficulties that she had to face.		At the start of the book Oliver gets into the car with Nancy so that he can help her with the dog. Why might this have been a bad idea? What would you have done in different circumstances?	Oliver's parents described themselves as victims on page 109. They believe that it would be impossible to give the money back to their investors. What would you do in the same situation?
Analysis & Application In My Head: Author and Me	Why do you think mum keeps dismissing the housekeepers?	Draw a picture of how you imagine Erik's house would look.
Synthesis In My Head: On My Own					In Chapter 13 Oliver broke school rules. Write a day in your school life. You need to break five school rules. Do you get caught or do you get off scot free?
Evaluation In My Head:					Why do you think the author decided	Re design the front cover in a way that
