

Parvana's Journey by Deborah Ellis

Content ⇒ Process ↓	People	Places	Events	Themes	Connections within the novel and with the readers experience.	Structure and Methods (Use of a range of reading strategies)
Knowledge In The Book: Right There	Compare and contrast 2 characters in the book using a Venn diagram.		Make a list of facts you have learnt from the book.			List 10 good words from the book and put them into a word search or crossword using puzzlemaker.com
Comprehension In the Book: Think and Search			List the main events of the story in sequential order.		Write a letter to a friend recommending this book
Analysis &amp; Application In My Head: Author and Me	Pretend you are one of the characters from the book. Write a diary entry for one of the characters most interesting days in the story.	Be a newspaper reporter and write an article about Afghanistan and what life is like for Parvana.		List the themes in the book	Make a comparison between your life and Parvana's. Compare daily events, clothes, home life, foods, activities	Choose one scene in the book and rewrite it?
Synthesis In My Head: On My Own			Re write the ending to the book.		Select a part in the story which you would change. Explain why you would change it. Rewrite a scene from the book to reflect the changes.
Evaluation In My Head: On My Own	Write about what Parvana does in the future with her life. Comment on home life, work, education and friendships.		Choose an issue from the book the class could debate. Eg education for girls, orphaned children, landmines. Devise for and against arguments for the topic			