

Ghost Boy by Felicity Pulman

Content ⇒ Process ↓	People	Places	Events	Themes	Connections within the novel and with the readers experience.	Structure and Methods (Use of a range of reading strategies)
Knowledge In The Book: Right There	Compare and contrast 2 characters in the book using a Venn diagram.		Make a list of facts you have learnt from the book.			List 10 good words from the book and put them into a word search or crossword using puzzlemaker.com
Comprehension In the Book: Think and Search			List the main events of the story in sequential order.		Write a letter to a friend recommending this book
Analysis & Application In My Head: Author and Me	Pretend you are one of the characters from the book. Write a diary entry for one of the characters most interesting days in the story.	Be a newspaper reporter and write an article about Life at the Quarantine Station when Tad was living there.	List the places that are important in the story. Create a map of how you imagine the layout of these places to be.	List the themes in the book.		Choose one scene in the book and rewrite it?
Synthesis In My Head: On My Own	Create your own family tree as far back as you can. Interview your parents to add more details.		Describe which part of the story was: -The most frightening & why -Full of the most action & why -The saddest & why -The most interesting & why		Select a part in the story which you would change. Explain why you would change it. Rewrite a scene from the book to reflect the changes.
Evaluation In My Head: On My Own	Write another chapter at the end of the book. Include what happens to Froggy and his family.					