LAW ENFORCEMENT ETHICS AWARD

The FBI National Executive Institute Associates (NEIA) annual Law Enforcement Ethics Award honors a law enforcement officer who has maintained the highest ethical standards in performing his or her responsibilities by consistently displaying the following core values:

Integrity – Is a role model for the community demonstrating high moral and ethical standards. Is honest and sincere in dealing with others, and ensures the public trust;

Respect – Values cultural diversity and treats all people with compassion, tolerance and dignity;

Fairness –Is committed to upholding the constitutional rights of all people in an objective and impartial manner. Treats people with courtesy and avoids discrimination based on race, sex, age, gender or gender identity.

Service – Insists upon the highest standards of professional performance and demonstrates personal dedication in improving the quality of life in the community.

CRITERIA FOR NOMINATION

In addition to adhering to and demonstrating these core values, nominees should be officers who:

- Display the ability to lead by example by encouraging ethical and moral behavior;
- Participate in activities that promote good will and the public trust; and
- Are nominated by a member of the FBI National Executive Institute Associates, Major Cities Chiefs Association, or Major County Sheriffs of America.
