Photographs in Childcare Consent

During the year staff like to capture special moments and occasions that your child participates in here at the centre. Kingdom Kare would like your permission to use these photographs for many purposes.

There are a number of reasons why we take photos such as;

- Illustrating to children how we do certain routines (eg. washing hands, sitting at the table, activity routines).
- Providing visual documentation for parents to see what their children has done throughout the day.
- Teaching children to recognise cultural differences and body image, expanding knowledge of differences (eg. colour and dress).
- Photo observations and evaluations for programming.
- To use as part of a gift (eg. Mother's Day, Father's Day, Christmas, etc).

Please take a moment to let us know your preferences regarding our use of photos of your children(s).

Kingdom Kare will never reference your child by name (unless for internal centre use) or provide any specific information regarding your child. We will also never sell these pictures; we will use them exclusively for Kingdom Kare's purposes. Photos will not be taken by educator's personal equipment or taken home by staff, volunteers or students.

Amateur photographers are the documentarians of real life. People with cameras bear witness to the everyday dramas of ordinary people. We capture our world to help us understand it. We do not have ulterior motives. We are not dangerous. And we are certainly not a threat.

As to photography: "I really believe there are things nobody would see if I didn't photograph them." (Diane Arbus).
