

Building Use Agreement for Unity Church Facilities

- Individuals or groups using Unity Church facilities cannot discriminate against anyone for reasons including but not limited to: race, sexual orientation, age, gender, religious beliefs, ethnicity, or physical characteristics.
- Individuals or groups using Unity Church facilities cannot promote bigotry, discrimination, abuse of individual rights or restriction of self-determination.
- Informational material about Unity Church or Unitarian Universalism may not be removed before the meeting or event. Individuals are welcome to take informational materials from the pews for their own education.
- Furniture or decorations may not be moved without permission. This includes, but is not limited to, the flag in front of the church and the piano. Request to move specific items may be made and will be considered by the Executive Committee.
- Payment of rent must be made:
 - In advance of the meeting or event
 - Within 30 days of approval by the Executive Committee
- Decorations or other materials shall be removed after the use and the facilities shall be left in the same condition in which they were found.
- If there are extra cleaning costs or any damage to the facilities, Unity Church will bill the group or individual for additional costs.
- Unity Church is smoke free.
- The Chaffin Room will be rented for light use only. Parish Hall will be available for events involving heavy use. The Executive Committee will determine what use is considered 'light' and 'heavy' during the approval process.

By using Unity Church facilities, you agree to abide by this agreement. We hope that you will enjoy our historic building as much as our members and friends!
