

BUSINESS

www.readingeagle.com | READING EAGLE | MONDAY June 11, 2007

---

The Penn Street Funds Select Equity Portfolio from Berkshire Advisors Inc., Wyomissing, was named a category king by The Wall Street Journal.

The designation, which Berkshire received for the 13th time in the last 24 months, is given to the top 10 performing mutual funds in each category.

Berkshire ranked fourth in April and May in the large-cap value category.

The portfolio, managed by President and CEO Jay R. Kemmerer, invests in blue-chip companies with market capitalization greater than $6 billion and a history of consistent earnings and dividends.

