Glimpses of the Open Gates of Heaven

A verse by verse study of the books of Daniel and Revelation.

The books of Daniel and Revelation have fascinated theologians, archeologists, historians, monarchs, peasants and children, for millennia. Filled with fascinating symbolic imagery, of beasts rising from seething waves; a bloodthirsty dragon chasing a fair maiden; apocalyptic plagues pouring over the planet; cryptic numbers and mysterious predictions; all calling for the curious and the concerned alike to heed the warnings they contain.

"The present is a time of overwhelming interest to all living. Rulers and statesmen, men who occupy positions of trust and authority, thinking men and women of all classes, have their attention fixed upon the events taking place about us. They are watching the relations that exist among the nations. They observe the intensity that is taking possession of every earthly element and they recognize that something great and decisive is about to take place—that the world is on the verge of a stupendous crisis.

"The calamities by land and sea, the unsettled state of society, the alarms of war, are portentous. They forecast approaching events of the greatest magnitude....
Great changes are soon to take place in our world, and the final movements will be rapid ones." In a most dramatic way, the future is laid open in these prophetic pages. These messages will prepare a people to stand in the great day of God.

Egypt & the Bible

Scholars have long debated the identity of the Pharaoh of the Exodus, and the chronology of the events mentioned in the Bible. Unfortunately, often the Bible's own chronology is ignored, or presumed incorrect. Several factors make it difficult to arrive at exact dates for the events of the history of Egypt:

1. These events happened a long time ago (about 3500 years). Anything that long ago is difficult to reconstruct with an accurate timeline.

2. Egypt is especially famous for its falsification of history. Any embarrassments or departures from standard practice and religion, are re-interpreted, and portrayed according to the one in power at the time.

3. Scholars have typically viewed the Biblical account with as much, or more, skepticism than the archeological evidence, rather than approaching it as the truthful and inspired account it claims to be.

The Biblical account can no longer be ignored, or questioned. Starting with the Biblical chronology and seeing how the archeological evidence fits into its framework causes a most amazing story emerge which harmonizes the historical evidence and the Biblical account in a most astonishing way.

Unlike the Egyptian chronology, the reign of King Solomon has been well established both with the biblical chronology, and scholarship, to have begun in 970 B.C. The Bible says, in 1 Kings 6:1 "And it came to pass in the four hundred and eightieth year after the children of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon's reign over Israel, in the month Zif, which [is] the second month, that he began to build the house of the LORD." So, the fourth year of Solomon would be 966 B.C., making the date of the Exodus in the spring of 1446 B.C.

The following presentation gives the amazing story of Moses, Pharaoh's daughter, the Pharaoh of the Exodus, and the impact of the Exodus on subsequent monarchs, as it emerges with the Biblical chronology and the latest Egyptology.

From Thutmoses I to the famous Tutankhamun, this story is more than you may have heard before!

Messages from Outer Space

Scientists are listening to outer space: "If anyone is trying to get in touch with us, we're ready to listen." - U.S. News & World Report. Perhaps they are listening for the wrong beings. God has sent messages from outer space to our planet. "Surely the Lord GOD will do nothing, but he reveals his secret unto his servants the prophets." Jesus said, that at the end of time we must "beware of false prophets." This implies that there are true prophets. Indeed, God commands us to "despise not prophesyings. Prove all things; hold fast that which is good." Therefore he must have given us a way to tell the difference. There are at least eight marks of a biblical prophet.

Discover the ultimate communication from a loving God to guide us through the final events of earth's history—the Spirit of Prophecy.

Full Disclosure: The Coming New World Order

Earthly leaders and politicians are speaking of a New World Order, which, they say, will solve all the world's problems and usher in an age of global peace. They speak of the economy, the ecology, the health care, the socialization, the science, the travel, the art and architecture, and the politics of their dream for global dominion.

The Bible predicts a New World Order-very different the one envisioned here on earth, albeit, with the same components. This heavenly New World Order will even have it's own politics-very different from any politics we have ever experienced, or read about.

The sheer magnitude of its capital city is beyond comprehension. Explore a cryptic Bible prophecy about the New Jerusalem that maps the dimensions of its temple's gates, porches, pillars and arches—a prophecy that outlined the framework for scientific measurements over two and a half millennia before modern science discovered these dimensions.

Thou Hast Magnified Thy Word Above All Thy Name

The Bible's power, feared by its enemies, is the power to transform those who submit to its claims, and love its precepts. The written words of the King James translators have had a greater influence on this world than any other literary work the planet has ever seen. It has changed the course of nations, and altered history in a way the translators could have never fathomed. It has transmitted the precious Gospel message to more souls than all other agencies combined. Only in eternity will its power be comprehended.

God's promise to preserve his pure Word was dramatically fulfilled in the 1611 publication of the Authorized Version of the Bible, more commonly known today, as the King James Version. The King James translators of the Bible achieved what has never been accomplished before, or since. Although the translators are mostly unknown, and their masterpiece is either unappreciated or maligned; though the importance of their accomplishment is not comprehended; though every power of hell and demons has been arrayed against this book, yet their legacy survives as the living Word of God - the best selling book of all time.

Full Disclosure: Creation, by God

Did the world come into existence through the process of random chance? Did all the order and beauty of nature around us come from a pit of slime or a small point in space the size of a pinhead?

Was there an intelligent being who created this world? Did its design require thought? Does nature contain information? One of theorems of information science is that all information must ultimately be traced to the mind of the sender.

Why do we observe conformity in nature? How is it that scientist can perform scientific experiments multiple times and receive the same result each time? Where does morality come from? How can we know anything?

In order to know something it must be true. We can believe a thing with our whole being, but if it is false we can never know it for the simple reason that it is impossible to know something that is not

Full Disclosure: A Cross in the Sand

The Lord of Glory, the majesty of the universe, stops and stoops to fold his grave clothes! The greatest event in the history of the world had just occurred—the resurrection of the Messiah! This event was about to be proclaimed to the entire globe, but the Lord first folds the clothes with which he had been wrapped. Our Saviour, when raised from the dead, did not throw his grave clothes aside in a careless manner bur folded them neatly, for he himself declared, "let all things be done decently and in order." I Corinthians 14:40.

This principle was not new: God put it in place for the camp of Israel long before and through it revealed a prophecy of himself by a cross in the sand.

Full Disclosure: The Universe Reveals Design

"The universe we see when we look out to its furthest horizons contains a hundred billion galaxies. Each of these galaxies contains another hundred billion stars. That's 10²² stars all told. The silent embarrassment of modern astrophysics is that we do not know how even a single one of these stars managed to form."

- Martin Harwit

Throughout the universe, everywhere we look there is evidence of design. With all the technology of human genius, we have been able to create a fusion reaction (such as occurs continuously on the sun) for 20 billionths of a second. The problem is, then it must cool down for hours before it can be fired again. In order to accumulate one second of time at this rate, would take 3000 years. Yet these billions of stars just accidentally started fusion reactions all over the universe? Jim Burr, telescope manufacturer, and amateur astronomer, who has lectured on international television networks such as 3ABN and LLBN, discloses the evidence.
