Dear Councilmember Madison:

It is my pleasure to invite you to the State of the District and Town Hall Meeting for the Third Congressional District, which I am proud to represent, on Tuesday, May 3, 2016 from 6:00 pm-7:30 pm.

During my time in Congress, I have had the opportunity to meet and speak with thousands of constituents in the District and in Washington through numerous roundtable discussions, community meetings, tele-town halls and public appearances. The State of the District is another opportunity to talk with you about the direction of the District and our nation and to recognize exemplary community accomplishments and service.
