VALENTINE SURPRISE FOR EVERYONE!

With guitar and piano, BILL COHEN will be singing favorites made famous by John Denver, the Everly Brothers, Sam Cooke, Bette Midler, James Taylor, Kris Kristofferson, the Eagles, Patti Page, Nat King Cole, Johnny Mathis, Bing Crosby, and others. Ann Fisher will be on hand to add some romantic flute accompaniment on several songs. Special musical sparkle will come from Brian Szuch on lead guitar. And David Maywhoor will help us keep the beat with his drumming. Plus, the all-girl trio, the Harmonettes, will add some tight vocal back-ups on other tunes.

While the songs will reflect the ecstasy, warmth, heartache, and pain that love can bring, there will be a lighter side too, as you're challenged with trivia questions about famous and infamous couples and love songs throughout the decades.

Refreshments will be served, and a couple special surprises are also being planned.

A $10 donation per person is being requested at the door, with proceeds going to help produce the upcoming Central Ohio Folk Festival.

WHERE: Columbus Mennonite Church at 35 E. Oakland Park

WHEN: Friday February 2 from 7 to 9 p.m.

We will LEAVE the Bexley pool lot at 6:00 pm - COST: $19.00 (bus & donation) Bill Cohen said we HAVE to leave early! - NO guarantee of SEATS! 1st come, 1st served. Bring something to read or play with your phone or let's talk!! lol

Jeff Lafever is back! Franklinton/Riverfront/German Village will be our new destination. Even if you were with us last year, Jeff said this presentation will be different. We will begin our day with lunch at Schmidt's in German Village (on your own). Then Jeff will join us as we travel down to Franklinton to learn how a small village on the floodplain of the Scioto River birthed the Capital of Ohio and is fast becoming the center of arts and creativity for Columbus. Then we will travel along the river and view its renewal before we check in with German Village to learn about it's roots, decline, and transformation into one of Columbus's premier neighborhoods. TIME: Leave Bexley pool at 10:45 am COST: $27.00 (bus & tour escort)
