Goals of the course:
This will be a course in children’s literature, which concentrates on texts that are read to or read by children from ages five to nine or grades one through three. We will consider various interpretations of folk tales, fables, nursery rhymes, poems, music, picture books, informational books, chapter books, series books, and and/or video created for, or presented to children, what we know about how children understand and use them, and how children’s books express and confirm certain attitudes and beliefs about childhood.

Required Texts:
Hans Christian Andersen. The Little Mermaid and Other Fairy Tales. Dover Evergreen Classics.
Jon Scieszka & Lane Smith. The Stinky Cheese Man and Other Fairly Stupid Tales. Puffin.

Recommended Text:
(This text is not required, but strongly recommended.)

Course Format:
The class will be reading and discussing a variety of children's texts that are intended for pre-readers and young readers up until the third grade. Students need to read the assignments prior to class and be prepared to discuss them in class. The class will involve lecture, discussion, and small group work. Throughout the semester, students will be assigned a series of short writing projects and reading quizzes related to the assignments.

Class Attendance:
Class attendance is important and is intended to be a valuable experience. If you must miss class, you should have a good reason for your absence. Since you can't be two places at the same time, avoid scheduling other activities during class time. Students are expected to participate in class discussion and a portion of the final grade will be based on class discussion. If a student misses more than three class sessions, the final grade will be lowered a third of a letter grade for each additional class missed. Students who miss a class or come in late will not be allowed to make up an in-class writing assignment and/or a reading quiz. Do not use of cell phones, pagers, texting devices in class. Turn them off prior to class.

Exams:
There will be two exams given during the semester, one of which will be a cumulative final exam. The final exam will be scheduled, according to the Spring 2018 Final Exam Schedule when it is made available to faculty & students. The exams will include objective and short identification items as well as essay questions.

Children’s Film Paper:
Students will write a short analysis (three page, typed, doubled spaced) on a children's film selected from a list provided by the instructor. Students will locate and read the entry for the film on Wikipedia and at least one film review of the film from either The New York Times, Los Angeles Times online, or Roger Ebert’s website (rogerebert.com). The analysis should cite at least two of those secondary sources and the film itself. The film analysis paper need to conform to the format found in the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers.

Picture Book Paper:
Each student will write a short (eight-ten page, typed, doubled spaced) scholarly analysis of a children's picture book selected from a list of titles provided by the professor. Students will submit a proposal for their research paper, which will include a minimum of four secondary sources in their Works Cited section. Only half of the secondary sources can be electronic sources. Critical papers need to conform to the format that is outlined in the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers. The MLA Handbook shows the appropriate method for citing material and manner to create a Works Cited page. Students are strongly encouraged to purchase a copy of The MLA Handbook, if they do not already own a copy. The handbook will be of use in this course and any other English course you plan to take. The Work Cited section of the picture book paper must have a minimum of six secondary sources. Once again, only half of those secondary sources can be electronic. Please keep an extra copy of all your submitted papers for your records.

Proposal for Picture Book Paper:
In preparation for writing your critical paper, students will write a proposal for their longer research project. The proposal should be at least 2 pages in length and should include a Works Cited section of at least 4 possible secondary sources. The proposal needs to conform to the format provide in the MLA Handbook. The MLA Handbook shows how to cited material and how to create a Works Cited section. The proposal should have a working title for the paper, at least 1 page description of the focus of your paper, and a Works Cites page with at least 4 annotated secondary sources.

Plagiarism/Cheating:
Please consult the Illinois State University policy in the ISU Undergraduate Catalog under "Academic Integrity" and chapter 2: “Plagiarism” in the MLA Handbook. Plagiarism and cheating are serious academic offenses and may result in failure on an exam, paper, or project and in some cases failure in the course. All written work submitted for this course must be your own and produced for this specific course.

Grades:
Grades will be based on the following point scale: Grades for papers: A+=100, A=95, A-92, B+=87, B=85, B-=82, C+=77, C=75, C-=72, D+=67, D=65, D-=62, F=50. For the course grade, the following scale will be used A=90 and above, B=80 and above, C= 70 and above, D=60 and above, F=50 and below. Students earn grades by performance, not negotiation. If you have a question concerning a grade on an assignment or exam, please come by my office during my office hours to discuss it. Students should keep all grades assignments. The course grade will be based on the following assignments, which will be weighted as follows:

Children’s Film Paper: 10%
Midterm Exam: 20%
Picture Book Paper: 20%
Writing Assignments & Quizzes: 20%
Final Exam: 20%
Class Participation: 10%

Given the unreliability of ReggieNet, I will not be using it for this course.

Student Access & Accommodation Services:
Students needing to arrange a reasonable accommodation for a documented disability should contact Student Access and Accommodation Services at 350 Fell, 309-438-5853, or visit StudentAccess.IllinoisState.edu. Students using this service, need to notify me and provide the appropriate credentials.
