Goals of the course:
This will be a course in children’s literature, which concentrates on texts that are read to or read by children from ages five to nine or grades one through three. We will consider various interpretations of folk tales, fables, nursery rhymes, poems, music, picture books, informational books, chapter books, series books, and and/or video created for, or presented to children, what we know about how children understand and use them, and how children’s books express and confirm certain attitudes and beliefs about childhood.

Required Texts:

Required Texts continued:
Ivan Brunetti. Comics Easy as ABC! TOON Books.

Recommended Text:
The Modern Language Association of America. The MLA Handbook: Eighth Edition. MLA. (This text is not required, but strongly recommended.)

Course Format:
The class will be reading and discussing a variety of children's texts that are intended for pre-readers and young readers up until the third grade. Students need to read the assignments prior to class and be prepared to discuss them in class. The class will involve lecture, discussion, and small group work. Throughout the semester, students will be assigned a series of short writing projects and reading quizzes related to the assignments.

Class Attendance:
Class attendance is important and is intended to be a valuable experience. If you must miss class, you should have a good reason for your absence. Since you can't be two places at the same time, avoid scheduling other activities during class time. Students are expected to participate in class discussion and a portion of the final grade will be based on class discussion. If a student misses more than three class sessions, the final grade will be lowered a third of a letter grade for each additional class missed. Students who miss a class or comes in late will not be allowed to make up an in-class writing assignment and/or a reading quiz. Do not use of cell phones, pagers, texting devices in class. Turn them off prior to class.

Exams:
There will be two exams given during the semester, one of which will be a cumulative final exam. The final exam will be scheduled, according to the Spring 2020 Final Exam Schedule when it is made available to faculty & students. The exams will include objective and short identification items as well as essay questions.

Children’s Film Paper:
Students will write a short analysis (3-page, typed, doubled spaced) on a children's film selected from a list provided by the instructor. Students will locate and read the entry for the film on Wikipedia and at least one film review of the film from either The New York Times, Los Angeles Times online, or Roger Ebert’s website (rogerebert.com). The analysis should cite at least two of those secondary sources and the film itself. The film analysis paper should conform to the format found in The MLA Handbook.
Picture Book Paper:
Each student will write a short (7-10 page, typed, double spaced) scholarly analysis of a children's picture book selected from a list of titles provided by the professor. Students will submit a proposal for their research paper, which will include a minimum of 4 secondary sources in their Works Cited section. The sources need be scholarly, academic, peer-reviewed sources. Those sources need to be annotated. Only half of the secondary sources can be electronic sources. Students need to conform to the format that is outlined in The MLA Handbook. The MLA Handbook shows the appropriate method for citing material within papers and manner to create a Works Cited page. Students are strongly encouraged to purchase a copy of The MLA Handbook, if they do not already own a copy. The handbook will be of use in this course and most other English courses you plan to take at ISU. The Work Cited section of the picture book paper must have a minimum of six secondary sources. These sources do not need to be annotated. Only half of those secondary sources can be electronic. These need to be scholarly, academic, peer-reviewed sources. Keep an extra copy of all your submitted papers for your records.

Proposal for Picture Book Paper:
In preparation for writing your critical paper on a specific picture book, students will write a short proposal for their longer research project. The proposal should be at least 2 pages in length and include a Works Cited section including at least 4 possible secondary sources. The proposal needs to conform to the format provide in The MLA Handbook. The MLA Handbook shows how to cite material and how to create a Works Cited section. The proposal should have a working title, at least 1-page description of the focus of your paper, and a Works Cited page with at least 4 annotated secondary sources.

Plagiarism/Cheating:
Please consult the Illinois State University policy in the ISU Undergraduate Catalog under "Academic Integrity" and chapter 2: “Plagiarism” in The MLA Handbook. Plagiarism and cheating are serious academic offenses and may result in failure on an exam, paper, or project and in some cases failure in the course. All written work submitted for this course must be your own and produced for this specific course.
