

LOVE GOES ROUND
(Wexler)

After all these years,
it's clear to me,
That you and I cannot be

After all these tears,
Our dream must part
And I must free my heart

But the love I gave to you,
Forever, I leave with you
I'm not afraid for I believe...

Love Goes round and around
Love Goes round and around
And when you give the life you live
Returns to you

So many faces I see
Try to hide
The lack of love inside

Too many eyes they plead
Urgently, for someone
To hold them tenderly

But if I can reach within,
Embracing all as kin
I'm not alone for I believe

Love goes round and around
Love goes round and around
Love goes round, unbound
And when you give the life you live ,
Returns to you

And every heartbeat's a circle,
Following me through you
And every heart turns the circle
Turning with you.

Love Goes Round.....
