

TIMELESSLY

(Wexler)

Timelessly, we float upon a dream, as distant stars are sighing, ever sighing

Timelessly, we sail into the sea, in want of hidden treasure, hidden treasure

As galaxies collide, they whisper to the tide
As fortunes crest and dive, we merge, we merge

Timelessly, we drift along the sands as secret lives are calling, ever calling

Timelessly, we sweep across the sky in search of love eternal, love eternal

As constellations soar, they tumble to the shore
As passions crash and storm, we merge, we merge

As galaxies collide, they whisper to the tide
