Application

- In this section we read of Jesus being the Light and the Logos (the word). John came to witness and then testify. He came to experience this Jesus and then let all others know about Him. In your own life, beyond the stories you have heard from others about God's might and faithfulness, what testimony can you personally give about this God who came to earth to give Grace and Truth?
- Think back on when you first met Jesus. What was your impression of Him from the start? When did you come to know that He would take away all your sins? Notice that not everyone who asks questions is really looking for the truth. John came to testify and therefore was content with being a voice more than a face crying in the wilderness. Are you?
- Pray for the power to testify how our Father has made Jesus very real and clearly our Savior in our lives. Pray that God would open the doors today to share that glorious truth with someone.
- Pray for a life that displays evidence of a transforming God and for the boldness to invite others to "come and see"

Is your faith filtered through temporary situations, or is it grounded in the knowledge of Him? Is it more about what He does, or is it about Who He is?
- Pray for the kind of faith that believes in the Lord regardless of circumstance!

In sharing your faith, are you hindered by cultural standards? Are you willing to preach the Good News of salvation to the homeless, the poor, the outcast, or whoever hears it least but needs it as much as any other?

68. Why would belief in this witness result in belief in Jesus?
69. Jesus asks an “if-then” question in v. 47. What is this question?

Application

- In this chapter, we see Jesus completely circumvent an ill man's understanding of how to access healing. He then calls multiple witnesses to testify that He is the Son of God. They also witness to the fact that the people's understanding of how to access God is deeply flawed. Are there areas in your life where you don't think the Lord would or could do something? Remember that we serve the limitless God Who spoke the world into existence!

85. Who was he speaking of here, and why does he call him this?

Application

- In this chapter, we once again see the people expecting a certain thing from Jesus, and He gives and explain something entirely different than what they have in mind. When talking about food, Jesus speaks of the bread of His body and the drink of His blood that results in eternal life. How stretching this must have been for the people, to the point that they call His teachings difficult (or inflexible) in v. 60! Are you open and flexible to the Lord redefining and explaining things in a way that you are not prepared for or otherwise willing to receive?
- Pray for the flexibility for the Lord to define everything for you, and live by what He commands!

58. In wondering if these officers are deceived, what 2 groups do they rhetorically state have not believed in Him? (2)
59. However, the crowd believes! Why do they say the crowd (who is ignorant of the Law) is accursed? Is this a disturbing thing for those who are responsible for teaching the Law to the people to say?
60. In v. 50, who speaks?
61. What does he ask them?
62. In reply, what do the rulers say excludes Jesus from being true?
63. Where does everybody then go?

Application

- In this chapter, we see the tension build between Jesus and the religious elite of the day. This tension is portrayed in the actions and words of the crowd. They argue about whether Jesus is the Christ or whether He is a deceiver. However, they don't speak openly about Him because they feared the religious rulers. Jesus has a way of polarizing. It is necessary to either wholly seek Him or wholly reject Him, because a middle ground isn't possible. Do you find yourself going back and forth regarding Who Christ is? Are you quiet about Him for fear of what others may say or do?
- Pray for the resolve to stand firmly on Christ and speak boldly about Him without fear of others!

Application

- In this chapter, we see Jesus speak of His mission to bring freedom and life. He is very clear, however on the means by which we can receive this life and freedom. Only through belief in Him can salvation occur. This is a radical thing for the religious elite to hear, because they feel secure in their Abrahamic lineage. Jesus does an amazing job of pulling back the veil to show the truth here. Do you have any assumptions that lead you to believe that you know God (such as being a good person, going to church, etc)? Do you fully realize that the only way to the Father is through the Son, Jesus the Christ?
- Pray for singularity in your salvation perspective, and seek the Lord Jesus with all your heart!

50. However, because they say that they see, what is the result?

Application

- In this chapter, we see a blind man encounter Jesus. The result: for the 1st time ever, the man can see. This man can no longer beg, because he's no longer infirmed. What does he do next? He falls at Jesus' feet and worships! When we give our lives to Jesus, we pass from blindness into sight, from death to life. It is no longer appropriate to carry on the lifestyle of blindness when we have been healed! Is there any area of your life that continues to look like the world? Is there anything that still smells like death, when life has been granted to you?
- Pray for a completely new occupation and perspective as you wholeheartedly seek after the Lord!

Application

- In this chapter, we see Jesus demonstrate His power over death. Notice however, that He deliberately waits 2 days and allows Lazarus to die! He could have healed him beforehand, but He allowed him to die in order to better demonstrate His glory and power. This indicated that sometimes, the Lord does not instantly remove negative situations; and when He doesn't remove these situations, it is for good reason! Do you have a difficult time praising the Lord through hard circumstances? Do you expect Him to remove you from every hardship?
- Pray for the endurance and joy to praise the Lord in difficult circumstances, and seek first after His glorification rather than your comfort!

Application

- In this chapter, we see a variety of reactions to Jesus. From outright worship via anointing to belief with fear and hesitation to total unbelief, the Person and Message of Jesus struck people in different ways. When reading this text (especially with the prophetic implications of Zechariah 9:9), what is your reaction to Jesus? Do you find this information driving you to worship? Does it bless you without sparking outward change? Do you find yourself cold to this proclamation of His Deity?
- Pray for a proper awe and worshipful attitude toward Jesus as He is revealed in your life!!

Application

- In this chapter, we see Jesus the Master taking the role of a Servant by washing the feet of His disciples. He then commands them to follow Him in this action, and further commands them to love one another. How much of your life is motivated by serving and loving others? How much of your life is dictated by selfishness and demanding your "rights?" If the God of the universe can wash the feet of His creation as a sign to us, should we not also seek to serve and love one another?
- Pray for a new heart to love and serve, and follow the Lord in what He leads you to do!

35. What will they also do, and why will they do this?

Application

- In this chapter, we see both the core importance of remaining in Christ and the expectation to be treated as the world treated Jesus.
- First, take inventory of whether or not you see the Lord bearing spiritual fruit in your life. Is there growth in your relationship with Him? Do you notice a growing excitement for His Word? Does it drive you to serve the Body of Christ and share the Gospel? These are not things to conjure up and turn into a works-based system (they supernaturally happen from the joyful overflow of our relationship with Him). Rather, they are a great indicator for the condition of our walk with the Lord.
- Second, take inventory of how the world interacts with you. Do you so shine Christ that it irritates a dying world that seeks to ignore Jesus? Or do you find friendship and fellowship with those who don't know Jesus to be a natural and easy thing? Again, this is not a call to be obnoxious! Rather, it's a great indicator of how much we look like Jesus!
- Pray for a joyful devotion that spills out into every aspect of your life and bears fruit!

 2. What will the world do?

33. Why has He spoken these things to them?

34. What will they have in the world?

35. Why should they be of good cheer?

Application

- In this chapter, we see Jesus tell us that we should expect the world to persecute us and cause sorrow in us. However, He also promises them the Helper, sorrow turned to unquenchable joy, and His victory over the world. How much of your relationship with Jesus and ministry as a Christian is spent in fear over the world's resistance to the Gospel? How much of this time is spent rejoicing in the Lord's sovereignty, imminent return, and victory? If this life is a brief moment in the scope of eternity, shouldn't we spend our time rejoicing in our Lord and Savior instead of fearing persecution?
- Pray for an eternal mindset the rejoices in the Lord's victory and comfort!

42. Why has He done this (Who/what will be in them as a result)? (2)

Application

- In this chapter, we see the Son praying to the Father, and this prayer implicates you as well (according to v. 20)!!! Starting in v. 6 through v. 26, we see that Jesus has manifested/declared the Father's Name, given the Father's Word, kept those who are His, sent those who are His into the world, sanctified Himself, and given the Father's glory. These things are done so that we may have fulfilled joy, be sanctified by the truth, be one in the Father and Son, be made perfect in one, behold the glory of Jesus, have the love of the Father in us, and have Jesus in us. And these things are to be done so that the world may know that the Father sent the Son and loved the world as He has loved the Son! In other words, Jesus did the work for us to be sanctified and walk in His example, so that the world may see Jesus and come to Him! That's amazing! With this in mind, how are you living in the love, sanctification, and joy of Jesus? How is the example of unity with the Father, Son, and body of Christ portrayed in your life? In other words, do others see Jesus in you?
- Pray for this establishment and growth in Jesus to flourish, and pray for this beautiful example to spill out of you upon others for the declaring of the Gospel of Jesus!

Application

- In this chapter, we see God in the Flesh allow Himself to be bound, arrested, and slapped by His creation. All this is permitted to fulfill the mission and message that the Father determined. This is a great description of meekness in action. As the Lord calls us in ministry, it is not always comfortable (look at Paul's life!). Are you willing to suffer wrong for the sake of the Lord? If He calls you to face persecution of any kind, are you prepared to handle it with meekness rather than vengeance?
- Pray for the meekness of Christ in ministry. It is so crucial!

We see in Hebrews 11:1 that faith is the substance of things hoped for and the evidence of things not seen. How is your faith?
