

Ryan P. Glosier

Boulder, Colorado
(314) 724-8361
ryan.glosier@colorado.edu

Work Experience

Associate

November 2013 - Present

Deming Center Venture Fund

- The Deming Center Venture Fund is a student-run venture capital investment fund that provides both capital and resource support for emerging companies in Boulder, Denver and surrounding Front Range communities
- Source and evaluate deal flow in early stage companies
- Provide financial and strategic support to DCVF portfolio companies

Team Member/Various Roles

December 2009-Present

Benzinga.com

- Was one of the first employees hired at Internet startup company focused on capital markets
- Various responsible for significant content generation, editing, marketing, and interviews with prominent investors, analysts, entrepreneurs and business executives
- Helped drive revenue increases of over 100% annually over the last two years
- Played a significant role in the brand marketing and product innovation that has secured partnerships with prominent financial media companies such as Bloomberg, Reuters, MarketWatch and Forbes
- Integral team member in transforming Benzinga from a very small startup into a well-known, financial media company with investment backing from the founders of Groupon (NASDAQ:GRPN).

Equities Trader

February 2009-October 2009

Tower Hill Trading, Chicago, IL

- Managed a substantial proprietary trading account consisting of firm capital
- Made discretionary decisions on the buying and selling of NYSE and NASDAQ listed stocks
- Worked in a high pressure and competitive capacity emphasizing discipline, risk management, and the ability to make quick and decisive decisions

Financial Advisor

July 2008-November 2008

AXA Advisors, Clayton, MO

- Developed strategic business plan pursuant to financial planning
- Obtained Missouri State Insurance License
- Obtained Series 7 License

Education

DePaul University, Chicago, IL

March 2008

Bachelor of Arts, Major: Political Science
Cumulative GPA: 3.3/4.0; Dean's List, 3 years