

ANDREW WUNDERLICH

andrew.wunderlich@colorado.edu – (865) 803-7420

SUMMARY OF QUALIFICATIONS

- Proven team builder – assembled and led 14 direct reports and coordinated flight scheduling activities during critical organizational transition period, achieving nearly unprecedented success rates
 - Excellent written and oral communicator – Air Force training developer and classroom instructor
 - Dedicated planner and organizer – operations management involving complex, strategic plans for flight training accomplishment while distributing limited resources to maximize flight training
-

EDUCATION

University of Colorado at Boulder – Leeds School of Business

Master of Business Administration

Boulder, CO

August, 2013 - Present

University of Tennessee

Bachelor of Arts in Political Science

Knoxville, TN

August, 2002 - May, 2006

EXPERIENCE

436th Training Squadron, United States Air Force (USAF)

Flight Commander

Dyess Air Force Base (AFB), TX

July, 2012 – June, 2013

- Oversaw the development of over 1,400 airmen; commanded a flight of non-commissioned officers developing and delivering curriculum through classroom instruction to personnel from across the USAF
- Consult with government contractor Tybrin to determine USAF flight scheduling software needs
- Planned and executed the allocation of $665,000 budget to maximize training benefit for Air Combat Command
- Validated claims by students who attend courses, ensuring compliance with budget constraints and travel regulations

40th Airlift Squadron (40AS), USAF

C-130H Navigator

Dyess AFB, TX

April, 2009 – July, 2012

- Flew 466 combat sorties, moving over 10,600 personnel and 700 tons of cargo throughout multiple war zones, providing direct logistical support of national security objectives
- Represented US airlift community to international trade show as handpicked emissary to inaugural Bahrain International Airshow, 2010 – Sakhir, Kingdom of Bahrain
- Volunteered for assignment to plan humanitarian relief effort for Pakistani flood victims
 - Airlifted 846 displaced persons and delivered 1,000 tons of cargo to austere regions of Pakistan
 - Dispersed portion of congressionally mandated $120 million relief package
- Collaborated with Royal New Zealand Air Force officers in joint exercise to bolster coalition effectiveness
- Planned 900 combat sorties moving 20,000 personnel and 900 tons of cargo in one month period
 - Aided presidentially mandated troop withdrawal from Iraq with 98% mission effective rate

Central Scheduler

- Trained and supervised 14 schedulers, overseeing the construction of the daily flying schedule for 124 aircrew
 - Scheduled 968 sorties, 27 evaluations, 23 upgrades, 42 off station trainers in 6 month period
 - Accomplished 99.2% of over ten thousand individual training tasks
- Wrote 40AS scheduling process guide providing continuity for replacements, enabling continued success
- Revised squadron recall procedures, marking 80% improvement in squadron readiness reporting time
- Spearheaded scheduling efforts for Air Force's first ever "Defense Support of Civil Authorities" Operational Readiness Inspection, resulting in a score of "Excellent" by the Inspector General for Air Mobility Command

Defense Travel System Officer

- Managed claims from over 160 aircrew, ensuring ethical accountability of $400,000 travel budget

Flight Training/C-130 Qualification

Student Navigator

Randolph AFB, TX/Little Rock AFB, AR

June 2006 – March 2009