

Mark Elfving

mark.elfving@colorado.edu

EDUCATION

University of Colorado at Boulder – Leeds School of Business May 2016
MBA Candidate 2016, emphasis in Finance and Real Estate

- Finance Club, Burrigge Center for Finance, GREA: Graduate Real Estate Association, NAIOP Member

Santa Clara University May 2007

Bachelor of Science in Finance

- Division I Men's Rowing

Relevant Coursework: Investments and Investment Institutions, Real Estate Finance, International Finance, Corporate Financial Policy, Financial Management, Operations Management, Organizational Management, Officers Leaders Course II (Small Unit Leadership), Officers Leaders Course III (Munitions and Maintenance Management) and U.S. Army Airborne School

HONORS AND AWARDS

- Four Army Commendation Medals; Iraq Campaign Medal with three campaign stars; Two of each: Army Achievement Medal, Overseas Service Ribbon
- One of each: Parachutist Badge; National Defense Service Medal; Global War on Terror Service Medal; Army Service Ribbon; Military Officers Association of America "MOAA" ROTC Medal; Reserve Officers Association of the United States Medal

EXPERIENCE

URS

Senior Treasury Analyst, San Francisco, California. September 2011 – May 2014

- Researched and produced quarterly S&P and Moody's rating agency financial metrics for URS and industry competitors.
- Issued $1B in Bonds in the acquisition of Canadian Oil and Gas Company Flint Energies.
- Involved in the capital markets. Managed an average of $200M of cash investments; executed quarterly stock repurchases.
- Created and maintained the U.S. cash forecast for a company with $11B a year in revenue within a 10% variance.
- Saved the company $45K annually by switching merchant card providers.
- Helped the company through the government shutdown and recession when cash was tight.
- Promoted to Senior Treasury Analyst on January 1, 2014.
- Managed the daily domestic and Canadian cash management positions, focusing on investing interests with respect to liquidity.
- Prepared the required Treasury schedules for the accounting close, GAAP financials, and SEC filings.
- Implemented a treasury workstation saving thousands of dollars annually in reduced bank fees.

US Army, 1st Cavalry Division

Plans and Operations Officer, Mosul, Iraq. August 2010 – July 2011

- Planned, coordinated, and tracked over 180 Combat and Sustainment Patrols with 100+ vehicles supporting 3,700 Soldiers.
- Oversaw daily operations of four units comprised of over 400 Transportation, Maintenance and Medical specialists.
- Planned, trained, and assisted joint task force operations for the Iraqi Security Forces.
- Supervised Force Protection and sustainment enablers at our entry control points on a U.S. operating base.
- Managed the operational readiness, routine maintenance, and services of over 500 pieces of motorized and non-motorized vehicles and 1,000 pieces of major maintenance equipment end items.
- Directed the exchange recoverable program, Army Oil Analysis Program, and the Quality Assurance/ Quality Control program.
- Provided mission planning and expertise for the recovery Quick Reaction Force with equipment valued at over $250,000.

Executive Officer, Fort Hood, TX

August 2009 – August 2010

- Provided logistical coordination for six divisions within an organization of over 800 personnel.
- Managed the activities of the supply, personnel, training, and weapons rooms.
- Single point of contact for the coordination of all classes of supplies for the battalion in garrison and located overseas.
- Managed the accountability and distribution of over $120 million worth of equipment.
- Promoted to Captain on August 1, 2010.

Platoon Leader, Ft. Hood, TX and Nasiriyah, Iraq.

July 2007 – August 2009

- Forward Support Company manager and supervisor during deployed operations to Southern Iraq. Lead, managed, planned, and directed ammunition supply, storage, transportation, maintenance, surveillance, inspection, stock control, safety, security.
- Supervised the health, morale, training, discipline, and safety of 21 Specialists, 11 supervisors, and attached medical personnel.
- Developed Soldiers professionally and provided for their continued career progression.
- Promoted to 1st Lieutenant on January 15, 2009.
- Lead over 125 combat patrols.
- Managed the accountability of 6 major combat vehicles and the organizations equipment valued in excess of $7 million.
- Supervised the weapons room, overseas voting, environmental programs, and the annual Combined Federal Charity Campaign.
- Received special recognition for outstanding results in recruiting for increasing ROTC attendance, adding 10 students in the span of 2.5 months, by far the largest increase by a Gold Bar Recruiter in years.