

ANDREW FEINSTEIN

Managing Partner, EXDO Event Center and EXDO Management

A fifth-generation Denverite, Andrew has over 20 years experience in entertainment, communications, event production, hospitality and real estate management. Andrew's ancestors arrived in Denver's historic Curtis Park neighborhood in the 1860s and he has continued the family tradition by running and developing businesses in the Curtis Park and Five Points neighborhoods.

Currently, Andrew is a managing partner in the EXDO Event Center, Tracks nightclub and Jake's Sports & Spirits sports bar / restaurant, as well as the EXDO Management property group which oversees nearly two million square feet of commercial property in the Denver metropolitan area.

Prior to returning to Denver in 2009 to join the EXDO family, Andrew spent 10 years in Los Angeles as an animation, television and new media producer and nationally syndicated cartoonist developing content for global entertainment companies including Fox Sports, Warner Bros. and Nickelodeon. Andrew is a graduate of Emory University in Atlanta where he received a Bachelor's in Business Administration.

Andrew now resides in the River North (RiNo) Art District where the EXDO Event Center is located and he participates as co-chairman of the RiNo Art District board as well as on the board of the RiNo Business Improvement District, the Anti-Defamation League Rocky Mountain Region and Engage Denver, a local non-profit that serves the RiNo / Five Points / Curtis Park communities and surrounding areas.

An avid traveler, Andrew participated with Denver Sister Cities International on a diplomatic mission to Nairobi, Kenya in 2014 and Takayama, Japan in 2015 and has twice joined the NBA for their Basketball Without Borders camp in Johannesburg, South Africa in 2011 and 2015.

Andrew is also a die-hard Denver Nuggets fan and is the founder and proprietor of DenverStiffs.com, the most read blog devoted to the Nuggets and their fan base worldwide.
