

Third Sunday of Easter

John 21:1-19

“Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you.”

After his Resurrection Jesus reveals Himself for a third time to seven of His disciples who have been fishing all night on the Sea of Tiberias [Galilee]. He ask them, “Children, have you caught anything to eat?” In many ways their faith was like that of a child. The scene is a reminder of His first call to them to become fishers of men. Jesus prepares and shares with them a breakfast of the fish they caught. Three times Jesus ask Simon Peter, “Do you love me?” Peter, who had denied Jesus three times, now proclaims his love for Jesus three times, then adds, “Lord you know everything; you know that I love you.” Peter reveals that his faith in Jesus has matured. When we encounter Jesus in the people and events in our life He is asking us, “Do you love me?” How do we respond? Is our faith in Jesus like that of a child. Or is it constantly maturing such that we have no doubt that He is God and that He knows what is in our heart? Is our faith in Jesus as strong as Simon Peter? How do we demonstrate our faith in Jesus?

Just a gentle reminder: When we come to Church to pray before Mass, it is easier to do if there is a atmosphere of quiet. If you feel the need to talk to your neighbor, please go outside and do so. Be sure to turn you cell phones off before coming into Church. Please respect others while in Church.
After the recessional hymn please avoid standing & talking in the church in respect of the blessed sacrament.
Please pick your bulletin up after mass to avoid being tempted to read and distracting others during prayer.
