I Feel the Winds of God Today

I feel the winds of God today; today my sail I lift,
Though heavy, oft with drenching spray, and torn with many a rift
If hope but light the water's crest, and Christ my bark will use,
I'll seek the seas at His behest, and brave another cruise.

It is the wind of God that dries my vain regretful tears,
Until with braver thoughts shall rise the purer, brighter years;
If cast on shores of selfish ease or pleasure I should be;
Lord, let me feel Thy freshening breeze, and I'll put back to sea.

If ever I forget Thy love and how that love was shown,
Lift high the blood red flag above; it bears Thy Name alone
Great Pilot of my onward way, Thou wilt not let me drift;
I feel the winds of God today, today my sail I lift.

NEWS FROM THE PEWS

... we received an email from Pam Iype. *Here's some exciting news -- My little granddaughter, Navika Moh Jones arrived safely on Tuesday, the 13th of October at 11.35 PM, weighing 6 lbs and 14 oz. Nalini and Brian are ecstatic with their beautiful baby girl, a gift from God just after Thanksgiving. Both mother and baby are doing well. (Navika means new and pure and Moh means love). Please keep Brian, Nalini and little Navika in your prayers. Pam ... our very best wishes to Christian Turnbull who incredibly is celebrating her 80th birthday this coming week. We say incredibly, because she is such a source of energy. We wish her a happy day and continued grace, humour and health ... it is wonderful to see that Roy Carson has now been home a week and gaining strength every day. We pray for his continual improvement ... a graveside committal service was held this past Friday for Paul Elio Demerson, at Ocean View Cemetery. Paul is the 50 year old son of John and Jean, who died this past spring in Surrey, BC. This is a shocking loss for his family and we offer them our heartfelt sympathies and prayers ... a word of thanks to Jane & Ann Smith who faithfully attend to our church gardens. They have put the gardens to bed for the winter ... it is wonderful to welcome the monthly Memory Cafe, sponsored by the Alzheimer Society, to our hall this afternoon, from 2 - 4 p.m. This is a positive, caring and informative event to offer support to families living with dementia ... to help Rev. Wandlyn and myself connect with each other's parishes, we are going to be exchanging services next Sunday. Wandlyn will be with us at St. Paul's and I will be taking the services at Christ Church (Parish) in Fredericton. I know Wandlyn is looking forward to the opportunity to meet with her Rothesay church family. I am trusting her to behave herself ... *that's the news, from the pews. ALS.

PARISH NOTES AND EVENTS

The Rev. Ann Fairweather

It is with great sadness that we announce the death of Ann's father, Keith Moorehouse, of Fredericton. Ann was in Campbellton, preparing for her first Sunday services, when she received a call from her sister in Fredericton that her father had been found in his apartment. Ann & Scott left immediately for Fredericton. Keith was taken to the hospital, but succumbed to his condition within a couple of days. Keith had proudly attended the ordination of Ann just a few weeks earlier. An active churchman himself, he served his parish in many capacities throughout his life, and was beloved by his fellow parishioners. His funeral was held from the Cathedral on Wednesday of this past week. Some folk have asked for Ann's new address. 6 Aberdeen St. Campbellton, NB E2N 2J4. May the souls of the righteous, through the mercy of God, rest in peace, and rise in glory.

St. John's School Sigowet

The school in Kenya is growing and it is meeting an important need in the community. Registration in the Secondary School is now over 200 students, equally spread over the four grades. St. Paul's has been an important link in developing both the infrastructure of dining halls, dormitories and classrooms, and in providing financial assistance to needy and deserving students. We are preparing for our 7th Annual Sounds for Sigowet Benefit Concert on Sun, Nov 15.

How can you help?

- Remember the school, both staff and students, in your prayers
- Plan to attend the wonderful concert on Nov 15 and bring a friend. Tickets are $20 and are available from the Parish Office. A wonderful dessert party is offered following the concert.
- The concert also has a silent auction. Would you have a gift that could be contributed to the auction?
- Consider sponsoring a student for a year. Boarding students are $400 with day student fees at $275.

Thank you for making a difference in the lives of these young people, and we trust through them, blessing their community.
