Choir School

The 59th annual Choir School of the Anglican Diocese of Fredericton will be held at Rothsay Netherwood School from July 3rd to 10th. The junior choristers and staff will offer Choral Evensong at St. Paul's Church in Rothsay on Thursday July 7th at 7 pm. They, along with the weekend adult choristers -- total nearly 100 singers, will sing the closing Evensong at Trinity Church in Saint John on Sunday July 10th at 3:30 pm. Watch for announcements during the coming year as we plan for our 60th anniversary.

A Thought on Forgiveness

I believe that forgiveness is mainly doing something about aggression and retaliation. It's a matter of getting your aggression diverted from someone, or the thought of that person, so that in time your love can flow through and take its place. That piece of work is bound to take time. It may even take the rest of one's life. It may never be completed in this life. It's a help to realize that forgiveness is a job of that magnitude.

NEWS FROM THE PEWS

... next Sunday we are welcoming the Rev. Marian Lucas-Jeffries to our parish to speak about PWRDF and the Canadian Food Grains Bank. Rev. Marian has been a leader in this area for quite some time, travelling to many parts of the world. You may recall a project some years ago with Dale Cook doing a series of paintings in support of PWRDF. One of the painting entitled Never Alone is in our parish library. Rev. Marian is now retired from full-time ministry but continues her connection with development work through the church ... our best wishes go with Charles Willett as well as Marilyn Duplacey who leave this week for a choir tour in Newfoundland, to mark the 100th anniversary of the horrific battle of Beaumont-Hamel in WW1, when the Newfoundland Regiment suffered enormous casualties. We wish the choir a wonderful tour in Newfoundland ... speaking of the choir, they will be on a break from their regular duties during the summer. We are certainly blessed by their faithfulness, week by week, to our worship. We shall miss them, but they certainly deserve a break ... it is wonderful to have John Buckley with us this morning to play the cello. What a gift this is to us! Thank you John so very much ... best wishes go to Tom & Lauren Jarrett who have moved into their new home in Chapel Hill ... today is an important day in the life of our Diocese as there is a large ordination at Christ Church Cathedral in Fredericton at 4 p.m.. Among those to be ordained Priest is our own Rev. Ann Fairweather. Ann and Scott have enjoyed a great year in the Parish of Campbellton, and they will continue in this ministry. They are expecting a large crowd, so you if you are planning to attend, you might want to travel early. If you have not done so, there is a group card on the lobby table, which everyone is asked to sign. Our son Patrick is home for the weekend to support his friend Dan McMullen (son of Rev. Chris McMullen, Rector of the Church of the Good Shepherd) who is being made a Deacon ...we welcome UNBSJ summer youth camp to our parish hall this coming week. They have booked the hall for four weeks this summer, offering programs in art and creative expression. Ann Dykeman is the leader of this camp ... we appreciate the initiative of Peter Clark. Last summer he scraped, sanded and painted the metal railings leading to the church, as well as the St. Paul's sign. This summer he has straightened the twisted metal railing leading into the parish hall, as well as painting and sanding the railing and the light post on the walkway. Thank you Peter for keeping our facilities fresh and welcoming ... Bert Fraser delivered the personal care items collected by the Mission Beyond the Parish Committee for Hestia House. They were gratefully received. Thank you to everyone for contributing ...that's the news, from our pews.
