

NOTES FROM THE OFFICE

The church has been a busy place this week. KidSing children dancing in the upstairs hall and UNB Design Workshop students creating art in the downstairs hall. At one point, art students came upstairs to draw dancing students. So much energy!...As always, the quilters were in on Wednesday, neither rain nor sleet nor in this case heat of day keeps them from quilting one day a week in the summer. Thank you ladies for providing coffee and sweets at 11:00 on Wednesday. The office and anyone else who drops by certainly appreciate it...Charles Willett is back this week and with his return came the sound of the piano. Listening to Charles practice for the Sunday service is always a highlight in my day...Louise Steele leaves for a week's holiday in Nova Scotia today. We will miss her cheerful presence around the place and look forward to her return on Aug 22. We wish her sunny skies and a good rest. ...Speaking of holidays, the Snelgroves report that they are having a very pleasant vacation at their cottage. Lots of swimming, reading and family visiting. Sounds perfect!
