Prescribed Burning for Fun and Profit

Brian J. Buenzow
Rock River Valley Pheasants Forever
Rock River Valley Chapter
Pheasants Forever
Controlled Burn
Prairie Grass and Wildlife Habitat Improvement Project

More information: call
M. Johnson
J. Jacoby
Crew size and Qualifications

- Two members must have basic firefighter certification for Pheasants Forever
- Many hands make light work
- Instructions must be clear and followed
- Always follow plan and go-no go checklist
- Annual refresher
- Daily assignments
Simple is good
The Burn Boss

- Runs Crew
- Fields calls
- Writes plans, communicates with landowners
- Sets up and schedules crew
- Notifies local authorities the day of burn
- Works with NRCS, FSA, DNR, others to meet all requirements needed
Equipment

- Pick up with water
- ATV or ORV with water
- Radios
- Brooms
- Backpack sprayers
- Nurse tank/ extra water
- Drip torches - at least 2
Where does work come from?

- FSA
- Habitat cooperators
- County Conservationist
- DNR
- Neighbors
- The Street!
Billing

- By the acre
- By the job
- Extras- fire breaks, plan, permits
- One person should do the bids
- One person should do bills
TNC work crew

- Minimum required: basic firefighter
- Annual refresher
- Pack test or run
Prairie Enthusiasts

- Current-experience only
- Will have formal policy by 2014
- Will require some nonNWCG training
- Will not have physical requirements
Hints

- Start small
- Consult PF burn manual
- Know what the customer expects
- Get your first plan approved before doing more
- Volunteer on another crew to gain experience
- Be SAFE and have fun