"Behold, I make all things new."
Rev. 21:5

Beloved friends:

Here we find ourselves right smack in the middle of the Easter season. Christ is Risen! The Lord is risen indeed! Alleluia!

Easter is a season of newness, of rebirth, and we are all invited to open our hearts and our eyes to see how God calls us into resurrection life. When we are filled with new hearts and new spirits, things change. The Easter season reminds us that by virtue of our baptisms, we have all died and then risen again with Christ, and our lives as Christians are never the same as life without Christ. It means, often, giving something up in order to gain this incredible new things:

New life means a real dying, a real letting go of something old in order for something new to come into being. It might look like parents who learn that a son or daughter is gay and let go of, empty themselves, of the hopes and dreams they had for their child [and I'd add to that, let go of their prejudices and stereotypes about gay people - SE] and allow a new relationship and new hopes to be born. It looks like a nation who does not simply bemoan the presence of violence in the world but invests in those things that make for peace—for whom military solutions are not an automatic response to conflict. It might look like a family that puts off a long anticipated vacation because they have committed to getting out of debt and living within their means. The Rev. Sara Potter, "Tidings," Vol. XI, Issue 5

New Things

Consider what new thing you are being invited to this Easter season. Keep your eyes peeled for a new survey of lay ministries at All Saints' – probably some ministries you've never even heard of! – and start thinking about how you might want to do something that will nourish your deepest self. In particular, we need many more people involved in children's and youth ministries – Sunday School teachers, and, even more immediately, someone to coordinate our acolytes. Keep reading your scripture for the Bible Reading Every Day program (or start now; there's no time like the present). Continue in fellowship with the apostles and the breaking of bread, while considering how you might seek and serve Christ and also seek justice and dignity for all. It's a new season. You are new creatures through Christ our Lord. The Lord is indeed risen. Alleluia!

Milestones

Births, accomplishments, graduations, the passing of loved ones, special joys or memories, etc.: please let us know what's going on with you and your loved ones.

★ Jan Windbiel got his driver's permit on Saturday, March 24!

★ Emily Spottiswood recently competed in the Montgomery County Special Olympics swim competition where she won two gold medals (25 yd free and 50 yd free) and one silver (25 yd back). She was all smiles as she stepped onto the platform, raising her hands in victory, to receive each of her medals. Emily worked hard for the last seven months preparing for the competition. With her two gold medals, she qualifies for the state competition (although we are waiting to hear how many spaces are available for those who qualified from Montgomery County).

★ Bev and Dick Kratz were recently selected by the Executive Committee of Montco Senior Adult Activities Center to be honored at their upcoming "Young at Heart Spring Fling" fundraiser, May 4, at The Empress Room in Blue Bell. Bev and Dick have served and volunteered for more than 16 years for Norristown Meals on Wheels. Congratulations!

★ Bev and Dick Kratz are great-grandparents for the third time! Their great-grandson, Luke Samuel Alderfer, arrived in their lives on Thursday, April 12.

★ Tommy Durante enlisted in the Air Force in March; he'll start basic training on September 4.

★ In April, All Saints' members have generously donated 92 pairs of white cotton socks so far, which will be given to The Clinic (Phoenixville) to aid their patients.

For your milestones: E-mail allsaints535@yahoo.com with "Milestones" in the subject line, or drop a handwritten note in the parish office mail box by the main entrance.

The Junior and Senior Youth Groups thank you for bidding at our bake auction. As always, the delicious baked goods went for steep prices and helped us to raise $644 toward our Youth Retreat in May.

Second Time Around Shop End of Season News

As we begin the month of May and the five Wednesdays we will be open this month, we must also look to our last day of operation before summer vacation – May 30. We have chosen this as our last day before vacation to give our staff a much needed rest and to accommodate activities planned for the summer. That means BAG SALE the last two Wednesdays of the month to clear out ALL merchandise at a discounted price and get the shop ready for a total clean up and restocking over the summer. Some notes as we wrap up this season of the Second Time Around Shop....

First – Praise and Thanks

A call went out that we needed more plastic grocery bags. Wow – what a response! We now have lots of plastic bags–thanks! We also want to thank all of you for the continued clothing and merchandise donations throughout the year. These donations result in the monetary contribution we are able to give to the church twice a year. The blessings that the area community residents receive by purchasing quality items at such a low price – well, see for yourself: many smiling faces and expressions of gratitude each time we are open.

Second – Specific Needs:

Brown paper bags – needed for the end of May ‘bag sale.’ We know these are harder to come by – but any bags you could donate would be greatly appreciated.

Rolling carts or stands – To avoid ‘aching backs’ and strains, we would greatly appreciate the donation of any cart or stand with wheels that we can use to display merchandise and move in and out of the shop each week. Waist height is especially appreciated.

More merchandise – in good condition – our donations have dropped over this past year and, of course, this affects how much we sell and the overall profit. As you clean out those closets, have a yard sale, or just decide to downsize, please keep us in mind. As always, we appreciate good, clean merchandise without stains, tears, missing buttons, chips, etc. The Second Time Around Shop tries to keep the reputation of quality merchandise at a low, low price. We will accept donations throughout the summer – just leave your donations outside the shop door. Once again, thank you.

One more ‘plug’ for the thrift shop: we are now a staff of eight, including Nancy Ritter, Clara Mae Panczak, Kathryn Gallagher, Marge Kinsey, Donna Penman, Jean Dean, Betsy Gottshall and Marcia Carneavale.

Many Wednesdays – we are missing up to three, or even four, of our staff, due to vacations, illness, appointments, etc. This can leave quite a gap in staffing. Please consider joining our group of volunteers – men or women – and help whenever you can. We offer smiling faces, expressions of gratitude, and hard work - which result in feelings of usefulness – awesome benefits. Just show up on a Wednesday or contact any current staff member, and welcome!

Acolytes to be Honored

On Children and Youth Sunday, May 20, gold crosses will be given to senior acolytes who are graduating: Tommy Durante, Kelsey Griffin, and Andre Jones. A Jerusalem cross will be given to Austin Taylor for four years of service and a silver cross will be presented to Emma Griffin for one year of service. On behalf of the All Saints' parish, we extend our sincerest thanks and appreciation to these young people and to all our acolytes for their dedication and commitment.

BRED: What do you see?

As the Bible Reading Every Day (BRED) project progresses, it has been interesting to hear feedback about what the participants are experiencing. One member was pleased to discover that many of the Bible stories were familiar. Another was disturbed by the violence in some of the cultural practices. A third commented that sometimes the stories end abruptly, and it would be nice to find out what happened to the people afterward. A fourth member mentioned reading the Bible through several times already, and each time finding something new. That happened to me in reading the story of Hagar and her son Ishmael. After Abraham and Sarah kicked them out, Hagar wandered in the desert with little Ishmael until their water skin was empty. They cried to God, who responded with one of his favorite answers, "Do not be afraid." Then he got down to practical matters. "God opened her eyes and she saw a well of water. She went, and filled the skin with water, and gave the boy a drink." (Genesis 21:19)

I had never noticed that verse before. Was Hagar sitting next to a well the whole time? Why didn't she see it sooner? How did God open her eyes? From a more personal perspective, do I do this? Am I feeling stumped by a problem and meanwhile sitting next to a solution that I don't see? It's entirely possible. The other night I spent 15 minutes looking for my water bottle. I finally gave up and went to bed. The next morning I saw that the bottle was right where I had left it.

So, I asked God to open my eyes, because I would be happy to see any wells that he would care to show me. How about you? What are you seeing in your Bible reading? Comments, questions, positive or negative reactions are all welcome. It would be great to hear from you.

Missions & Outreach -- ECHO at work!

Although the Interfaith food bank hasn't reopened yet, the needs in our neighborhood and world haven't taken a vacation, and neither has ECHO (Episcopal Church Helping Others). During the month of April, we collected white socks for men and women. By newsletter press deadline we collected 92 pairs of socks, and these were delivered to The Clinic in Phoenixville. They are critically needed for our homeless brothers and sisters, especially those who are diabetic and need clean, dry socks in order to stay healthy.

For the month of May, we will collect items needed for The Norristown Ministries Hospitality Center, an advocacy, support and care organization for the homeless and housed poor in our community (there's lots of information about them on their webpage, www.hospitalitycenter.org). Items needed are: small paper plates, plastic forks & spoons, coffee, sugar, non-dairy creamer, apple juice and napkins. Please collect these items during the month of May and place them in the wicker basket in the back of the church, to be presented at the offertory.

Thank you for your help; if you're interested in being more involved with missions/outreach/ECHO, I'd welcome your interest and involvement.

Hands

A basketball in my hands is worth about $19. A basketball in Michael Jordan's hands is worth about $33 million. It depends whose hands it's in.

A baseball in my hands is worth about $6. A baseball in Roger Clemens' hands is worth $475 million. It depends on whose hands it's in.

A tennis racket is useless in my hands. A tennis racket in Andre Agassi's hands is worth millions. It depends whose hands it's in.

A rod in my hands will keep away an angry dog. A rod in Moses' hands will part the mighty sea. It depends whose hands it's in.

A slingshot in my hands is a kid's toy. A slingshot in David's hand is a mighty weapon. It depends whose hands it's in.

Two fish and five loaves of bread in my hands is a couple of fish sandwiches. Two fish and five loaves of bread in Jesus' hands will feed thousands. It depends whose hands they're in.

Nails in my hands might produce a birdhouse. Nails in Jesus Christ's hands will produce salvation for the entire world. It depends whose hands they're in.

So put your concerns, your worries, your fears, your hopes, your dreams, your families and your relationships in God's hands because...it depends whose hands it's in.
