Out with the Old, In With the New!

My dear friends:

The New Year . . . what does it mean for you? I'm fascinated with the whole idea of a "New Year," because it's just a human concept, albeit one we have successfully invested with great significance and hope. Often, we feel that just this time we might finally take a little of that extra weight off, learn something new, or pay off debts; Christians often resolve to be nicer, more patient or less judgmental, to read their Bibles more often, to pray on a more regular basis, or to serve others more regularly.

The New Year is a good time to review the past year and set realistic goals for the year to come. I encourage us all to do that yearly in our personal lives, or we might never get around to it!

At All Saints', 2012 was a busy year with several changes . . . but the ultimate goal is for changes to be intentionally grounded in the familiar patterns of our common worship life together, which also spill over into very enjoyable and even profound fellowship and connection with one another.

So let's take a whirlwind tour of "ASC: 2012"! January: Contemporary worship moved back to the Activity Room and we started a new "3rd Sundays schedule." February: We jumped into the Bible Reading Every Day program (B.R.E.D.), and also began baking lots and lots of bread in our Lenten gatherings; March: An ASC team joined with a team from St. Augustine of Hippo for the Transforming Congregations program; April: Confirmation! Eight confirmands and 1 reception; May: Children and youth Sunday was a hit, as usual; June: Four of our youth graduated from high school (Tommy Durante, Kelsey Griffin, Andre Jones and Jan Windbiel), and we commenced summer picnics with St. Augustine of Hippo; July: Bread of Life Café opened its doors for the first community dinner; August: Fairly quiet for everybody except the organizers of next month's Pie Festival!; September: Labor Day "Picnic" in the Rectory for the second year in a row (bad weather led to great fun!), Cape May Retreat, the first annual Pie Festival with St. Augustine of Hippo and other West-End and Episcopal churches; October: West End Computer Lab went full steam, as well as the Bread of Life Café, Sunday School, and all the other fall activities; November: Our gratitude for all our blessings was demonstrated by feeding hungry members of our community at Bread of Life Café as well as a Thanksgiving dinner, and as the youth collected food for the local food pantry; December: Advent commenced, and the Christmas pageant on December 23 was a perfect start to our Christmas celebrations.

What will 2013 bring? We kick off the year with an Epiphany sermon series (see p. 8). We welcome new organist and choirmaster, Jeff Shuman, and his wife later this month. We say a fond "goodbye and Godspeed" to our supply organist, Ken Delmar, who carried us through a busy Christmas season. We continue to praise God through prayer and song, giving of our "time, talent and treasure," and through our openness to God's guidance for the future of ASC. And . . . I hope for more pie 2013!

Much love and many New Year blessings to all of you! The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord make his face to shine upon you and be gracious unto you, the Lord lift up his countenance upon you and give you peace, this year and always. Mother Sandra+

Bread of Life Café

By Jay Petel

Thanksgiving was a wonderful success! There were 43 volunteers who pitched in to cook, prepare and serve 79 dinners. I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to everyone for helping us make Thanksgiving a special day for our guests. All in all, we had 81 volunteers and served 182 dinners during

BRED: Always the Answer

By Mary Beth Mucher

Here's some Episcopalian trivia for you. What are the last words in a typical Sunday worship service? I sat in on confirmation class last spring and learned that the priest has four choices of words for the "dismissal." Then the people respond, and as Mother Sandra put it, "No matter what the priest says, the answer is always, 'Thanks be to God'."

How far do you think we should take that idea? This past summer, our Sunday readings included the letter to the Ephesians, which says to give God thanks "at all times and for everything." (Eph 5:20) Looking back at 2012, there were times I felt especially thankful, like during birthday celebrations and when the lights came back on after Hurricane Sandy.

Other times were more of a stretch. The night I woke up with an infected molar, I don't recall that my first thought was, "Thanks." Although, I can say that during the root canal I was genuinely thankful for Novocain® and the entire dental profession.

Looking forward, who knows what 2013 will bring. Regardless, Ephesians doesn't leave much wiggle room. That "at all times and for everything" stuff really bothered me. "Everything" is a mighty broad category.

Maybe there is a clue in John 11. Jesus finds out that his friend Lazarus is sick and then that he is dead. Jesus simply says that the whole thing will work out to bring God glory. Is that an extreme case of "the glass is half full" or what? When Jesus gets to the burial site, he thanks God for hearing him, and then raises Lazarus.

I find it interesting that the thanking came before the raising. Could it be that God would have an easier time working out my problems if I would be more thankful? I have a lot to be thankful for. God helping me to find a good dentist is just one example. Speaking of which, I suspect that thanking people goes along with thanking God, especially since Ephesians 4:29 tells us to say things that build each other up.

So maybe the point is not so much that feeling thankful is a logical response to every situation. Maybe it's that expressing thanks somehow aligns us with God's restoring power. The world can certainly use more of that. So, I'm heading into 2013 with Ephesians 5:20 in mind. No matter what happens, the answer is always, "Thanks be to God."

Breakfast Committee

Cindy and Nick Durante, Committee Chairs

On Sunday, December 2, 2012, St. Nicholas visited the youngest members of All Saints'. He heard the Christmas wishes of 20 children who were then presented with an Advent calendar, a candy cane and a small stuffed animal. THANK YOU, St. Nicholas, for taking time out of your very busy schedule. Our children [and adults too!] enjoyed your visit. In addition to St. Nicholas' visit, the Breakfast Committee served a hot, hearty breakfast to 77 members age 5 and over. 6 children under the age of 5 also enjoyed the breakfast.

After much discussion, the Breakfast Committee has decided that we need to increase the cost of our All-You-Can-Eat meal to $5.00 for members age 13 and over. The cost will remain at $3.00 for members age 5 to 12 and free for those under the age of 5. The committee has seen a larger than expected increase in the cost of food items, even with our careful shopping at Costco, BJ's, and Walmart and using manufacturers' coupons when possible. This price increase will be in effect when we prepare our next scheduled breakfast on Sunday, February 3, 2013. Please remember all funds are used to purchase food items for the next breakfast and are not a fund raiser for the parish.

February 3 is also Annual Parish Meeting Sunday and we hope to see everyone at breakfast and the meeting.

Advent Recap

By Liz Parker and Susan Dean

The Parish Advent Dinner was attended by 50 parishioners and their family and friends. Lisa Windbiel's lasagna recipe was a big hit, along with all the salads, vegetables and yummy desserts that everyone brought to share. After dinner 31 people jumped on the bus for Christmas caroling at the homes of some of our older home-bound parishioners, which was very fun and rewarding.

A special thank you to Dennis Clemson and Anthony Nero for accompanying us on guitar! Thanks also to organizers Liz Parker, Lisa Windbiel, and Laurie Sawyer, and to the many others who pitched in at the last minute to set up and clean up. Once again, a huge thank-you to Susan Dean, who organized the Christmas caroling bus as we visited parishioner around Montgomery County. We had a super time, and can't wait until next year—hope to see you then! Have a happy and healthy New Year!

RE: Toy donations from All Saints' Episcopal Church

Good afternoon: On behalf of the students at Gotwals Elementary School, thank you for the donations of toys from All Saints' Episcopal Church. In times of limited resources, contributions such as yours make an incredible difference in what is available to our students.

Thanks again and have a great holiday!

Changes in Sunday School Schedule

For Kids:

Many parents gathered on December 2 after the parish breakfast to brainstorm how to structure Sunday School in the spring. Because our families are so busy on weekends, mostly with sports, Sunday School every week hasn't been feasible this year. We came up with a creative idea that we hope works better for families:

First and Third Sundays: Sunday School begins at 9:45 a.m. and continues until 10:30 or so. On the first Sunday, this means kids will come in to the worship service in time for communion. On the third Sunday, the contemporary service begins at 10:30, so classes will be finishing up just as church starts.

Sunday School Changes

Parents felt that coming 15 minutes earlier would work for families, since there would no longer be Sunday School after church and families can get home earlier.

Second and Fourth

Sundays: No Sunday School classes for children, unless there's a special inter-generational program offered.

For Youth:

Youth forums will be held the third Sunday of each month from 9:45 to 10:30 or so. Just as with Sunday School for kids, there haven't been regular meetings due to busy Sunday schedules; we decided that a monthly forum in addition to other activities would provide continuity and a chance for the youth to be together and continue to build relationships.

For Adults:

We will be offering Bible studies every Sunday (or almost every Sunday). We will use the Kaleidoscope method that we used over the summer at our picnics with St. Augustine of Hippo; it's a short process that always seems to produce really interesting new insights. We may also use other Bible study formats, depending on who is leading the study.

On the second Sunday of every month, the Bible study will be the "Eclipsing Empire" program Dennis Clemson has been leading, which includes DVD presentations and discussions. You're welcome to join, even if you've missed other sessions.

We will offer some other adult forum programs in the spring, but if there's an interest, we can continue with the Bible study as an alternative offering.

If you have children who need care and wish to attend any of the forums or Bible studies, please let me know as soon as possible so that I can make arrangements for child care.

For both adults, youth and kids, see the monthly calendar, which we'll keep updated so you know what is being offered each Sunday.

Just for Laughs:

A quick find on the internet for a winter chuckle...

Winters are fierce in Minnesota, so the owner of a construction project felt he was doing a good deed when he bought earmuffs for his foreman. Noticing, however, that the foreman wasn't wearing the earmuffs even on the bitterest day, the project manager asked, "Didn't you like the muffs?"

The foreman said, "They're a thing of beauty."

"Why don't you wear them?" The project manager said.

The foreman explained, "I was wearing them the first day, and somebody offered to buy me lunch, but I didn't hear him! Never again, never again!"

HAVE A BLESSED NEW YEAR!

“Beware of Garbage Trucks”

By David J. Pollay, quoted in ralphmiltonsrumors.com

Sixteen years ago I learned this lesson. I learned it in the back of a New York City taxi cab. Here's what happened. I hopped in a taxi, and we took off for Grand Central Station. We were driving in the right lane when, all of a sudden, a black car jumped out of a parking space right in front of us. My taxi driver slammed on his breaks, skidded, and missed the other car's back end by just inches!

The driver of the other car, the guy who almost caused a big accident, whipped his head around and started yelling bad words at us.

My taxi driver just smiled and waved at the guy. And I mean, he was friendly. So I said, "Why did you just do that? This guy almost ruined your car and sent us to the hospital!" And this is when my taxi driver told me what I now call "The Law of the Garbage Truck."

Many people are like garbage trucks. They run around full of garbage: full of frustration, full of anger, and full of disappointment. As their garbage piles up, they need a place to dump it. And if you let them, they'll dump it on you. When someone wants to dump on you, don't take it personally. Just smile, wave, wish them well, and move on.

You'll be happy you did.

Prescription Discount Cards

Jules Hernadi did an interesting and extremely informative program to help people make a decision on which Medicare program to enroll in, and he described the various "Medi-Gap" programs. He also wanted to provide the following information about free prescription discount cards.

The prescription discount card is provided through a company called Health Trans, a very large pharmacy benefit managing company. The same company has been selected by Mayor Bloomberg of New York to provide discount cards to approximately 1 million residents of the city who have no prescription insurance. People who have to pay out of their own pockets for their meds are the ones most likely to benefit, since the card cannot be used in addition to a health insurance card.

The card does not expire, can be used over and over, and can be shared with other people because there is no paperwork. Card users do not even have to be citizens.

Most pharmacies will honor the card without hesitation. People can get discounts from 15% to 85% on their prescription meds.

Occasionally, a pharmacy may not honor the card due to ignorance about how it works. The best solution is to find a different pharmacist. The card is accepted by all the major chains: CVS, Walgreens, Rite Aid, Acme, Giant, Target, Kmart, Walmart, etc. Since not all pharmacies charge the same amount for the same drug, there's a website and a phone number on each card in order to get pricing and to find the drug store most likely to give the best price.

The main point is that the card works, it helps people, and there's no need to sign up for anything or to complete any paperwork or application. Unfortunately, the majority of the cards (95%) are never used by people because they don't realize how easy it is and how much money they can save.

If you're someone who doesn't fill prescriptions because you can't afford them, or know someone in that position, these cards are a life-saving blessing. Cards are available in the vestibule; for more information ask the rector or parish administrator and we can put you in touch with Jules, or go to: www.caprpxprogram.org/nmg

QUESTIONING FAITH: Preaching Series to Kick Off 2013 Addressing the Tough Questions

If you'd like to renew and reinvigorate your spiritual life in 2013, join us on Sundays for a lively and thought-provoking sermon series: "Questioning Faith: Asking the Tough Questions." We will address such questions as:

- Do good Christians have doubts?
- Am I "saved" – and what does that mean, anyway?
- Is God a God of peace or a God of vengeance?
- Is there really a place called hell that sinners go to for eternity?
- Does the Bible conflict with modern scientific theory?
- If somebody has never felt God's presence does that mean they're not really a Christian?
- Is Christianity the only correct religion?
- What if I'm wrong?

Faith can be confusing in this modern and religion-averse age; join us as we ask whether there's something we must believe or do to "qualify" as Christians, and as we seek a simple and practical faith that can help us live our increasingly complicated lives. Come and bring your own questions! For more info, contact The Rev. Sandra Etemad, mothersandra@ymail.com.
