The Spiritual Practice of Hospitality

An article by Frederic and Mary Ann Brussat of spiritualityandpractice.com

The Basic Practice

We are practicing hospitality when we welcome guests — including strangers and enemies — into our lives with graciousness. An open house reveals certain things about us: we are well-disposed toward others, we focus on the positive, and we believe the universe is basically a friendly place. Sometimes hospitality requires that we cross boundaries and dismantle some of the barriers erected in our society to keep "the other" out. Sometimes it means entertaining ideas that might be alien to us.

To be hospitable, you need to accept pluralism as a natural condition in the world. Celebrate the diversity of the Creation. One particularly valuable spin-off of hospitality is inter-religious dialogue. Spirit speaks in many languages, and this spiritual practice helps us receive these multiple messages.

Why This Practice May Be For You

Hospitality and hostility are both derived from the same word root — but they couldn't be more different. Whereas hospitality is about welcoming all, hostility thrives on insider/outsider conflicts. Practice the former to increase your tolerance of the various groups in our society and their distinctive lifestyles. On an interpersonal level, hospitality is a good prescription to balance a tendency to be critical of and unaccommodating to others. People who are distrustful of the world, who become fearful and paranoid when strangers approach, or who are suspicious of ideas unlike their own will also benefit from this practice.

Daily Cue, Reminder, Vow, Blessing

* The sight of a welcome mat is a cue for me to extend hospitality to someone today.

* When I see a hostess at a party looking after the needs of her guests, I am reminded of the graciousness of hospitality.

* Whenever I pass a house of worship, I vow to practice hospitality toward different spiritual paths.

Part of welcoming all who simply notice us, or, better yet, who cross our threshold, entails a commitment to beautiful, clean, and well-maintained buildings and property. We at All Saints are fortunate, but not the kind of "fortunate" that happens by accident: compared to many churches our size, our facilities (including the rectory) are remarkably well-maintained and attractive. Thanks to many people, too many to mention by name, who have participated at work nights and grounds and gardens days, simply offered a hand by doing something that needs to be done; those who have offered areas of expertise, or have shown up at all hours of the night and day for emergencies (especially Joe Gelet and Nick Durante), and those who have spent countless hours maintaining and beautifying our grounds. Those who haven't participated probably have no real idea of the level of devotion and hard work it has taken to keep things ship-shape. See the articles on pages 4, 5, and 6 about various work days we've had and are upcoming.

Please plan your visits accordingly.

Hosts Needed

Shine your kindness this summer by sharing your time and a light snack for hosting a summer outdoor reception after worship one Sunday in July or August. Drink mix, napkins, cups, and water will be supplied for you. All we need are folks to supply the friendly and welcoming hospitality. A few have stepped up already—how about you? If you'd like to host but need snacks provided, that's no problem; see Mother Sandra.

Sign up on the easel in the vestibule or contact the parish office if you can take one of the remaining Sundays; July 10, 17, 24, and 31; and August 14, and 28.

Preparing for the Fall season for Children, Family, and Youth Events

If you are 18 years or older and plan to volunteer in direct contact with children and youth on a regular basis (Example: Sunday school teacher/assistant, youth group advisor/helper, and nursery attendant) clearances are now required due to Pennsylvania's Act 153. Contact Donna in the office so she can share the appropriate websites and paperwork with you to begin the process of getting your child-abuse and criminal background checks. Clearances are valid for 2-3 years. If you have already had clearances done previously for All Saints, we'll contact you if they have expired and will need to be renewed. If we fail to comply with the Act, we could be fined up to $2,500. Religious organizations are no longer exempt and are required to follow the new regulations.

The Diocese also encourages our volunteers and church leaders to complete online Safe Church training. If you do not have access to a computer, you are welcome to use the computers in the church's computer lab. Contact Mother Sandra for the link and contact Donna in the office to make arrangements for access to the computer lab.

Let's work together and make All Saints a place well-known to be steadfast, caring and SAFE.

There are many more projects that cannot be done by volunteers. These include the following, which shows how much those projects will cost (if we've gotten estimates):

- Professionally clean out drains, already completed by TLC Drain & Sewer: $810
- Parking lot resurfacing and painting lines: $3,800;
- Repairing basement windows of rectory, as well as woodwork ($$ unknown; must be completed before the next item)
- Prepping and painting the rectory (outside): $13,000
- Prepping and painting the church (outside): $25,000
- Repairing/replacing woodwork and plexiglass covers for windows of church ($$ unknown)
- Prepping, fixing walls, and painting the Second Time Around Shop ($$ unknown)
- Power washing the stone of the church and rectory ($$ unknown)
- Repainting and refurbishing the narthex (vestibule) ($$ unknown)
- Getting carpets professionally cleaned (after painting is completed) ($$ unknown)

There are more projects that can and need to be done eventually, but all these things are necessary in the immediate or near future in order to keep our facilities in good repair (rather than waiting for a disaster, which is always more expensive). These projects also keep everything looking nicely maintained—a crucial way to tell visitors and potential visitors that we are alive, well, and even thriving.

We are fortunate to have some funds in savings, but probably not enough to complete all the projects needed. Our only other choices are (1) increased gifts by members, or some other ways of raising funds; or (2) getting into our endowment money, which provides regular income to All Saints and should only be used as a very last, last resort.

If you are interested in sponsoring any of these projects, in full or in part, it would be a remarkable blessing to the church. For all the rest of us, please consider how God has blessed you, how you've also been blessed by your membership at All Saints, and then keep those pledges rolling in during the summer.

Also, if you are in a position to do so, consider making a special gift or increase to your pledge for a specific project or to be used for any/all of them. You can speak to Joe Gelet, Chair of the Building Committee, any of the committee members (besides Joe, members are Ginger Banmiller, Nick Durante, and John Errington), or Mother Sandra.

And keep an eye out for a continually improved building that we can use to carry on with ministry at All Saints.

Grounds and Gardens Day: Caring for God's Creation

I don't need to tell you that our Garden & Grounds Day on June 18 was an amazing success – you can look around the property and see for yourselves. A crew of gardeners, helpers, and even lemonade-sellers gathered – Andrew Ely, Andrew's good friend, Harry, Ginger and Rich Banmiller, Jack and Emily Spottiswood, Jackie Koffke, Sherry Smith, Clare Ely and Iris Shipley-Thornburg came, and most of those people worked for over eight hours straight – digging, planting, trimming, planning – and drinking lots of water while eating donuts (in the morning) and pizza (in the afternoon). Clare Ely and Iris Shipley-Thornburg (Mother Sandra's granddaughter, who was visiting) set up a lemonade stand and helped water some plants.

This industrious garden crew created an entirely new garden next to the new cherry tree on the front lawn, beautified the Memorial Garden, and did a whole lot of new planting along the fence that runs to the garage.

Office/Upper Level Clean Up Work Day – July 6

Bring yourself and a friend! We are going to sort, package, organize, spot clean, recycle, and lots more. Light refreshments and lunch will be provided. We'll have the A/C on in the office and computer lab to make the work area pleasant and comfortable. Please sign up on the easel in the main lobby, so we know how much food to prepare and to help line up the appropriate number of special projects.

Proposed Work Day TO DO list:

Card sorting. Paper shredding. Clean out and organize Sunday school, youth room & computer lab closets. Sort and box up keyboards, monitors, etc. for backup and recycling. Carry items to dumpster. Box up outdated office materials. Carry items to attic. Store away archival items. Wipe down counter tops. Replenish prayer cards and pew pencils, etc.... Questions? Contact Donna Longobardi at 610-279-3990

10 a.m.-1:30 p.m.

Share an hour, two, or three, or more...

Sponsorship opportunities are available for weekly altar flowers.

The Sundays of July 31 and October 30 still need a sponsor. If you are interested in sponsoring flowers please contact Altar Guild Flower Coordinator, Mary Jane Daley, at 610-272-7419. Cost is $50 for the two vases of flowers which adorn the altar in the main sanctuary. Interested in baptismal font flower sponsorships? We have many dates open. Honor and memorialize a special loved one in this beautiful and meaningful way.

Summer Book Group: Exploring the Psalms!

N.T. Wright's The Case for the Psalms will be the focus of our next book group, on July 31 after church. Wright is an Anglican Biblical scholar but this book is more devotional and written for a general audience; it's also a short and quick read.

Local Biblical scholar Peter Enns says: "In The Case for the Psalms, Tom Wright invites readers to enter the biblical world of praise and prayer and be transformed by it. With characteristic clarity, vividness, and depth, Wright's book will not only encourage you to read the Psalms, but to live them." Others have raved about this book since its publication.

The book and discussion should provide a chance to think more deeply about the Psalms, but also to feel them more profoundly and to build our faith through them.

If you'd like to participate, sign up on the vestibule bulletin board, and also indicate if you need a copy (which I can obtain in two days). The date for the August group will be determined at our July 31 session.

End of Season Celebration

The Second Time Around Shop has had a very successful 2015-2016 season. We served many West End buyers as well as others that have been shopping with us for a number of years.

We were very pleased to be able to present a check to the church at our Annual Meeting and on Sunday, June 12, we were happy to present an additional check for a grand total of $11,000 for the year.

All of this would not be possible without donations from our church family as well as many others that have heard about us via word of mouth and Facebook.

Over the summer we will be cleaning the shop, doing sorting of donations and restocking. We hope that you will remember us when you are cleaning out closets, drawers, etc., and also tell others about us. We always appreciate contributions of new or gently-used clothing, jewelry, small household goods and appliances. We also hope for your continued support by shopping with us.

All the work would not be accomplished without a dedicated staff consisting of Marcia Carneavale, Linda Cox, Francie Dean, Jean Dean, Susan Errington, Betsy Gottshall, Shirley Jording, Clara Mae Panczak, Donna Penman, and Nancy Ritter.

In September, we will be back with new items, revived energy, and high hopes for helping not only our local shoppers but All Saints Church.

Respectfully submitted by Donna Penman for the Shop Staff

What Do We Do on a Work Night?

Our list of repairs is long and varied. We give ourselves two hours to accomplish what we reasonably can. With half a dozen people helping we have completed the following:

1. Tear up carpeting and padding, scrape disintegrated padding from the floor, take the scraps to the dumpster, sweep the floor, and general cleanup of the area.
2. Remove tackless stripping, repair lighting fixtures, hold the ladders for the electrician going to high places, get ladders out to repair exit signs, replace door stops, clean up the area and remove trash.
3. Repair light fixtures, replace door stops, repair door closers, cut ceiling tiles, replace ceiling tiles, clean the clear light covers, remove the trash and clean up the area.

This is just an example of three work nights and what we have accomplished. Some tasks require specific skills while others are very important housekeeping matters. The future holds sanding, painting, removing wall items, replacing ceiling tiles and cleaning the light fixture holders. Along with that will come plenty of cleanup.

We would love to know you better as we work together to maintain our beautiful church.

Our next Work Nights are scheduled on July 12 and August 9 at 6:30 p.m.

Cape May Retreat – September 6-8, 2016

Road trip to the beach: fun, faith, fellowship.

Sign up on the vestibule bulletin board for the Cape May Retreat at the GFS Holiday House. The cost is $140/person, which includes breakfast. Lunches and dinners are on the individuals or groups, who can go out to a restaurant or order take-out. Additional funds will be needed for any personal spending. Please bring checks made out to Holiday House on the day we depart. If you have any questions, contact Phil Gottshall at (610) 489-6124.

Homecoming Picnic

Sunday, September 11 after church

*We're having a barbecue – hot dogs, burgers, vegetarian options
Bring something to share if you can.
Come one, come all!*

Many, many thanks to the Banmillers and Elys, who donated lots of plants (all the yellow flowers along the fence came from the Banmillers, and there are also azaleas, ferns, and other plants thanks to Andrew and Nina Ely and the Banmillers), and a HUGE thanks to Harry, a master gardener and landscaper, who acted as a knowledgeable consultant and worked tirelessly all day long. Afterwards, Joe Raudenbush came in and mowed all the lawns to perfection, and the following Saturday Andrew and Harry spent another whole day mulching everything.

This is hospitality at its best – creating a beautiful first glimpse at our grounds for the visitors, and an oasis for the rest of us. Walk along our Peace Path to the Memorial Garden or stroll around the property for the best example of how we can cultivate God's green earth and show our love for the planet, for God, and for one another.

Prayer for our Country BCP pp. 820

Almighty God, who hast given us this good land for our heritage: We humbly beseech thee that we may always prove ourselves a people mindful of thy favor and glad to do thy will. Bless our land with honorable industry, sound learning, and pure manners.

Save us from violence, discord, and confusion; from pride and arrogance, and from every evil way. Defend our liberties, and fashion into one united people the multitudes brought hither out of many kindreds and tongues. Endue with the spirit of wisdom those to whom in thy Name we entrust the authority of government, that there may be justice and peace at home, and that, through obedience to thy law, we may show forth thy praise among the nations of the earth. In the time of prosperity, fill our hearts with thankfulness, and in the day of trouble, suffer not our trust in thee to fail; all which we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. AMEN.
