Rector's Reflections

In my September 2011 Rector's Reflections, I wrote: "As September rolls around, I realize that I've never felt so grateful to have cold toes!"

Cold toes? Sounds impossible – as I write, the hot weather has let up just a tiny bit, but cold toes seem far, far away.

Chilly days or not, autumn is upon us – we unpack our bags, put away our summer clothes, and return to our regular routine. This year was a little different, though: we had a lot going on all summer! On page 8 you can read about work projects done – maintenance, improvements, repairs. I'm sure you've noticed the resurfaced parking lot if you've been here, with sparkling new lines, but that's just the tip of the iceberg:

- Gardens and grounds were lovingly tended on hot, hot days;
- Church Administrator Extraordinaire, Donna, organized a work day up in the office and computer lab (see page 3);
- the Second Time Around Shop got much-needed repainting and carpet cleaning just in time for the shop crew to reshelve and organize for reopening in the fall. (And there's a Second Time Around "open house" during the Homecoming Picnic.)

Consider the practice of sabbath-keeping: As fall settles in and we return to our regular schedules, it's good to remember that the spiritual discipline of sabbath keeping is God's gift to humanity – not an extra legalistic burden. At its core, Sabbath was provided by God from the very first as a way of pausing, taking a breath, resting, relaxing, spending time with loved ones, as well as religious observance – worship, prayer, even walking in nature while thanking God for the gifts of creation.

Our 24/7 culture doesn't encourage or even support Sabbath practice, and it isn't always possible to declare one particular day as a day of rest – but my hope and prayer for all of us is that we find regular time to pause, reconnect with God, spend time with the ones we love, and refresh ourselves so that we can return to our busy lives with energy, gratitude, and even a sense of God's presence throughout the rest of the week.

See you in church!

Preparing for the Fall season for Children, Family, and Youth Events

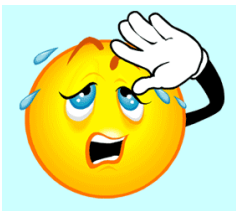

If you are 18 years or older and plan to volunteer in direct contact with children and youth on a regular basis (Example: Sunday school teacher/assistant, youth group advisor/helper, and nursery attendant) clearances are now required due to Pennsylvania's Act 153. Contact Donna in the office so she can share the appropriate websites and paperwork with you to begin the process of getting your child-abuse and criminal background checks. Clearances are valid for 2-3 years. If you have already had clearances done previously for All Saints, we'll contact you if they have expired and will need to be renewed. If we fail to comply with the Act, we could be fined up to $2,500. Religious organizations are no longer exempt and are required to follow the new regulations.

The Diocese also encourages our volunteers and church leaders to complete online Safe Church training. If you do not have access to a computer, you are welcome to use the computers in the church's computer lab. Contact Mother Sandra for the link and contact Donna in the office to make arrangements for access to the computer lab.

Let's work together and make All Saints a place well-known to be steadfast, caring and SAFE.

Office/Upper Level Clean Up Work Day: Hot but Productive

Much applause and gratitude to our mini but mighty cleanup crew: Francie Dean, Donna and Bob Penman, Phil Gottshall, and Donna Longobardi, who gathered on July 6 to tackle the office/upper level of the Parish House.

The closets were organized and made tidy. Staples in East Norriton accepted our six shopping carts full of outdated/non-working computer/office equipment and will recycle the items. Other items were donated to the Second Time Around Shop for the fall shopping season; coloring books donated to Calvary Learning Center; and a few paperback books given to Grace summer campers. The computer lab's software continues to be sorted through. We hope to seek organizations who will accept the old software. If you know a local organization or one who deals with less affluent countries who may be able to use educational and Windows 95/98/XP software, contact Donna Longobardi at 610-279-3990. Perhaps all the items on our TO-DO list didn't get all accomplished, but the hard working team accomplished a lot in the 3-1/2 hour day. We were very thankful for the A/C to keep us cool during our day full of FUN and cleaning!

If you would like to help our Parish Administrator an hour or so sometime this fall (morning or afternoon), she has an ongoing TO-DO list of small tasks to complete. Here are some of our future projects: Package cards; paper shredding; wipe down computer lab counter tops; replenish prayer cards and pew pencils, etc. ... Light work and only a small amount of time required. Give Donna a call to make arrangements to come in or drop by during her office hours. Most tasks can be completed with little instruction and may be done independently or with a friend.

Sponsorship opportunities are available for weekly altar flowers.

The Sunday of October 30 is in need of a sponsor. If you are interested in sponsoring flowers please contact Altar Guild Flower Coordinator Mary Jane Daley, at 610-272-7419. Cost is $50 for the two vases of flowers which adorn the altar in the main sanctuary. Interested in baptismal font flower sponsorships? We have many dates open. Honor and memorialize a special loved one in this beautiful and meaningful way.

The Annual Diocesan Convention

begins Friday evening, November 4, at 6:30 p.m. and continues on Saturday, November 5, 2016, beginning at 7:30 a.m. at the Philadelphia Episcopal Cathedral. Friday's program begins with a 6:30 Eucharist with our new Bishop followed by a reception. On Saturday, registration begins at 7:30 a.m., with music and Morning Prayer beginning at 8:15 a.m. Delegates representing All Saints Cy Burke, Sarah Callow, and Donna Penman will accompany clergy to the convention. This year's theme will focus on "Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect" (Romans 12:2).

The Diocese invites all members of the Diocese to attend any of the upcoming pre-convention meetings, and encourages Convention representatives to participate in the gatherings to share in-depth presentations on the proposed 2017 program budget and proposed resolutions to be voted on at the convention in November.

Meetings will be held at the following locations:

September 13 – St. Paul's, Exton (7-9 p.m.)

September 28 – Memorial Church of St. Luke, Bustleton (7-9 p.m.)

September 29 – Gloria Dei, Philadelphia (7-9 p.m.)

October 5 – Church of the Redeemer, Springfield (7-9 p.m.)

October 9 – Church of the Holy Nativity, Wrightstown (4-6 p.m.)

Welcoming Email

Our Parish Administrator came across this email during her daily routine and wanted to share this uplifting note.

Subject: Last Sunday's visit [July 10]

Message: I wish to express to Mother Sandra and the parishioners of All Saints, the warmth and kindness that I felt when visiting your Parish. As announced I am a Deacon in Formation and it was wonderful to hear someone acknowledge the work that Deacons are trying to do in this Deanery. I told the folks at our Deanery meeting how I felt such a loving door presence at your church. People introduced themselves, said hello and did not try to overwhelm you. I believe door presence is the first and lasting impression someone new gets to see and feel when they walk into a church for the first time. I like the words Door Presence, it implies so many various things, just as Christ opens doors for all of us. He does it with love, humility and kindness. He does it with very few words, but his presence speaks volumes. So did the warmth that you shared this past Sunday. Thanks to all of you for your kindness and for letting me be a part of your Church Community for a morning.

In Christ,
Louis K. Steffenhagen, Deacon in Formation

Legacy, Remembrance, Glory

A clip from The Episcopal Church, Office of Public Affairs July 11, 2016 Media Release

The Rt. Rev. Edmond Lee Browning (pictured left), the 24th Presiding Bishop of The Episcopal Church, died on July 11, 2016. He was 87 years old and was living in Oregon.

Bishop Browning served as Presiding Bishop of The Episcopal Church 1986-1997. Bishop Browning's election as Presiding Bishop in 1986 was seen as a reflection of the Church's broadening diversity due to his extensive international and multi-cultural experience.

Bishop Browning hoped to encourage a growing awareness of diversity in the Church. He was well-known for his quote, "no outcasts in the church."

"The Episcopal Church is faithfully seeking to truly become 'a house of prayer for all people,' as Jesus said quoting the Hebrew prophets, and that is greatly the case because Presiding Bishop Browning taught us that the church must be a place where there are no outcasts," commented the Most Rev. Michael B. Curry, the 27th Presiding Bishop. "That enduring legacy is still helping to set many a captive free. It is evidence that God is not finished with us yet, for every once in awhile spiritual giants still walk among us as living reminders. And one of those reminders was Edmund Lee Browning, 24th Presiding Bishop and Primate of the Episcopal Church. Well done, good and faithful servant. May you rest in peace and rise in glory."

Acolytes: Walking and Serving for God, Christ, and the Church

Have you ever walked and carried things in your everyday activities? Simple, right? God has already prepared most of you for a special activity for His church and the All Saints community. Youth (3rd grade and up) and adults are welcome to share their gifts of walking and carrying things for the acolyte ministry at All Saints. We invite you to participate in our next training session, Sunday, September 25 at 9 a.m. Some of our participants like helping the priests, others are exploring ways to serve and grow in their faith, some like doing things with their friends, and some have found that it is a particularly profound way to participate in worship. Serving as an acolyte requires a small time commitment, light lifting, walking in line and up a few steps. As always, we are thankful for the help of those who do now and will in the future participate and serve in this meaningful ministry.

Please contact, Father West, Acolyte Coordinator, at church or by emailing him at pagaga@aol.com, if you are interested in becoming an acolyte. Feel free to speak to Fr. West or one of our existing acolytes before or after worship to receive more insight on acolyte service. We look forward to seeing you on the 25th.

New Chapter and Season

For everything there is a season, and a time for every matter under heaven. Eccl. 3:1

In July we received news Carol and Brian Harrity will be stepping down from leading and advising the Senior Youth Group at All Saints. As their daughters, Brianna and Carley, are both now attending college, Mom and Dad Harrity have come to a new season in their lives. As Alexander Graham Bell quotes, “When one door closes, another opens; but we often look so long and so regretfully upon the closed door that we do not see the one which has opened for us.” We pray that Carol, Brian, and the family have no regrets, but look forward to what is to come.

Many thanks to Carol and Brian for their years of service in leading, advising, teaching, overseeing, and having fun with our high-school-aged youth. With the Harrity's leadership, support, commitment, assistance, and faithfulness to the Senior Youth Group ministry they helped our youth build relationships, learn to be compassionate and caring to our neighbors-in-need and the All Saints church family, and to show and share their faith and love for God in their own, unique ways.

Please be sure to take a moment and thank Carol and Brian when you see them, and wish them well in their next chapter and season of life.

Coffee Service to resume September 18

We are happy to welcome back our coffee service team members: Joanne and Bob Heisler, Karen and Jack Spottiswood, and Steve Dello Buono. Joanne, Bob, Karen, Jack, and Steve look forward to serving you and comforting your tummies and taste buds with their special brews and treats! We are still seeking two additional teams to be able to have hospitality available each Sunday. We currently have three Sundays covered. We have the fourth and fifth Sunday of the month open and available for new teams. Contact Donna in the church office, if you would like to be added to the rotation. To learn more about participating in the after-church hospitality ministry, stop by after worship and speak with our coffee service team members. They'll be happy to share their experience and the details on making coffee and setting things up for the church community and our guests.

July and August Work Nights

Submitted by Ginger Banmiller for the Property/Facility Committee

Summertime is a busy time of the year and we all have plenty to do at our own homes. The work around the Church doesn't go away when we're busy, it often just doesn't get done. We're very fortunate to have a core group of volunteers who give their time as they can.

We were even blessed with a volunteer, Travis, who has attended just one Sunday service and came out to help (I hope he still likes us!). The work we had to do that night was to replace windows in the basement of the Rectory with Plexiglas and to unstick all the windows so we could remove the storm windows prior to painting. A little explanation may help you to understand that we thought for sure that the windows were stuck for at least 50 years and that the storm windows hadn't been moved in at least that many years. Most of the windows required four hands just to budge them. We even thought maybe a gallon of petroleum jelly might help or some WD40. All this on a 90-degree night. You know the old saying that the family that plays together stays together.....well how about changing it to the church family that sweats and laughs together stays together!

This summer we tackled the following projects:

- Replaced ceiling tiles and light covers.
- Repaired light switches in two bathrooms.
- Evaluated how to shore up the fence.
- Measured basement windows and replaced broken windows with Plexiglas. Completed half, still have the other half to go.
- Installed two new Sunday-only handicapped signs and one permanent one.
- Unstuck windows in Rectory and removed the storm windows on first floor. Still have to work on the 2nd floor windows.

Coming up is shoring up the fence, sanding walls in the lobby, and painting bookcases and maybe a wall in Mother Sandra's office.

Won't you join us?
We have fun! (and pizza . . . .)

Rector's Note: Thanks to Ginger & Rich Banmiller, Majid Etemad, Joe Gelet, Phil Gottshall, Travis Wiggins, Joanne & Bob Heisler, and Bob Penman, all of whom worked many hours at the work nights!

EPISCOPAL 101 with Mother Sandra: Bishop Daniel Gutierrez will be making a visitation on Sunday, October 30, and will be available for confirmation or reception. Confirmation is for baptized Christians who wish to make “a mature public affirmation of their faith and commitment to the responsibilities of their Baptism” – for youth or adults 12 years or older. Reception is for anyone who has “received the laying-on of hands at Confirmation by a Bishop in apostolic succession” (which includes Roman Catholic, Eastern Orthodox, Anglican churches worldwide, and Evangelical Lutheran Church of America, among others). We'll learn what it means to live out our Baptismal vows, as well as some background about the Episcopal Church such as why and how we worship, and a look at the Bible and the Book of Common Prayer. Episcopal 101 is preparation for confirmation, reception, or just as a “refresher course” for anyone interested. Please sign up in the vestibule if you are interested. Classes will be held after church from mid-September until October 30.

Prayer for Today (For more prayers, visit forwardmovement.org)

O God: Give me strength to live another day;
 Let me not turn coward before its difficulties or prove recreant to its duties;
 Let me not lose faith in other people;
 Keep me sweet and sound of heart, in spite of ingratitude, treachery, or meanness;
 Preserve me from minding little stings or giving them;
 Help me to keep my heart clean, and to live so honestly and fearlessly that no outward failure can dishearten me or take away the joy of conscious integrity;
 Open wide the eyes of my soul that I may see good in all things;
 Grant me this day some new vision of thy truth;
 Inspire me with the spirit of joy and gladness;
 and make me the cup of strength to suffering souls;
 in the name of the strong Deliverer, our only Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. Amen.
