

Stumpy Strikes Gold

Popular past president, Steven Ireland won last Saturday's 18 hole par event, sponsored by the golf club's life members. In warm, pleasant conditions for golf, his winning score of plus four was two shots clear of runner up and playing partner, Ian Annandale who played well, finishing with a plus two score.

Finishing a further stroke behind was a quartet of players, each returning a plus one score. These players were John Michalak, Kim Derbyshire, Bill Rybarczyk and Brett Smith.

Finishing all square and completing the vouchers were John Wray, Warren Hann, Richard Chadwick, Graham Williams, Dave Blurton and Bruce Jackson.

In the ladies par event, a similar scenario to the men's event was evident as Nancy Lynn won the trophy with her winning score of plus four. Michelle Tate, Shelley Barker-May and Rhonda Annandale each received a voucher for their one down score.

Novelty winners on the day were:

Nearest to pins – Fred Bronickis (4), Michelle Tate (4), Warren Hann (7), Vicki Graham (12) and Wayne Waywood (14).

Longest first putts – William Hammond (6), Steven Ireland (9) and Jan Van Vollenstee (18).

Long drive on No.15 – Kevin Ireland

Visitors from Sea View and Guilderton played in the competition, as well as the usual regulars from Narrogin.

Scroungers

Dave Farr scored 20 Stableford points to win last Thursday's nine hole scroungers competition. He won by one shot from Eric Annandale and Keith Godfrey, both on 19 points. Annandale took out the runner up position on a spin from Godfrey. A further shot back, each on 18 points were Terry Reeves, Tony Barker-May and Ray Cooper. Danny Cheng and Peter Ellery each received a voucher for their return of 17 points.

The best visitor score came from Corey Slater with the great result of 23 points.

Novelties were won by Terry Reeves (4), Darren O'Brien (6) and Corey Slater (9) while Danny Cheng had the day's best gross score with 38 off the stick.

Leisure Day

Narrogin's Tom Hardie was the winner of last Tuesday's Leisure Day competition. His winning score of 41 Stableford points was three shots clear of his nearest rivals, Kevin Ireland and Graham Williams, each on 38 points with Ireland claiming the runner up position on a countback.

Brett Smith was in fourth position with his score of 36 points, followed, on 35 points by Frank Battista (best vet), Paul Goodwin and Alan Kent. Danny Cheng, with 34 points rounded out the vouchers.

Novelties went to Phil Warburton (4), Dean Rakich (7), Gary Old (9), Jim Lee (14) and Danny Cheng (18).

Notes

Congratulations to Kim Metcalfe for his win in the South West Veterans competition at Margaret River on 11 February.

This Saturday's event will feature an 18 hole Stableford competition, sponsored by the Auswop Group. The regular Leisure Day and Scroungers events will be held on Tuesday and Thursday, with the Ladies completion on Wednesday.

Riverside Open nominations are now available at the club or on the club's website.
