

My Newsday

Traffic alerts 4

Register

Log in

September 13, 2011

Search exploreLI

All

TODAY

69°

Hi 81° Lo 65° Clear

Stop and smell the LI flowers at the Dahlia show.

Restaurants

Bars & clubs

Entertainment

Recreation

Getaways

Kids

Shopping

Events

Beaches

Explore Long Island Guides Back to School Weekend guide LOL X-Team

Like

Explore LI

yFavorites | Add Comment | Email | Print

0

Like

2

Sept. 4 weekly planner: 10 top LI events

Published: August 30, 2011 6:44 PM

1. YOKO ONO EXHIBIT OPENS

WHERE|WHEN Noon-4 p.m. Tuesday, University Art Gallery at Staller Center, Stony Brook University. Continues through Oct. 15.

INFO 631-632-7240, sb.cc.stonybrook.edu

ADMISSION Free

Peace and love -- that's the focus of a traveling art exhibition featuring works by Yoko Ono and John Lennon that will make its New York debut at Stony Brook's Staller Center.

Exhibits include photographs of the Imagine Peace Tower in Reykjavik, Iceland, an oversize all-white chess set ("Play It By Trust") designed by Ono and lithographs from Lennon's Bag One Portfolio, a series of drawings that depict the couple's wedding and honeymoon.

Visitors are invited to write a message for peace on tags that will be hung on a wish tree outside the gallery.

The first of two multimedia lectures tied to the exhibition will be held Tuesday at 1 p.m.

2. "BILL CUNNINGHAM NEW YORK"

New York Times fashion and society photographer Bill Cunningham, known for his impromptu street shots, is the focus of a new film that gives a look into his subjects from uptown personalities like Anna Wintour, Tom Wolfe, Brooke Astor and David Rockefeller to downtown dwellers. See it at a special screening Wednesday.

WHERE|WHEN 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, Cinema Arts Centre, 423 Park Ave., Huntington

ExploreLI featured guides

This weekend on Long Island

Mini-golf courses on Long Island

Best places for family dining

Find us on Facebook

Like us

Your Friends