The JERSEY JOURNAL
WEDNESDAY October 29, 2008
YOUR LOCAL NEWSPAPER SINCE 1867
JERSEY CITY - NORTH HUDSON EDITION 50¢ nj www.nj.com/hudsoncountynow

SEE LIFE

Peek at Yoko art

Campaign gets silly

Together!

PAGE 2

Life Celebs

Rebecca Markley
Life Editor
(201) 217-2465
rmarkley@njjournal.com

ONO personalizes an Imagine Peace poster with her signature. Her exhibit can be viewed through Dec. 8 at NJCU's Lemmerman Gallery, 2039 Kennedy Blvd.

YOKO IMAGINES
LIFE IN JERSEY CITY

Star's exhibit opens at NJCU

YOKO ONO GAZES at a drawing of the well-known photograph of her and and John Lennon lounging in the peace bed. It is part of her traveling gallery.

STANDING UNDERNEATH one of Ono's prints at the NJCU exhibit, a fan awaits Ono's arrival Sunday.

THIS BAG ONE piece in Sunday's exhibit bears the signature of Beatle John Lennon, Yoko Ono's late husband.

BIL WITTROP PHOTO

ONO chats with Lillian Hernandez, center, and Khatmeh Osseiran-Hanna, vice president for University Advancement at NJCU.

MORE ONLINE
■ Click through our online photo gallery.
nj.com/hudsoncountynow

MIDORI YOSHIMOTO, an assistant professor of art history at NJCU, talks onlookers Sunday about Yoko Ono's traveling art exhibition.

CONNIER ART PHOTOS

PEERING OVER her shades, Ono leans in to listen while a fan explains how much she appreciates Ono's artistic work.

EAGER FANS are excited to present their postcards and photos for Ono to autograph.

ONO was feted like a rock star upon arriving at NJCU Sunday for the opening of her traveling art exhibit.