FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Orpheum Premiere

“Dan Barnett and big band tribute the crooners in Orpheum debut”
Event date Sunday November 15th The Cremorne Orpheum Theatre 1pm

SYDNEY, Australia— Wednesday, October 28, 2009,— In an Orpheum premiere world renown Singer/Trombonist Dan Barnett and his fabulous big band are doing a special one off “Tribute to the Crooners” concert on Sunday November 15th at 1pm at the gorgeous Cremorne Orpheum Theatre.

Dan and his Allstar 14 piece lineup will be channeling all the greats including Frank Sinatra, Tony Bennett, Mel Torme, Chet Baker, Bing Crosby and Ray Charles with backing akin to Duke Ellington, Count Basie and Tommy Dorsey’s orchestras.

With a voice that has been compared to Sinatra and Harry Connick jr Barnett’s credentials are second to none having toured the USA, Thailand, Europe, New Zealand, Taiwan and more recently to Brazil as guests of “Banco do Brazil” Dan and the band received rave reviews.

As an added feature The Orpheum theatre will be screening the fabulous 1957 movie “Pal Joey” featuring Frank Sinatra, Rita Hayworth and Kim Novak all within the back drop of the beautiful Orpheum Theatre.

Please join us for a very special afternoon of classic swing with The Dan Barnett big band “Tribute to the Crooners”

“One of the most satisfying sounds in Australian music” Kevin Jones , The Australian
