

Week #34
May 6-10, 2019
Room 6's Weekly News

- We will be SBAC testing this three days this week. On Tuesday we will take the Performance Task in ELA and on Wednesday and Thursday we will be testing in Math. A good night's rest, healthy breakfast, and peaceful morning are helpful during testing. The students are showing amazing effort during testing.
- We will not have spelling this week because we are testing. Spelling will return next week with our weekly list and Spelling City assignment.
- The Who's Who Game is coming to Room 6, but in order to play and be on display we need a baby picture of each Gater! This is a small project we will be working on for Open House. All pictures will be returned. Please do not send a picture larger than the baggie size sent home (sandwich size).
- "California, Through the Eyes of a Disciplinarian" Projects are in full swing! We will write in our planner what we worked on for projects each day. If students don't finish during class time, they must spend time working on that for homework. It is so important to not fall behind, each day's work is dependent on the day before. If students are having trouble locating resources on their topic and disciplinarian, they may want to change their disciplinarian. Some of the topics from a psychologist's perspective are quite challenging to find research for note taking.
- A small amount of graded work will come home on Thursday. Our focus has been on testing and projects for the last few weeks.
- As we near the end of the year, pencils and erasers are running low. Instead of asking for donations for the class, I am asking students to make sure they have
