

Beauties on the Rise

Get your iPhones ready, 'cause it's all about face time with these gorgeous scene-stealers. —KIMBERLY NATASHA

Denise Vasi

Brooklyn's own fly girl mesmerizes folks weekly with her clear skin, blue-green eyes and charismatic personality on Single Ladies. Clearly, more than a few men adore the former model's Dominican and Greek mash-up, but too bad for them, her longtime boyfriend, Anthony Mandler, recently proposed in Greece.

Ariane Davis

Since the premiere of Love & Hip Hop Atlanta viewers were introduced to AD as Mimi Faust's loyal bestie and confidante, but this Southern belle is really known for her honest advice, and for turning heads with her radiant skin and power pixie. We say the bartender and aspiring singer needs more screen time next season.

Rotimi

Who wouldn't want to hear the "Beautiful Music" that comes from Rotimi Akinsho's full lips? The New Jersey native with Nigerian roots is a singer, actor and model who made his acting debut as Darius Morrison on Boss. Co-star T.I. scooped up the triple threat to rep his Akoo clothing brand. We'll take a dozen button downs!

Emayatzy Corinealdi

Pretty brown eyes? Yeah, Mint Condition could have penned their classic ballad for this chestnut beauty. The 30-something Panamanian and African-American actress wowed viewers in her breakout role as Ruby in 2012's Middle of Nowhere. Diehard fans know EC has been breaking hearts on the short film and indie scene for years.
